So Many Crossroads:

The Evangelical Church at the Crossroads of Secular Culture and Change Dr. Arnold O. Thompson, 2025-03-28

This book lays out in clear biblical and specific ways how the kingdom of God can effectively intersect with the kingdom of this world. The author first laid out the dark forces in the church's engagement in the so-called cultural wars like storm force winds blowing at the doors of the church to influence its message, change its historical methods, corrupt its mission. It identifies the crises in all three areas. The author contends that by and large the so-called cultural wars waged by sections of the evangelical church have been lost in the real mission of the Christian church. The book does not linger long here but rigorously lays out the biblical mandate and methods for the church to regain its purpose and mission of Christ in the world. This is the goal of this book. From the start the author understood this was an extensive undertaking to stand like John on the island of Patmos looking at visions of the modern church and to write a manifesto as if to say for God I see you I see what a large and influential segment of the church is doing which I contend is hurting the cause of Christ and His Gospel today. But also to say that I see what is needed to again influence the culture to turn to Christ. To give as did John a clear voice to defy the confusions and uncertainties and communicate effectively the Gospel of Christ to a lost world. This goal would seem impossible to see a revival of the Gospel in secular culture like the great revivals of the past. Except the ancient prophets said as did Peter in the revival of Pentecost. In the last days God says I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Acts 2:17. This book is a dream path to the reality of a revival of the Gospel in our times.

Hinsonville, a Community at the Crossroads Marianne H. Russo, Paul Anthony Russo, 2005. Seeking to reconstruct the early community of Hinsonville from fragmentary archival materials and oral interviews, Paul Russo together with his students at Lincoln University gradually unearthed information on Hinsonville's residents and their lives. Marianne Russo has taken her late husband's extensive research and placed it in the context of nineteenth-century African American history. Jacket.

The Crossroads of a Wonderful Life George Quigley Langstaff, Jr., 2013-12-27. A West Kentucky boy from a well-to-do family experiences the trauma of the Great Depression followed by the devastating flood of 1937. His family is thrown into poverty. His story of this tragedy and what followed is a fascinating journey through his challenges in childhood, work, education, sports, military service, love, faith, business, politics, religion, family, and world travel. At the age of eighty-seven he looked back on the many key events of his life and created an impressive autobiography The Crossroads of a Wonderful Life: Treasured and Not So Treasured Memories which he published and shared with family and friends. It was well received and now is offered to a larger audience. Witness the ups and downs of his and his family's lives, a remarkable replay of a business career that included noteworthy progress in a major company, almost unbelievable corporate intrigue, spying on the competition, CEO confrontation, and early retirement, a new and exciting CEO role, public service, and his lifelong commitment to his Christian faith. Enjoy the wonderful travels and photos of his family and friends Finally he incorporates messages learned through life about his ideas for career selection by the young graduate points for the new executive to consider a financial plan for life and evidences of his lifelong commitment to his Christian faith all of this enhanced by a revealing collection of photographs Project Crossroads Leon G. Leiberg,1971 Farm Communities at the Crossroads University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2003 This book is an outgrowth of a conference that analyzed transformations in farming farm communities and discussed what might be done to achieve a more socially responsible development It contains papers that address the pace of change in work rural society which has proceeded so rapidly that every new development appears to be a cross roads in which something precious is in danger of being left behind but something valuable may be gained by taking the right route Topics of the papers include the importance of work the family farm community building knowledge skills in the farm community coping with the farm crisis land reform short line railways farm co operatives agricultural chemicals agribusiness sustainable alternatives for agriculture game farming co operative intervention in the farm machinery sector conservation tillage globalization agricultural policy agrarian radicalism on the prairies and farm income support systems Includes index Personal Crossroads Gary Alexander,2023-02-06 Personal Crossroads is a story about two youths their friendship and through their friendship a budding romance while realizing that God is truly in charge of them Campaign Crossroads Andrew E. Stoner,2017 Campaign Crossroads looks back over the varied sometimes important sometimes irrelevant but always interesting presidential campaign cycles in Indiana s history By taking in the influences of technology transportation and communication itself we see an evolution in the political process that is not only altogether Hoosier but also altogether American in its quality and importance Using a narrative approach with a mix of primary and secondary sources the work examines not only the rhetoric of presidents and presidential hopefuls but also the nature of campaigns and their impact on Indiana communities While Indiana enjoyed the position of being a battleground state for the better part of a century from the 1870s until the 1960s it has also been ignored dismissed and has on occasion created unexpected political drama At His Crossroad Igor Kovač,2018-06-15 This book is a translation and celebration of Slovenian politician France Bu ar s seminal work Divided into two parts the book first contains several studies of Bu ar s arguments As Bu ar applied his system theory to a variety of issues so too the conglomerate of scholars and issues critically assessed is interdisciplinary ranging from political science and economics to law and philosophy as well as to natural sciences The contributors and the questions of their essays in the edited volume are as follows Peter Verovsek University of Sheffield examines different branches of Critical Theory and classifies Bu ar within them Mark Hamilton Inter American Defense College discusses system dynamics of Bu ar s system theory Ur ka Velikonja Georgetown University applies Bu ar s system theory to the question of the ethics rules and regulations in financial economics Finally Matej Drev Georgia Institute of Technology connects Bu ar to the issue of artificial intelligence and inequality The second part is the English translation of Bu ar s book At A New Crossroads which addresses the role of ethics in society Bu ar normatively redefines national identity as the crux of his novel understanding of ethics Using system theory he addresses the problems of globalization and governance presenting a post modern synthesis of the logic of free flow of capital and global citizenship with national and cultural identity Speaking to contemporary society he shows how society and ethical life are reproduced Bu ar provides the reader with new tools to think about national identity and global politics Bringing an important work on ethics government and identity to an entirely new readership this book will appeal to a broad academic audience namely students and practitioners in the fields of economics social sciences and humanities Program Development for Social Services in Public Assistance United States. Bureau of Family Services,1966
