

A close-up shot of a man with dark hair, wearing a dark blue patterned shirt. He has a serious, intense expression on his face, with his mouth slightly open as if he is speaking. The background is blurred, showing what appears to be a church interior with a red curtain and a framed picture on the wall.

So You Want To Make Movies My Life As An Independent Film Producer:

So You Want to Make Movies Sidney Pink, 1989 Keep Watching the Skies! Bill Warren, 2017-01-12 Bill Warren's Keep Watching the Skies was originally published in two volumes in 1982 and 1986. It was then greatly expanded in what we called the 21st Century Edition with new entries on several films and revisions and expansions of the commentary on every film. In addition to a detailed plot synopsis, full cast and credit listings and an overview of the critical reception of each film, Warren delivers richly informative assessments of the films and a wealth of insights and anecdotes about their making. The book contains 273 photographs, many rare, 35 in color, has seven useful appendices and concludes with an enormous index. This book is also available in hardcover format. ISBN 978 0 7864 4230 0 Actors of the Spaghetti Westerns James Prickett, 2012-01-20 Musical accompaniment were jazzed up renditions that basically fit the art form like a glove with a stylish beat that usually pounded out the action as the story unfolded. The music set the mood and the audiences followed. Most of these films would never reach America during the era even though they were generally aimed at the American filmgoers. The Actors who went to Italy and got involved in these lucrative new genre spinoffs all enjoyed star status, recognition and glow of the limelight that came with it. These are the Actors we're talking about here Sixties Shockers Mark Clark, Bryan Senn, 2025-01-31 This comprehensive filmography provides critical analyses and behind-the-scenes stories for 600 horror, science fiction and fantasy films from the 1960s. During those tumultuous years, horror cinema flourished, proving as innovative and unpredictable as the decade itself. Representative titles include Night of the Living Dead, The Haunting, Carnival of Souls, Repulsion, The Masque of the Red Death, Targets and The Conqueror Worm. An historical overview chronicles the explosive growth of horror films during this era as well as the emergence of such dynamic directorial talents as Roman Polanski, George Romero, Francis Ford Coppola and Peter Bogdanovich Land of a Thousand Balconies Jack Stevenson, 2003 Most books about B movies are straight forward genre guides, biographies or encyclopaedias. Not this one. In addition to chapters on film showmen, gimmicks and cult films, Land of a Thousand Balconies documents those incidents and unusual film happenings which author Jack Stevenson has over the past fifteen years been privy to in his various capacities as show organiser, tour arranger, festival jury member and projectionist for hire. Land of a Thousand Balconies also focuses on movie theatres and renegade exhibition spaces, lamenting on the disappearing sense of place that is such an integral part of the movie going experience. Here the reader is invited to tour a diversity of venues from the notorious old grindhouses of San Francisco, the home made store front cinemas of Seattle and NY through to the underground film clubs of Europe. The Book Lover's Guide to Florida Kevin M. McCarthy, 1992 Here is the book lover's literary tour of Florida, an exhaustive survey of writers, books and literary sites in every part of the state. The state is divided into ten areas and each one is described from a literary point of view. You will learn what authors lived in or wrote about a place, which books describe the place, what important movies were made there, even the literary trivia which the true Florida book lover will want to know.

You can use the book as a travel guide to a new way to see the state as an armchair guide to a better understanding of our literary heritage or as a guide to what to read next time you head to a bookstore or library Publisher Goddess of Love Incarnate Leslie Zemeckis, 2016-09-13 Lili St Cyr was in the words of legendary reporter Mike Wallace the highest paid stripteaser in America Wallace was so fascinated by Lili that out of all the presidents and celebrities he interviewed over a long career towards the end of his life she was the one he remained fixated on Her beauty had that kind of effect Lili St Cyr the one time queen of burlesque led an incredible life six marriages romances with Orson Wells Yul Brenner Vic Damone a number of suicide attempts all alongside great fame and money Yet despite her fierce will she lost it all becoming a recluse in her final decades she eked out a living selling old photos of herself living with magazines taped over her windows Goddess of Love Incarnate will be the definitive biography of this legendary figure done with the cooperation of Lili's only surviving relative But the book does more than fascinate readers with stories of a bygone era St Cyr was ahead of her time in facing the perils and prejudices of working women and the book offers a portrait of a strong artistic figure who went against the traditional roles and mores expected of women at that time St Cyr was the first stripper to work in the swanky nightclubs on Sunset Boulevard She was the first stripper to work Las Vegas She was at the top of her game for over thirty years And though she would feel conflicted by it as do many women who feel the push pull of careers especially controversial button pushing careers Lili would dismiss what she did as having no importance But she wouldn't give it up not for millionaires and most certainly not for love Based on years of research Goddess of Love Incarnate contains information and memorabilia that was almost lost forever As an award winning documentary filmmaker and expert writer Zemeckis brings St Cyr back to life the way no other writer can restoring Lili to her rightful place in American history A Year of Fear Bryan Senn, 2015-03-26 This eclectic overview of horror cinema offers up a collection of horror films for practically any occasion and literally every day of the year For example the author recommends commemorating United Nations Day October 24 with a screening of The Colossus of New York whose startling climax takes place at the U N Building Each day by day entry includes the movie title production year plot summary and critique along with a brief explanation of how the film fits into the history of that particular day and interesting anecdotes on the film's production Down and Dirty Pictures Peter Biskind, 2004 In the late 1980s a generation of filmmakers inspired by the directors of the 1970s began to flower outside the studio system In the following decade the independent movement bloomed In this volume Biskind tells the story of these filmmakers and the independent distributors How to Make Movies Kevin J. Lindenmuth, 2013-03-08 The success of low budget independent films like The Blair Witch Project and Paranormal Activity have clearly demonstrated that successful movies can be made with very small budgets Still working on a tight budget requires both skill and ingenuity and is an inevitable and continuous learning experience for the filmmaker Join two dozen truly independent filmmakers those used to working and delivering within extreme limitations as they bluntly chronicle their experiences creating features from the trenches They cover the major stages of the filmmaking process from financing technical decisions and handling actors and crew to music production and distribution With loads of practical advice actual case studies and many behind the scenes photographs this collection of war stories from the micro budget front lines will benefit aspiring and experienced independent filmmakers alike
