So What:

So What? Kevin Duncan, 2008-02-28 So What gets straight to the point so you can cut through the noise and nonsense of work Much of what we learn in our formative years is unlearned in later life As grown ups we are often unable to answer the simplest of questions in a clear direct way and frequently have no idea why we are doing something This can lead to crippling inefficiency in business and goes some way to explaining why so many people spend so much time doing things that have no bearing on the true purpose by behaving in a genuinely inquisitive way you can get right to the heart of the matter and save yourself hours days and even months of anguish The questions So what Why How and When can be hugely effective when applied in the right context and this book shows you how to use them Once all the right questions have been posed there is a final sure fire method for testing whether something is relevant and helpful By completing the sentence Something must be wrong if it is simple to work out if you are wasting your time For example Something must be wrong if I don't want to go to work in the morning So What shows you how to become truly inquisitive again So let the questions roll Pay attention to what the answers are Learn from them and you will immediately improve your prospects of finally getting somewhere in life So What's Next! G. J. So What, or How to Make Films with Words Alexander García Düttmann, 2023-01-15 A series of philosophical meditations on the nature of aesthetics across a wide array of filmmaking styles Images whether filmic or not cannot be replaced by words Yet words can make images This is the general thesis underlying So What a collection of essays on canonical filmmakers like Luchino Visconti and Orson Welles more experimental directors such as Marguerite Duras and Albert Serra and visual artists including Hollis Frampton and Agnes Martin Alexander García Düttmann aims to make their films as if they did not precede his text capturing their idea and experience If the relationship between filmic image and text is a heterogeneous one then this heterogeneity must leave a trace This is why the book's chapters are organized not according to historical periods or on the basis of film theories but rather by single concepts that function like dictionary entries The chapters adopt different forms blurring the lines between art and philosophy So What is a practical exercise in making films with words inviting readers to draw out insights from its conceptual play So What compiles previously untranslated and hard to find essays into a single volume one that represents the absorbing and singular thought process of a major contemporary philosopher
