Soviet Journey:

A Soviet Journey Alex La Guma, 2017-04-18 In 1978 the South African activist and novelist Alex La Guma 1925 1985 published A Soviet Journey a memoir of his travels in the Soviet Union Today it stands as one of the longest and most substantive first hand accounts of the USSR by an African writer La Guma's book is consequently a rare and important document of the anti apartheid struggle and the Cold War period depicting the Soviet model from an African perspective and the specific meaning it held for those envisioning a future South Africa For many members of the African National Congress and the South African Communist Party the Soviet Union represented a political system that had achieved political and economic justice through socialism a point of view that has since been lost with the collapse of the USSR and the end of the Cold War This new edition of A Soviet Journey the first since 1978 restores this vision to the historical record highlighting how activist intellectuals like La Guma looked to the Soviet Union as a paradigm of self determination decolonization and postcolonial development The introduction by Christopher J Lee discusses these elements of La Guma's text in addition to situating La Guma more broadly within the intercontinental spaces of the Black Atlantic and an emergent Third World Presenting a more expansive view of African literature and its global intellectual engagements A Soviet Journey will be of interest to readers of African fiction and non fiction South African history postcolonial Cold War studies and radical political thought

Soviet Journey Louis Fischer, 1973 Soviet Journey Louis Fischer, 1935 A Soviet Journey Alex La Guma, 1978-01-01 Exiled in East Germany Sebastian Pampuch, 2024-04-22 The presence of Africans in the German Democratic Republic is very rarely thought of in connection with the experience of exile Instead Africans in the GDR are predominantly viewed through the prism of educational and labor migration While such research has undoubtedly produced valuable insights it often fails to adequately account for the implicit Eurocentrism methodological nationalism and anti communist bias inherent in Western knowledge production This study offers a different approach Through biographical portrayal it unfolds the life stories of African freedom fighters who lived in exile in the GDR and ultimately remained in reunified Germany with the main case study being a Malawian activist who was expelled from East to West Berlin Recounting his experiences along with those of some South African exiles chief among them a former medical worker for the ANC's armed wing the study ethnographically reconstructs the multiple entanglements between the Second and Third worlds from the vantage point of the politically displaced within the concrete historical contexts of African decolonization the struggle against the Malawian Banda dictatorship and the struggle against South African apartheid

Soviet-American Relations, 1953-1960 Victor Rosenberg, 2015-01-24 Dwight D Eisenhower and Nikita Khrushchev presided over a pivotal period in Soviet American relations The ongoing Korean War and the lack of an American ambassador in Moscow illustrate the strain in Soviet American relations at the start of Eisenhower's presidency but things changed after Stalin died only 44 days later Stalin's successors began to liberalize both domestic and foreign policy in what became known as the Thaw There was an increase in diplomatic exchanges including the first modern summit conferences Of even greater importance the Soviet leaders began to reestablish the scientific cultural and tourist contacts that had been broken under Stalin Because political and ideological tensions remained and there were still restrictions on contacts the Soviet overtures can best be described as a half offered hand of friendship and perhaps it was less of a thaw than the end of a blizzard Nevertheless these contacts began a process which would help end the Cold War three decades later This history of relations between the Soviet Union and the United States during the Eisenhower and Khrushchev administrations explores political social and cultural exchanges and assesses their impact upon the two countries Besides diplomatic documents memoirs from Americans and Soviets and works of history it relies upon eyewitness accounts by journalists tourists and others to paint a detailed picture of the era Notes are included for each chapter and there is a bibliography and an index Soviet Journey Gary

Birchall,Quigley, Donna,1984 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, Making a World after Empire Christopher J. Lee,2019-08-19 In April 1955 twenty nine countries from Africa Asia and the Middle East came together for a diplomatic conference in Bandung Indonesia intending to define the direction of the postcolonial world Ostensibly representing two thirds of the world s population the Bandung conference occurred during a key moment of transition in the mid twentieth century amid the global wave of decolonization that took place after the Second World War and the nascent establishment of a new Cold War world order in its wake Participants such as Jawaharlal Nehru of India Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt Zhou Enlai of China and Sukarno of Indonesia seized this occasion to attempt the creation of a political alternative to the dual threats of Western neocolonialism and the Cold War interventionism of the United States and the Soviet Union The essays collected here explore the diverse repercussions of this event tracing diplomatic intellectual and sociocultural histories that ensued as well as addressing the broader intersection of postcolonial and Cold War history With a new foreword by Vijay Prashad and a new preface by the editor Making a World after Empire speaks to contemporary discussions of decolonization Third Worldism and the emergence of the Global South thus reestablishing the conference s importance in twentieth century global history Contributors Michael Adas Laura Bier James R Brennan G Thomas Burgess Antoinette Burton Dipesh Chakrabarty Julian Go Christopher J Lee Jamie Monson Jeremy Prestholdt and Denis M Tull Red Odyssey Marat Akchurin,2022-11-21 Red Odyssey is a travel book written by Marat Akchurin for those who have a passion for reading good adventure and historical fiction Through a kaleidoscope of individual perspectives the author explores and describes the collective historical experience of a multi ethnic and multi confessional nation living in a crumbling totalitarian state Red Odyssey is not a political treatise sociological analysis or history book about Central Asia during the former Soviet Union It is rather a tale of adventures of a time traveler trying to survive in a surrealistic society permeated with hypocrisy The ruling regime is captive to its own lies So it falsifies the past it falsifies the present and it falsifies the future Imperial propaganda transforms reality

into fiction The goal of Red Odyssey is to reverse the fabricated verisimilitude of their false utopia into the harsh truth of reality Akchurin s keen perceptive eye his taste for adventure and his intimate knowledge of this fractured superpower its history cultures legends folklores politics and ethnicities leave no stone unturned in his relentless exploration of places long ignored and misunderstood by the West
