Soviet Union Its Geographical Problems:

The Soviet Union and Its Geographical Problems Roy E. H. Mellor, 1982 A Guide to Information Sources in the Geographical Sciences Stephen Goddard, 1983-01-01 Geography is a wide ranging discipline and the number of information sources available is truly enormous These include printed books and journal articles maps satellite photographs archives statistical information and much else One particular problem facing geographers is that when one studies a foreign country information may be available only in the foreign country and difficult to obtain This book discusses the information sources available to geographers Russia, the Roots of Confrontation Robert Vincent Daniels, 1985 This book examines the historical contrasts between East and West and elucidates the Russian enigma It springs from the thesis that Russia's national character and its international relations can be understood only in light of the traumas and triumphs privation and privileges that the country weathered under the tsars and the Soviets Biology Bulletin of the Academy of Sciences of the USSR. Akademii nauk SSSR., 1975 Soviet Union Review , 1927 The Geopolitics of Domination Geoffrey Parker, 2014-10-03 Using the examples of the Ottoman Empire Spain Austria France and Germany this book describes the principal geopolitical features of the expansionist state It then presents a model of the operation of the expansionist process over space and time It goes on to apply the geopolitical characteristics of the model to the period after 1945 in order to assess the extent to which the Soviet Union might be considered as being an expansionist state either actually or potentially This latter question is obviously once more extremely relevant with the current events in Ukraine Military Aspects of World Political Geography United States. Air Force ROTC., 1954 Minerals Yearbook , 1992 Problems of Communism , 1986 Goldwyn and Lewis Nominations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, 1999
