

PLO-SOVIET

RELATIONS ENHANCED

On October 20th, the USSR announced that it had conferred full diplomatic status on the Moscow office of the PLO. The announcement followed an official visit by PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat to the Soviet Union, where he met with numerous Soviet leaders, including Comrade Leonid I. Brezhnev, General Secretary of the CPSU.

This political and diplomatic achievement comes as a result of the prolonged and determined struggle of the Palestinian masses. It is a reflection of our people's victories and successes on all levels — politically, militarily and organizationally — and their steadfast insistence that the PLO is their sole legitimate representative.

Increased recognition from the USSR has a special importance, and gives an added impetus to our struggle. The Soviet Union is a major power, the leader of the socialist community and the center of support for anti-imperialist struggle in the world. Its conferring full diplomatic status on the PLO will do much for our cause, strengthening the PLO's legitimacy worldwide. Other progressive countries will be likely to follow suit, making it more difficult for imperialism and Zionism to deny the legitimacy and importance of the Palestinian cause on the international level.

While the upgrading of diplomatic status reflects the increase in the PLO's recognition, it also crowns the special relationship that exists between the PLO and the Soviet Union. The USSR has maintained a principled stand in support of the Palestinian people, providing important material and political aid. The deepening of this relationship, coming at a time of increasing imperialist, Zionist and reactionary maneuvers, points to the sincere commitment of the USSR to the Palestinians' struggle for their just rights. The entire Palestinian resistance movement can only be strengthened by its alliance with the leading force for liberation, progress and socialism.
