Sowing Empire:

Sowing Empire Jill H. Casid, 2005-01-01 In an ambitious work of wide ranging literary visual and historical allusion Jill H Casid examines how landscaping functioned in an imperial mode that defined and remade the heartlands of nations as well as the contact zones and colonial peripheries in the West and East Indies Revealing the colonial landscape as far more than an agricultural system as a means of regulating national sexual and gender identities Casid also traces how the circulation of plants and hybridity influenced agriculture and landscaping on European soil and how colonial contacts materially shaped what we take as European

Visible Empire Daniela Bleichmar, 2012-10-08 Between 1777 and 1816 botanical expeditions crisscrossed the vast Spanish empire in an ambitious project to survey the flora of much of the Americas the Caribbean and the Philippines While these voyages produced written texts and compiled collections of specimens they dedicated an overwhelming proportion of their resources and energy to the creation of visual materials European and American naturalists and artists collaborated to manufacture a staggering total of more than 12 000 botanical illustrations Yet these images have remained largely overlooked until now In this lavishly illustrated volume Daniela Bleichmar gives this archive its due finding in these botanical images a window into the worlds of Enlightenment science visual culture and empire Through innovative interdisciplinary scholarship that bridges the histories of science visual culture and the Hispanic world Bleichmar uses these images to trace two related histories the little known history of scientific expeditions in the Hispanic Enlightenment and the history of visual evidence in both science and administration in the early modern Spanish empire As Bleichmar shows in the Spanish empire visual epistemology operated not only in scientific contexts but also as part of an imperial apparatus that had a long established tradition of deploying visual evidence for administrative purposes

Making Empire Jane Ohlmeyer, 2023 Ireland was England's oldest colony Making Empire revisits the history of empire in Ireland in a time of Brexit the culture wars and the campaigns around Black Lives Matter and Statues must fall to better understand how it has formed the present and how it might shape the future Empire and imperial frameworks policies practices and cultures have shaped the history of the world for the last two millennia It is nation states that are the blip on the historical horizon Making Empire re-examines empire as process and Ireland's role in it through the lens of early modernity It covers the two hundred years between the mid sixteenth century and the mid eighteenth century that equate roughly to the timespan of the First English Empire c 1550 c 1770s Ireland was England's oldest colony How then did the English empire actually function in early modern Ireland and how did this change over time What did access to European empires mean for people living in Ireland This book answers these questions by interrogating four interconnected themes First that Ireland formed an integral part of the English imperial system Second that the Irish operated as agents of empire's Third Ireland served as laboratory in and for the English empire Finally it examines the impact that empire's had on people living in early modern Ireland Even though the book's focus will be on Ireland and the English empire the Irish were trans-imperial and engaged with all of the early modern imperial powers It is therefore critical where possible and appropriate to look to other European and global empires for meaningful comparisons and connections in this era of expansionism What becomes clear is that colonisation was not a single occurrence but an iterative and durable process that impacted different parts of Ireland at different times and in different ways That imperialism was about the exercise of power violence coercion and expropriation Strategies about how best to turn conquest into profit to mobilise and control Ireland s natural resources especially land and labour varied but the reality of everyday life did not change and provoked a wide variety of responses ranging from acceptance and assimilation to resistance This book based on the 2021 James Ford Lectures Oxford University suggests that the moment has come revisit the history of empire if only to better understand how it has formed the present and how this might shape the future

Visualizing Egypt Paulina Banas,2025-04-15 Illustrated publications and the role of market forces in shaping representations of Egypt at a time when European colonial interests in the region were at their peak with 80 color and black and white illustrations In the nineteenth century following Napoleon Bonaparte s 1798 campaign in Egypt new possibilities of travel and improvements in printing technology saw an emergence of publishing ventures in France and Britain dedicated to the production of albums and travel accounts featuring images of Muslim Egypt and Islamic architecture and catering to a growing European fascination with the East Visualizing Egypt analyzes the context and process of production of these highly illustrated publications from their conceptualization to the finished product and its afterlife from marketing to the sales of these books and from circulation to their reception by nineteenth century audiences By tracing the long arduous and often risky publishing journeys of the makers of these books including publishers writers and artists such as the Frenchman mile Prisse d Avennes Paulina Banas reveals a complex terrain of changing market demands collaborations and conflicting views and the unsettled authorship of these works prompting us to think more profoundly about artistic and intellectual exchange in the world of nineteenth century Orientalist book production Visualizing Egypt considers nineteenth century book illustrations on Egypt and the Orient not merely as expressions of enduring ideology and colonial propaganda but as representations shaped by the often overlooked commercial exigencies of the growing publishing industry and the reckless competition within it

Bundok Adrian De Leon,2023-12-05 From the late eighteenth century the hinterlands of Northern Luzon and its Indigenous people were in the crosshairs of imperial and capitalist extraction Combining the breadth of global history with the intimacy of biography Adrian De Leon follows the people of Northern Luzon across space and time advancing a new vision of the United States s Pacific empire that begins with the natives and migrants who were at the heart of colonialism and its everyday undoing From the emergence of Luzon s eighteenth century tobacco industry and the Hawaii Sugar Planters Association s documentation of workers to the movement of people and ideas across the Suez Canal and the stories of Filipino farmworkers in the American West De Leon traces the Filipino as a racial category emerging from the labor subjugation archiving and resistance of native people De Leon s imaginatively constructed archive yields a sweeping history that promises to reshape our understanding of race making in the Pacific world Understories: Plants and Culture in the American Tropics Lesley Wylie, 2023-11-15 Understories: Plants and Culture in the American Tropics establishes the central importance of plants to the histories and cultures of the extended tropical region stretching from the U S South to Argentina Through close examination of a number of significant plants cacao mate agave the hevea brasiliensis kudzu the breadfruit soy and the ceiba pentandra among others this volume shows that vegetal life has played a fundamental role in shaping societies and in formulating cultural and environmental imaginaries in and beyond the region Drawing on a wide range of cultural traditions and forms across literature popular music art and film the essays included in this volume transcend regional and linguistic boundaries to bring together multiple plant centred histories or understories narratives that until now have been marginalized or gone unnoticed Attending not only to the significant influence of humans on plants but also of plants on humans this book offers new understandings of how colonization globalization and power were and continue to be imbricated with nature in the American tropics Empires of Vision Martin Jay, Sumathi Ramaswamy, 2014-03-14 Combining visual culture and postcolonial studies this reader shows that an appreciation of the role of visual experience is necessary for understanding how colonialism worked and how colonized subjects spoke to imperial rulers The British Empire Jeremy Black, 2016-03-09 What was the course and consequence of the British Empire The rights and wrongs strengths and weaknesses of empire are a major topic in global history and deservedly so Focusing on the most prominent and wide ranging empire in world history the British empire Jeremy Black provides not only a history of that empire but also a perspective from which to consider the issues of its strengths and weaknesses and rights and wrongs In short this is history both of the past and of the present day discussion of the past that recognises that discussion over historical empires is in part a reflection of the consideration of contemporary states In this book Professor Black weaves together an overview of the British Empire across the centuries with a considered commentary on both the public historiography of empire and the politically charged character of much discussion of it There is a coverage here of social as well as political and economic dimensions of empire and both the British perspective and that of the colonies is considered The chronological dimension is set by the need to consider not only imperial expansion by the British state but also the history of Britain within an imperial context As such this is a story of empires within the British Isles Europe and later world wide The book addresses global decline decolonisation and the complex nature of post colonialism and different imperial activity in modern and contemporary history Taking a revisionist approach there is no automatic assumption that imperialism empire and colonialism were bad things Instead there is a dispassionate and evidence based evaluation of the British empire as a form of government an economic system and a method of engagement with the world one with both faults and benefits for the metropole and the colony Clandestine Marriage Theresa M. Picturing the Land Marylin Jean McKay, 2011 The vast Canadian landscape has captured the imagination of visual artists since the first European contact Although artistic engagement with the landscape has a long history some periods have drawn considerable critical attention while others have been left almost unexamined Picturing the Land surveys work from coast to coast from the earliest maps to postwar painting in English and French Canada To provide a comprehensive view of Canadian landscape art Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marylin McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada
