The Logic of Love Ruben Zimmermann, 2018-09-15 The goal of the present study unfolds in the following four ways First in analyzing Pauline writings primarily Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians it can be demonstrated that the Apostle can be described as an ethicist The hypothesis operative here is that in the sources despite their occasional and situational character and their epistolary form one can recognize a coherent system of grounds for behavior i.e. ethics I call this recognizable ethics implicit ethics Secondly this work pursues an explicit ethical interpretation of Paul's writings What does it mean to read these texts through an ethical lens I here offer an approach with which one can decipher the ethical content of a historical text This methodology for ethical analysis so called organon is not only applicable to Paul's writings but can also provide an impetus for the ethical interpretation of other NT texts and even for the literature of early Christianity and the Bible more generally The variety of forms and the complexity of the reflection in Paul's letters can in a third point enrich the discourse of theological ethics It will be seen that the rationale for his ethics is pluralistic and simply cannot be described in a one-sided manner as simply being a deontological ethics of norms Along these lines a fourth element is found in stimulating interdisciplinary debates concerning ethics If one is able to examine and describe the norms and grounds of justification in Biblical ethics using the language and forms of description utilized in modern ethical theory biblical ethics could once again gain a voice that can be taken seriously in the modern discussion of values The point is not to have Scripture per se join the discussion but for these texts to function as a laboratory Paul Ricoeur in which ethical speech and thought relevant for contemporary concerns can be inspired and encouraged In a concluding chapter this dialogue is already started by describing specific aspects of Pauline ethics against the background or moral philosophical debate e.g. bodily ethics beyond hedonism ethics of relinquishing beyond contractual ethics or ethics of love beyond Eudaimonian ethics

On This Rock E. A. Judge, 2020-10-15 The command of the risen Christ was to make students of all nations On this Rock I will build But the spread of the Pentecostal gospel disrupted the national values of eternal Rome with her increasingly international citizenship Loyalty to the Caesars obligatory in the Roman world could not break the Christians' trust in their Christ In despair the government gave in to the unimaginable Galerius tolerated the Christian alternative communities and their divergent outlook on life One must now tolerate living in two incommensurate communities at once This is at the heart of Late Antiquity The Rock remains but masked in the antique ceremonial of religion That late antique compromise has laid the foundation for the interaction of church and state in the modern West Successor to Paul and the Conflict of Cultures 2019 this seventh collection of Judge s historical essays explores the development of Christianity in Roman society from the New Testament era to the time of Constantine and beyond always with a view to the modern situation

Radical Philosophy of Life Ernst Baasland, 2021-01-13 The Sermon on the Mount never ceases to challenge readers in every generation New methods and new insights into new surroundings have to be applied to the most influential speech ever given In this study Ernst Baasland takes a fresh look at the history of research done on it both on its broad influence and on the variety of interpretations The historical questions are seen from new perspectives Is orality the key to a better understanding To what extent can we reconstruct a pre text and the question of authenticity be answered These questions are seen through historiographical lenses The author argues in favour of a universal addressee and maintains that the speech contains radical philosophical thinking The first audience consisted of Jews and the religiously based understanding of life is conceived within Judaism However its ethics of wisdom is developed in a Hellenistic setting and provides a radical philosophy of life

Commission Narratives István Czachesz, 2007 Commission Narratives is based on the author s doctoral dissertation in Groningen 2002 The monograph offers the first overarching comparative treatment of commission narratives in the canonical and apocryphal Acts of the Apostles analysing them in their ancient literary setting Following a survey of this widespread narrative theme in the cultural environment of early Christianity Czachesz establishes a threefold social typology of divine commission institutional prophetic and philosophical and explores the occurrences of the three types in the canonical and apocryphal Acts The central chapters of the book provide a close reading of the textual evidence investigating intertextual relations the function of commission in the narrative structure and the biographical models of self definition that commission stories offered to the ancient readers in their changing social and ecclesiastical environments Based on this textual analysis Czachesz makes new proposals about the reconstruction Sitz im Leben and dating of several apocryphal Acts Finally he examines the synchronic structure of commission showing that the variety of commission narratives emerges from a constant set of motifs that are generated by interactions among the characters
