Colonial and Global Interfacings Gary Backhaus,2009-03-26 How space is owned through practices of domination that emerged through colonialism and have been sustained through capitalist social relations in a post colonial context How Imperial power created in Foucault s words a boomerang effect whereby the techniques developed to control and subjugate colonial subjects worked with such efficiency that they were imported back into Western societies to create new orders of control How while new social movements such as the Zapatistas have remapped the rural and developed new ways to challenge and transform politics Western societies have sought to reconstruct the world order through economic processes and military strategy How the self image of the West is shaped by its relationship with the Rest but also how the rest has found new ways of constructing identity that are now transforming the West as people images commodities and meanings flow through the global economy The cases considered cover every continent contrast the West with the East as well as the global North with the global South and prompt us to take history seriously in the construction of the present Addressing the current buzzwords that have spread from geography across the social sciences and the humanities this book will appeal to researchers and practitioners fascinated by the connections between cultural representation power spatiality and how the ways we have been thinking about the world are open to question

The Power of Spirit Harrison Owen,2000 The author feels that the spirit in our workplaces is becoming a little tattered and showing signs of Soul Pollution Those in the advanced stages may be plagued by exhaustion stress and the abuse of just about anything spouses substances and fellow workers This text examines the world of spirit consciousness in organizations and offers to help those who find themselves dreading another day in the job The author draws on theories of self organizing systems to reveal how spirit shows up in new organizational forms

On Chinese Culture Deshun Li,2015-12-21 This book is divided into three main parts an introduction to theories of culture a section on Chinese culture and one on cultural construction The first part can be interpreted as an attempt to explore the meta theoretical system of culture at the philosophical level Based on the concept of culture as ways of living the book further defines culture as the preparation of people including the processes by which people adapt to local cultural and social customs It stresses the subjectivity of culture and the cultural rights and responsibilities of humankind The second part takes on the subjective perspective of contemporary Chinese culture interpreting it within the context of the historical situation of the Chinese people and nation before engaging in a systematic reflection on several fundamental issues of Chinese culture It closes by evaluating Chinese cultural practices and formulating a type of contemporary cultural self identity The book s third part focuses on the interconnection between the revival of the Chinese nation and the modernization of Chinese society analyzing the conditions and challenges for the three primary types of contemporary Chinese culture material culture political culture and spiritual culture Lastly the book puts forward suggestions concerning several of the critical problems facing a society in transition
