Make Me Commissioner Jane Leavy, 2025-09-09 Make Jane Commissioner Leavy has a voice demanding to be heard and Major League Baseball should listen THE WALL STREET JOURNAL A New York Times bestselling biographer and lifelong baseball devotee takes readers on an epic journey through the game that baseball has become a heartfelt manifesto that is perfect for lovers of the sport Jane Leavy has always loved baseball Her grandmother lived one long loud foul ball away from Yankee Stadium the same grandmother who took young Jane to Saks Fifth Avenue and bought her her first baseball glove It is no coincidence that Leavy was covering the game she loved for the Washington Post by the late 1970s As a pioneering female sportswriter she eventually turned her talent to books penning three of the all time best baseball biographies about three of the all time best players Sandy Koufax Mickey Mantle and Babe Ruth But when she went searching for a fourth biographical subject she realized that baseball had faltered The Moneyball era of the last two decades obsessed over data and slowed the game down to a crawl often at the expense of thrills skills and surprise Major League Baseball has begun to address issues too long ignored yet the questions linger how much have these efforts helped to improve the game and reassert its place in American culture Leavy takes a whirlwind tour of the country seeking answers to these questions talking with luminaries like Joe Torre Dave Roberts Jim Palmer Dusty Baker and more What Leavy uncovers is not only what is wrong with baseball and how to fix it but also what is right with baseball and how it illuminates characters tells stories and fires up the imagination of those who love it and everyone who could discover it anew
