Spaces Of Capital Towards A Critical Geography:

Spaces of Capital David Harvey, 2019-07-30 David Harvey is unquestionably the most influential as well as the most cited geographer of his generation His reputation extends well beyond geography to sociology planning architecture anthropology literary studies and political science This book brings together for the first time seminal articles published over three decades on the tensions between geographical knowledges and political power and on the capitalist production of space Classic essays reprinted here include On the history and present condition of geography The geography of capitalist accumulation and The spatial fix Hegel von Thunen and Marx Two new chapters represent the author's most recent thinking on cartographic identities and social movements David Harvey's persistent challenge to the claims of ethical neutrality on behalf of science and geography runs like a thread throughout the book He seeks to explain the geopolitics of capitalism and to ground spatial theory in social justice In the process he engages with overlooked or misrepresented figures in the history of geography placing them in the context of intellectual history The presence here of Kant Von Thunen Humboldt Lattimore Leopold alongside Marx Hegel Heidegger Darwin Malthus Foucault and many others shows the deep roots and significance of geographical thought At the same time David Harvey's telling observations of current social environmental and political trends show just how vital that thought is to the understanding of the world as it is and as it might be Spaces of Capital

David Harvey, 2001 Spaces of Capital David Harvey, 2001 Spaces of Capital/Spaces of Resistance Chris Hesketh, 2017-12-15 Based on original fieldwork in Chiapas and Oaxaca Mexico this book offers a bridge between geography and historical sociology Chris Hesketh examines the production of space within the global political economy Drawing on multiple disciplines Hesketh's discussion of state formation in Mexico takes us beyond the national level to explore the interplay between global regional national and sub national articulations of power These are linked through the novel deployment of Antonio Gramsci's concept of passive revolution understood as the state led institution or expansion of capitalism that prevents the meaningful participation of the subaltern classes Furthermore the author brings attention to the conflicts involved in the production of space placing particular emphasis on indigenous communities and movements and their creation of counterspaces of resistance Hesketh argues that indigenous movements are now the leading social force of popular mobilization in Latin America The author reveals how the wider global context of uneven and combined development frames these specific indigenous struggles and he explores the scales at which they must now seek to articulate themselves

Spaces of Contention Byron Miller, 2016-04-01 As social movements have become more complex geographers are increasingly studying the spatial dynamics of collective resistance and sociologists and political scientists increasingly analyzing the role of space place and scale in contentious political activity Occupying a position at the intersection of these disciplinary developments this book brings together leading scholars to examine how social movements have employed spatial practices to respond to and shape changing social and political contexts It is organised into three main sections 1

Place Space and Mobility sites of mobilization and regulation 2 Scale and Territory structuring collective interests identities and resources and 3 Networks connecting actors and resources across space It concludes by suggesting that different spatialities place scale networks interlink within one another in particular instances of collective action playing distinctive yet complementary roles in shaping how these actions unfold in the political arena By mapping state of the art conceptual and empirical terrain across Geography Sociology and Political Science Spaces of Contention provides readers with a much needed guide to innovative research on the spatial constitution of social movements and how social movements tactically and strategically approach and produce space A Companion to Sport David L. Andrews, Ben Carrington, 2013-06-21 A

Companion to Sport brings together writing by leading sports theorists and social and cultural thinkers to explore sport as a central element of contemporary culture Positions sport as a crucial subject for critical analysis as one of the most significant forms of popular culture Includes both well known social and cultural theorists whose work lends itself to an interrogation of sport and leading theorists of sport itself Offers a comprehensive examination of sport as a social and cultural practice and institution Explores sport in relation to modernity postcolonial theory gender violence race disability and politics New Urban Spaces Neil Brenner, 2019-05-24 The urban condition is today being radically transformed Urban restructuring is accelerating new urban spaces are being consolidated and new forms of urbanization are crystallizing In New Urban Spaces Neil Brenner argues that understanding these mutations of urban life requires not only concrete research but new theories of urbanization To this end Brenner proposes an approach that breaks with inherited conceptions of the urban as a bounded settlement unit the city or the metropolis and explores the multiscale constitution and periodic rescaling of the capitalist urban fabric Drawing on critical geopolitical economy and spatialized approaches to state theory Brenner offers a paradigmatic account of how rescaling processes are transforming inherited formations of urban space and their variegated consequences for emergent patterns and pathways of urbanization The book also advances an understanding of critical urban theory as radically revisable key urban concepts must be continually reinvented in relation to the relentlessly mutating worlds of urbanization they aspire to illuminate Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27

Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies

Shopping Malls and Public Space in Modern China Nicholas

Jewell, 2016-03-03 China's rise as an economic superpower has been inescapable Statistical hyperbole has been accompanied by a plethora of highly publicized architectural forms that brand the regeneration of its increasingly globalized urban centres Despite the sizeable body of literature that has accompanied China's modernization the essence and trajectory of its contemporary cityscape remains difficult to grasp This volume addresses a less explored aspect of China's urban rejuvenation the prominence of the shopping mall as a keystone of its public spaces Here the presence of the built form most representative of Western capitalism's excess is one that makes explicit the tensions between China's Communist state and its ascent within the free market This book examines how these interrelationships are manifested in the culturally hybrid built form of the shopping mall and its role in contesting the public space of the modern Chinese city By viewing these interrelationships as collisions of global and local narratives a more nuanced understanding of the shopping mall typology is explored Much architectural criticism has failed to address the levels of meaning implicit within the shopping mall yet it is a building type whose public popularity has guaranteed its endurance Consequently if architecture is to remain a relevant social art a more holistic understanding of this phenomenon will be indispensable to the process of adapting to globalizing forces This examination of Chinese shopping malls offers a timely and relevant case study of what is happening in all our cities today

A Companion To Marx's Capital, Volume 2 David Harvey, 2013-12-17

The biggest financial crisis since the Great Depression shows no sign of coming to a close and Marx's work remains key in understanding the cycles that lead to recession For nearly forty years David Harvey has written and lectured on Capital becoming one of the world's most foremost Marx scholars Based on his recent lectures and following the success of his companion to the first volume of Capital Harvey turns his attention to Volume 2 aiming to bring his depth of learning to a broader audience guiding first time readers through a fascinating and hitherto neglected text Whereas Volume 1 focuses on production Volume 2 looks at how the circuits of capital the buying and selling of goods realize value This is a must read for everyone concerned to acquire a fuller understanding of Marx's political economy
