The Southern Appalachians Susan L. Yarnell, 1998 The Search for Mabila Vernon J. Knight, 2009-04-26 The Search for Mabila describes one of the most profound events in sixteenth century North America which was a ferocious battle between the Spanish army of Hernando de Soto and a larger force of Indian warriors under the leadership of a feared chieftain named Tascalusa Myth and the History of the Hispanic Southwest David J. Weber, 1988 Located in Southwest Collection The Archaeology of Ethnogenesis Barbara L. Voss, 2015-03-31 This pioneering work of historical archaeology sheds light on the genesis of the Californios a community of military settlers who forged a new identity on the northwest edge of Spanish North America The revised edition includes a new preface from the author looking at the development of ethnogenesis theory since the first edition of this book Archaeological and Historical Perspectives on the Spanish Borderlands East David Hurst Thomas, 1990 De Tomebamba a Cuenca Ross William Jamieson, 2003

Domestic Architecture and Power Ross W. Jamieson, 2005-12-08 Historical archaeology one of the fastest growing of archaeology's sub fields in North America has developed more slowly in Central and particularly South America Happily this circumstance is ending as a growing number of recent projects are successfully integrating textual and material culture data in studies of the events and processes of the last 500 years This interval and this region often called Ibero America have been studied for a century or more by historians with traditional perspectives and emphases focusing on colonial elites and large scale politico economic events Such inclinations fit well into world system and other core periphery models that have had a major impact on historical thought since the 1970s Over the past 20 years or so however world system models have come under fire from historians anthropologists and others in part because the emphasis on global trends and the growth of capitalism nixes the importance of understanding variability in local histories and circumstances Historians have increasingly turned their attention to local rural and domestic contexts thereby illuminating the great diversity of responses to colonial domination that were played out in the vast arena of the Americas It is not coincidental that this is the intellectual climate in which historical archaeology is establishing itself in Central and South America Archaeological and Historical Perspectives on the Spanish Borderlands West David Hurst Thomas, 1989 Columbian Consequences: Archaeological and historical perspectives on the Spanish Borderlands East David Hurst Thomas, 1989 Columbian Consequences: Archaeological and historical perspectives on the Spanish borderlands east, 1989
