Spare The Child Religious Roots Of Punishment And Psychological Impact Of Physical Abuse:

Spare the Child Philip J. Greven, 1991 Religious roots of punishment and psychological impact of physical abuse The Psychology of Religion and Coping Kenneth I. Pargament, 2001-02-15 Bridging the subject fields of psychology and religion this volume interweaves theories with first hand accounts clinical insight and empirical research to look at such questions as whether religion is a help or a hindrance in times of stress Spanked Christina L. Erickson, 2022 Provides a history of spanking including the transition from instruments to the hand Reviews relevant research over the last 100 years on spanking outcomes Identifies the social and cultural supports of spanking including legal standing Includes thought provoking prompts on what it means to be a parent Trauma Selma Leydesdorff, 2017-09-29 Traumatic experiences and their consequences are often the core of life stories told by survivors of violence In Trauma Life Stories of Survivors leading academics explore the relationship between the experiences of terror and helplessness that have caused trauma the ways in which survivors remember and the representation of these memories in the language and form of their life stories International case studies include the migration of Ethiopian Jews to Israel the life stories of Guatemalan war widows violence in South Africa persecution of political prisoners in South Africa and the former Czechoslovakia lynching in the Mississippi Delta resistance in Zimbabwe s liberation war sexual abuse and the ongoing Irish troubles The volume reveals the complexity of remembering and forgetting traumatic experiences and shows that survivors are likely to express themselves in stories containing elements that are imaginary fragmented and loaded with symbolism Trauma Life Stories of Survivors is a groundbreaking work of relevance across the social sciences This new perspective on trauma will be of particular importance to researchers in psychology history women s studies anthropology sociology and cultural studies Victim Policies and Criminal Justice on the Road to Restorative Justice Tony Peters, 2001 This edited volume contains 22 papers organized into three sections under the following headings part I is entitled On Promoting Victim Policies Part II On Reforming Criminal Justice and Part III On Restorative Justice All three areas are ones to which Tony Peters former Professor of Criminology in Leuven has made a significant contribution and for which he is known as an international authority During his long and productive academic career Tony Peters led many struggles for criminal justice reform He was a leading figure in the movement to recognize crime victims plight and to reaffirm their rights In Belgium he spearheaded the early initiatives in restorative justice and became one of its outspoken proponents nationally and internationally There is no doubt that these three major topics and the various developments and reforms that are addressed in the papers will dominate the thinking about and the practice of criminal justice in the years to come Thus in addition to paying homage to a congenial friend and an illustrious colleague it is hoped that this book will appeal and prove useful to all those who have an interest in victims issues in criminal justice reform and last but not least in the promising paradigm of restorative justice You're Only Young Twice Timothy Morris, 2000 Original and thought provoking You're Only Young Twice reveals the complexities that underlie even the sparest picture book text and the lessons that reside in even the most familiar family movie plots Moving from classic texts The Secret Garden Goodnight Moon to ephemera the Hardy Boys Goosebumps and Harry Potter series from the printed page to the silver screen Willie Wonka Jumanji 101 Dalmatians Beethoven Tim Morris employs his experience as a parent and teacher to interrogate children's culture and reveal its conflicting messages Books and films for children favorites accepted as wholesome fare for impressionable young minds do not always teach straightforward lessons Instead they reflect the anxieties of the times and the desires of adults At the heart of many a children's classic lies power often expressed through racism sexism or violence Under Morris's gaze revered animal stories like Black Beauty turn into litanies of abuse fantasies of childhood like Big are revealed as patriarchal struggles You're Only Young Twice redirects the focus on children's literature asking not What messages should children receive but What messages do adults actually send For example Morris recounts his own childhood confusion upon viewing Peter Pan with its queenish inept pirate and a grown woman Mary Martin in tights who pretends to be a crowing boy Morris shatters our long held assumptions and challenges our best intentions demonstrating how children's literature and films lay bare a troubled and troubling worldview

Psychobiographies and Godly Visions Stephen A. Kent, 2025-08-06 This book argues that the religious visions and experiences of many religious founders were the result of mental health disorders or neurological conditions thereby calling into question supernatural origins about the faiths that they developed It constructs this argument by extensively utilizing psychiatric and other mental health and medical material that social scientists and religious studies scholars have underutilized in their analyses of religious experiences Using a multi disciplinary approach to examine psychobiographies of numerous major and minor religious figures in Judaism Christianity and Islam Ezekiel Sabbatai evi St Paul John Wesley and Muhammad along with leaders of many newer or alternative sects and cults Rajneesh Charles Manson L Ron Hubbard David Berg Marshall Applewhite Jim Jones Sun Myung Moon and Elizabeth Clare Prophet The book integrates material from religious studies psychiatry and psychology neurology and the social sciences to address issues related to religions origins Its extensive bibliography makes it an indispensable resource for scholars of psychiatry and religion new religious movements and religious narcissism

In the Name of Education Jonas E. Alexis, 2007 Alexis convincingly examines the crisis in education from a Christian perspective Social Issues Handbook of Youth and Justice Susan O. White, 2013-11-11 When approached by Plenum to put together a volume of social science research on the topic of youth and justice I found the interdisciplinary challenge of such a project intriguing Having spent 2 years as Director of the Law and Social Science Program at the National Science Foundation I was well aware of the rich diversity of research that could fit within that topic I also knew that excellent research on youth and justice was coming from different communities of researchers who often were isolated from each other in their respective disciplines as psychologists sociologists criminologists or policy analysts I saw this project as an opportunity to break down some of this isolation by introducing these researchers and their work to each other and to the broader community of social scientists interested in law and justice There was another gap or set of gaps to be bridged as well The juvenile justice system and the criminal justice system differ in significant ways and the civil justice system which is a major venue for issues of youth and justice is yet another separate world Few researchers are likely to know the whole picture For example a focus on juvenile justice often ignores the extent to which civil justice proceedings shape the lives of young people through divorce custody adoption family preservation policies and other actions and vice versa
