The Literary Manuscripts and Letters of Hannah More Nicholas D. Smith, 2016-12-05 The result of extensive archival investigation this meticulously researched book collects and describes for the first time the extant literary manuscripts and letters of the celebrated Bluestocking writer and Evangelical philanthropist Hannah More 1745 1833 Participating in the ongoing recovery of eighteenth century women writers Nicholas D Smith's survey is an indispensable reference work not only for More scholars but for those researching the careers of many of her contemporaries Features include an extended narrative analysis of the manuscripts that plots More's participation in the manuscript culture of the period and contextualizes the individual entries in the index provenance details for the more substantial manuscript holdings in British and North American repositories and identification of numerous autograph manuscripts and transcripts in public and private collections More than 1 500 letters in 95 locations in Britain and North America have been inventoried and precise dates and internal locators are supplied when known More's letters the majority of which have never been published are a largely untapped source of primary materials for scholars and students researching such diverse subjects as the literary activities and opinions of the Bluestocking circle women's conduct and education publishing and the book trade the national debate over the abolition of the slave trade the rise of the Evangelical movement the conservative reaction to the American and French revolutions and the Napoleonic wars The Religious Use of the Visitation of Sickness John Dalton, 1746

Wilberforce Anne Stott, 2012-03-15 At the age of thirty seven after a very short courtship William Wilberforce married Barbara Spooner the daughter of a Midlands industrialist and their first child was born in the following year His family life brought him both happiness and anxiety Convinced that he had been too long a Bachelor he lacked confidence in his ability to be a good husband and father A great deal has been written about Wilberforce's role in the abolition of the slave trade but far less about his private life Yet this is the man who exchanged his prestigious Yorkshire constituency for an undemanding pocket borough in order to devote himself to his family In her innovative study Anne Stott casts fresh light on the abolitionist and his friends the group of Evangelical philanthropists retrospectively named the Clapham sect While the men occupied important public roles they were also deeply committed to the ideal of domesticity The ideology of the period depicted the middle class home as a place of tranquil retreat from the cares and temptations of public life though the family crises depicted in this study show that the reality was always more complex With varying degrees of success the Clapham men and women brought their Evangelical piety to their patterns of courtship and marriage their philosophy of child rearing and their strategies in coping with death and bereavement For the first time much of this story is told from the perspective of the wives and it is primarily through their voices that the book's themes of the family women and gender childhood and education sexuality and intimacy are explored The Novellino or One Hundred Ancient Tales Joseph P. Consoli, 2013-07-04 First published in 1997 Considered one of the first prose works in Italian and a precursor of the Decameron this is the first complete translation of the Novellino into English based on the 1525 editio princeps While manuscripts vary as to wording and the number of tales the 1525 first edition follows seven of the eight known manuscripts closely The text includes a transcription of the 1525 edition taken from the copy in the Parma Biblioteca Palatina This transcription has been altered as little as possible diacriticals are added and capitalization is systematized but no attempt has been made to modernize the language Vocabulary notes are provided as are ample notes to explain the historical and cultural significance of figures and events in the tales There is one bibliography for the Novellino and another for the explanatory notes

The Archer's Register ,1904 A sermon [on Matt. v. 16] preached at ... Bath, for promoting the ... subscription towards the ... hospital ... in that ... city ... To which is added, a short account of the General Infirmary at Bath William Warburton,1742 Birds of Massachusetts and Other New England States Edward Howe Forbush,1929 A collection of miscellaneous papers, political, topographical parochial etc. relating to the county of Suffolk ,1756 Annual Report of the National Society for Promoting the Education of the Poor in the Principles of the Established Church National Society for Promoting the Education of the Poor in the Principles of the Established Church (Great Britain),1812 A Catalogue of Plants, Botanically Arranged According to the System of Linnæus, Most of which are Cultivated and Sold by John Brunton and Co., Etc John BRUNTON (AND CO.),1777
