Spatiality Of The Novel:

The Spatiality of the Novel Joseph A. Kestner, 1978 The Spatiality of the Novel Joseph A. Kestner, 1978

Space and the Eighteenth-Century English Novel Simon Varey, 1990-07-27 In this challenging and illustrated study first published in 1990 Simon Varey relates the idea of space in the major novels of Defoe Fielding and Richardson to its use in the theory and practice of eighteenth century architecture Concepts of divine design expressed in the work of philosophers and theologians introduced an ideological element to the notion of space which gave it a heightened significance in contemporary thought Professor Varey's central argument is that space becomes a political instrument used to establish conformity assert power and give form to the aspirations of social classes He draws on a wide range of architectural books both English and European and on the example of Bath focusing in particular on its chief architect in the eighteenth century John Wood The discussion of novels such as Robinson Crusoe Tom Jones and Clarissa examines narrative as a form of spatial design the use of architectural imagery to describe people and the political control of social space Spatial Politics in the Postcolonial Novel Sara Upstone, 2016-04-01 In her innovative study of spatial locations in postcolonial texts Sara Upstone adopts a transnational and comparative approach that challenges the tendency to engage with authors in isolation or in relation to other writers from a single geographical setting Suggesting that isolating authors in terms of geography reinforces the primacy of the nation Upstone instead illuminates the power of spatial locales such as the journey city home and body to enable personal or communal statements of resistance against colonial prejudice and its neo colonial legacies While focusing on the major texts of Wilson Harris Toni Morrison and Salman Rushdie in relation to particular spatial locations Upstone offers a wide range of examples from other postcolonial authors including Michael Ondaatje Keri Hulme J M Coetzee Arundhati Roy Tsitsi Dangarembga and Abdulrazak Gurnah The result is a strong case for what Upstone terms the postcolonial spatial imagination independent of geography though always fully contextualised Written in accessible and unhurried prose Upstone's study is marked by its respect for the ways in which the writers themselves resist not only geographical boundaries but academic categorisation Pleasures of Literary Spatiality E.L. Ridsen, 2024-02-15 Barring such illnesses as claustrophobia or agoraphobia or situations such as medical isolation or incarceration most people move naturally from smaller to larger spaces and back again without giving the process much thought But paying attention to our own movement in space yields all sorts of sensory experiences from something relaxing to something terrifying or even astonishingly beautiful Our sense of expandable contractible space can influence how we process everything from Japanese gardens to mountain hikes and desert expanses Writers often expand or contract spaces around their characters for dramatic effect character building and even thematic purposes Marie de France used expanded spaces for adventure and travel and contracted spaces first for romance and then for spiritual devotion Chaucer used expanded spaces for adventure pilgrimage and danger and contracted spaces for conviviality and storytelling Dante and Milton created expansive cosmologies but focused on small spaces for both suffering and incredible spiritual achievement This study of literary spatiality yields fascinating results reflects useful techniques for reading and reminds us of the value of all sorts of different approaches to analysis and artistic enjoyment Contemporary Nordic Literature and Spatiality Kristina Malmio,Kaisa

Kurikka,2019-10-14 This open access collection offers a detailed mapping of recent Nordic literature and its different genres fiction poetry and children s literature through the perspective of spatiality Concentrating on contemporary Nordic literature the book presents a distinctive view on the spatial turn and widens the understanding of Nordic literature outside of canonized authors Examining literatures by Danish Norwegian Swedish and Finnish authors the chapters investigate a recurrent theme of social criticism and analyze this criticism against the welfare state and power hierarchies in spatial terms The chapters explore various narrative worlds and spaces from the urban to parks and forests from textual spaces to spatial thematics studying these spatial features in relation to the problems of late modernity The Emergence of the Fourth

Dimension Mark Blacklock,2018 This volume examines the emergence of the idea of the fourth dimension in fiction of the fin de siecle and how these new theories of the possibilities of time and space influenced writers such as Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford H G Wells Henry James H P Lovecraft and others Malcolm Lowry's Poetics of Space Richard J.

Lane,Miguel Mota,2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry s spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book s three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to Lowry s life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry s writing Published in English

Memory and Spatiality in Post-Millennial Spanish Narrative Dr Lorraine Ryan,2014-08-28 Focusing on seven literary texts produced in the post millennial period this monograph examines the relationship between space and Republican memory and the reconfigurations of power in the Civil War Franco Dictatorship Transition and the resurgence period Ryan combines scholarship on the history of spatiality in Spain with sociological literature on memory and identity demonstrating the intertwinement of historical change and spatial transformation with the individual Republican struggle to maintain continuity with a marginalized identity Moors, Mansions, and Museums Zuzanna Jakubowski,2010 Originally presented as the author s thesis master s Universiteat Potsdam 2007
