Cultural Intermediaries Connecting Communities Jones, Phil,Perry, Beth,2019-06-12 Based on a four year research project which highlights the important role of community organisations as intermediaries between community and culture this book analyses the role played by cultural intermediaries who seek to mitigate the worst effects of social exclusion through engaging communities with different forms of cultural consumption and production The authors challenge policymakers who see cultural intermediation as an inexpensive fix to social problems and explore the difficulty for intermediaries to rapidly adapt their activity to the changing public sector landscape and offer alternative frameworks for future practice Growth, Decline, and Regeneration in Large Cities Steven G. Koven,Andrea C. Koven,2018-04-09 Growth Decline and Regeneration in Large Cities sheds light on why some cities prosper others implode and still others are able to reverse their downward trajectories The book focuses on four major case studies of American metropolitan areas Detroit Boston Minneapolis and Austin It explores how distinctive political and cultural forces in these cities affected economic growth or decline Theoretical frameworks to explain economic development in urban areas are identified The book addresses important subjects such as response to deindustrialization disruption caused by gentrification globalization and the importance of human capital for economic development Face to Face Judi Fisher,Beth Shelton,2002 Six years ago the Preston Creative Living Centre a small community agency in the diverse northern suburbs of Melbourne embarked upon a risky but exciting venture It marshalled resources for people to engage in artistic and community processes together and became a performance venue for a series of vital and engaging performances Over this time the space has become alive filled with people and activity This book is about the partnerships between organisations artists and communities for community artmaking It is the story of one organization s experience with community performance making from the philosophy that informs choices to the nitty gritty of work
