Spirit of a Nation Stuart Piggin, 2004 Anglican Evangelicalism in Sydney 1897 to 1953 John A. McIntosh, 2018-03-08
John McIntosh attempts to describe more accurately and completely the spectrum of Evangelicalism Anglican that three successive principals of Moore Theological College appropriated and taught in the period Each was an outstanding graduate of Oxford Cambridge and Dublin respectively The study traces the circumstances of their appointment and seeks to define the convictions they held against the background of challenges and changes to their Christian faith they faced in their day A close examination of their published and unpublished literary oeuvre clears away misunderstandings and even misrepresentations of their thought and influence In so doing it explains how it was that those Evangelicals in the diocese who adhered more closely to their Reformation tradition finally prevailed decisively over those who were Protestant but liberal White Women, Aboriginal Missions and Australian Settler Governments Joanna Cruickshank, Patricia Grimshaw, 2019-05-15 In White Women Aboriginal Missions and Australian Settler Governments Joanna Cruickshank and Patricia Grimshaw provide the first detailed study of the central part that white women played in missions to Aboriginal people in Australia As Aboriginal people experienced violent dispossession through settler invasion white mission women were positioned as mothers who could protect nurture and civilise Aboriginal people In this position missionary women found themselves continuously navigating the often contradictory demands of their own intentions of Aboriginal expectations and of settler government policies Through detailed studies that draw on rich archival sources this book provides a new perspective on the history of missions in Australia and also offers new frameworks for understanding the exercise of power by missionary women in colonial contexts Global Voices on Biblical Equality Aida Besancon Spencer, William David Spencer, Mimi Haddad, 2008-08-18 Global Voices on Biblical Equality is a fresh look at the contextualizing of gender equality throughout the world Biblical equality is a burgeoning global reform movement led by scholars and leaders not only in North America but also on every continental landmass in the world What inroads is biblical equality making around the globe What is its appeal What still needs reform How is biblical equality transforming each culture In this book female and male writers who are ethnically part of every continent explore the contextual challenges successes and adaptations of engaging the biblical text on gender and ministry The contributors write on Asia India and China and Asian America Korean America They treat Africa Zimbabwe and African America Writers address Indigenous America Native America and Latin America Hispanic America and Brazilian America Writers also discuss Western Europe Australia and North America The editors of this volume are Aida Besancon Spencer William David Spencer and Mimi Haddad Other contributors include Ellen Alexander Beulah Wood Cecilia Yau Matthew D Kim Constantine M Murefu Darin Vincent Poullard Sandra Gatlin Whitley Awilda Gonzalez Tejera John Runyon Eliana Marques Runyon Elke Werner Roland Werner Kevin Giles and Roberta Hestenes Critical Readings in the History of Christian Mission Martha Frederiks, Dorottya Nagy, 2021-06-22 This selection of texts introduces students

Foundations of Anglican Evangelicalism in Victoria Wei-Han Kuan,2019-05-20 For more than half a century the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne was unquestionably the most rigorously evangelical and missions oriented diocese in Australia The Diocese of Sydney in that same period was decidedly broader in theological and liturgical practice How and why did Melbourne move in one direction while Sydney in the other This study suggests that the answers are to be found in four vital contributors local churches evangelical societies theological colleges and diocesan bishops For three broad periods of history between 1847 and 1937 the presence of these four contributors is uncovered described and evaluated for the Diocese of Melbourne Evangelical activism theological reflection and leadership are each shown in their contemporary contexts to help us understand how people with gospel passion sought to respond faithfully to their times This is the question of vision leadership and strategy at the heart of this study What makes for long term evangelical continuity over a hundred year period

Public Theology in Law and Life Paul Babie,Brian Edgar,David Wilson,2012-08-30 Public theology involves the application of biblical and theological principles outside the confines of the church and assesses their implications for wider society It examines both the theoretical structures of society the nature of secularity government globalisation pluralism and so forth and the myriad specific issues involved in daily life everything from sport to work place relations to economics Public theology is also very importantly a discipline that is practiced by the ordinary Christian as well as the academic and it is done in public with all the scrutiny that entails and in such a way that it communicates to non Christians although it remains a theological endeavour In a real sense it is theology for the world from the Word by the people of God The volume has a variety of contributors and includes an article on the role of public theology in Islam

The Ecclesiology of Donald Robinson and D. Broughton Knox Chase R. Kuhn,2017-04-18 For the past forty years the Knox Robinson Ecclesiology has been the predominant ecclesiological model in the Sydney Diocese of the Anglican Church of Australia one that emerged out of a series of theological contributions over two decades The impact of this ecclesiology can be seen today across four continents Australia Europe North America Africa Though pervasive in influence there has to date been no extended systematic articulation of this ecclesiology nor a serious and sustained appraisal of it Here the ecclesiologies of Donald W B Robinson Vice Principal of Moore College 1959 1973 Archbishop of Sydney 1983 1992 and D Broughton Knox Principal of

Moore College 1959 1985 are presented systematically then analyzed and evaluated Here finally is a thorough theological engagement with their provocative doctrine of the church

The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume III Timothy Larsen, Michael Ledger-Lomas, 2017-04-28 The five volume Oxford History of Dissenting Protestant Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Volume III considers the Dissenting traditions of the United Kingdom the British Empire and the United States in the nineteenth century It provides an overview of the historiography on Dissent while making the case for seeing Dissenters in different Anglophone connections as interconnected and conscious of their genealogical connections The nineteenth century saw the creation of a vast Anglo world which also brought Anglophone Dissent to its apogee Featuring contributions from a team of leading scholars the volume illustrates that in most parts of the world the later nineteenth century was marked by a growing enthusiasm for the moral and educational activism of the state which plays against the idea of Dissent as a static purely negative identity This collection shows that Dissent was a political and constitutional identity which was often only strong where a dominant Church of England existed to dissent against

German Moravian

Missionaries in the British Colony of Victoria, Australia, 1848-1908 Felicity Jensz, 2010-01-01 Focusing on the six decades that German Moravian missionaries worked in the British colony of Victoria Australia this book enriches understanding of colonial politics and the role of the non British other in manipulating practice and policy in foreign realms Central to the transnational nature of the book are questions of identity and of how individuals and the organisations they worked for can be seen as both colluders and opposers within nation state borders and politics It analyses the ways in which the Moravian missionaries navigated competing agendas within the colonial setting especially those that impacted on their sense of personal vocation their practices of conversion and their understandings of the indigenous non Christian peoples in the settler society of Victoria William Taylor and the Mapping of the Methodist Missionary Tradition Douglas D.

Tzan, 2019-10-16 This book is the first critical biography of William Taylor a nineteenth century American missionary who worked on six continents Following Taylor s global odyssey the volume maps the contours of the Methodist missionary tradition and illumines key historical foundations of contemporary world Christianity A work of social history that places a leading Methodist missionary in the foreground this narrative illustrates distinctive aspects and tensions within Methodist missions such as the importance of doctrines like universal atonement and entire sanctification a deeply pragmatic orientation rooted in God s providence an embrace of both entrepreneurial initiatives and networked connection and the use of revivalism for missionary outreach and leadership development A Virginia native Taylor became a Methodist preacher and missionary in California This volume provides an important narrative account of Taylor s career as an itinerant revivalist and popular author in which he toured the eastern United States the British Isles and Australasia Taylor s participation in the South African revival made him an evangelical celebrity The author also follows Taylor s important visits to India and South America where he initiated new Methodist missions in those contexts and pioneered the concept of tentmaking missions In 1884 Taylor was elected missionary bishop of Africa by his church By the end of his life Taylor had recruited or inspired hundreds of Methodists to become foreign missionaries The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Mark A.

Noll, Timothy Larsen, Michael Ledger-Lomas, 2017 The five volume Oxford History of Dissenting Protestant Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Volume III considers the Dissenting traditions of the United Kingdom the British Empire and the United States in the nineteenth century It provides an overview of the historiography on Dissent while making the case for seeing Dissenters in different Anglophone connections as interconnected and conscious of their genealogical connections The nineteenth century saw the creation of a vast Anglo world which also brought Anglophone Dissent to its apogee Featuring contributions from a team of leading scholars the volume illustrates that in most parts of the world the later nineteenth century was marked by a growing enthusiasm for the moral and educational activism of the state which plays against the idea of Dissent as a static purely negative identity This collection shows that Dissent was a political and constitutional identity which was often only strong where a dominant Church of England existed to dissent against
