The Cosmic Spirit Roland Faber, 2021-03-04 Are we more than stardust? Is the appearance of the fragile Earth in the vast universe more than an accident? Are we not children of a Spirit that pervades the dust, rejuvenates life, and embraces the ever-evolving universe? Is there a cosmic Spirit that wants us to awaken to a consciousness of universal meaning, sacred purpose, and mutual friendship with all beings? This book answers these questions with a spirituality of the numinous in our relation to the elements of the Earth in the matrix of the multiverse by taking you on a journey through nine paths and nineteen meditations of awakening. Not bound by any religion but in deep appreciation of the religious and spiritual heritage of human encounters with the divine depth of existence in our selves and in nature, they invite you to become sojourners by engaging the most profound embodiments of the intangible Spirit by which it facilitates its own materialization in the cosmos and our spiritualization of the cosmos. Use says this Spirit, the stardust that you are to become a spirit-faring species in an eternal journey of the cosmos to realize its ultimate motive of existence: the attraction of love.

Work in the Spirit Miroslav Volf, 2001-04-27 Since the rise of modern industrial society work has come to pervade and rule the lives of men and women Although there have been many popular books and church documents on the Christian understanding of work this is the first scholarly effort to articulate a developed Protestant theology of work In Work in the Spirit Miroslav Volf interprets work from a new perspective in terms of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit He exhaustively explores the nature of work in both capitalist and socialist societies and considers a variety of work including industrial agricultural medical political and artistic work Examining the importance of alienation in work in industrial and information societies particularly in the relation of workers to management and technology he analyzes various forms of such alienation and elucidates the character of humane work On the basis of the pneumatological theology of work that he develops Volf rejects the traditional Protestant understanding of work as vocation and takes the concept of charisma as the cornerstone for his theological reflection on work He denies that one is called to do a particular work irrespective of one's inclinations and asserts instead that it is our privilege to do the kind of work for which God's spirit has gifted us All human work done in accordance with the will of God Volf argues is cooperation with God in the preservation and transformation of the world Underground Spirit: 1983 to 1989 Gémino H. Educational Ministry in the Logic of the Spirit James E. Loder Jr., 2018-07-20 In November 2001 James E Loder Jr Professor of the Philosophy of Christian Education for forty years at Princeton Theological Seminary suddenly died He was a creative and profound thinker who had just completed a promising book In it he developed a compelling interdisciplinary model to disclose how the divine Spirit affirms reconstitutes and transforms the human spirit to bring new energy and creativity into human experience He called it redemptive transformation You now hold that book in your hands Those who know Loder s work are confident that Educational Ministry in the Logic of the Spirit though delayed for over fifteen years will still become the best introduction to his complex thought More important it offers the imaginative means by which we may learn to attune ourselves and our faith communities to what God is doing in our fractured distracted and self destructive world to bring about a revolution of love the fruit of Christ s Spirit and the center of our human vocation

The Romantic Ethic and the Spirit of Modern Consumerism Colin Campbell, 2005 The Romantic Ethic and the Spirit of Modern Consumerism was first published by Basil Blackwell of Oxford in 1987 A paperback edition appeared two years later while in the following five years it was reprinted four times However although the intervening years have seen the appearance of Italian Portuguese Slovenian and Chinese editions no copies have been available in English since 1998 This Alcuin Academic edition has therefore been published in order to fill this gap and more specifically to meet the needs of those academics and students who have contacted me over the past six or seven years in search of an English language version of the book Naturally I have considered writing a revised edition which indeed some critics as well as a few friends have suggested is long overdue Amazon com

Puppet and Spirit: Ritual, Religion, and Performing Objects Claudia Orenstein, Tim Cusack, 2024-10-17 This anthology of essays a companion to Puppet and Spirit Ritual Religion and Performing Objects Volume I aims to explore the many types of relationships that exist between puppets broadly speaking and the immaterial world The allure of the puppet goes beyond its material presence as historically and throughout the globe many uses of puppets and related objects have expressed and capitalized on their posited connections to other realms or ability to serve as vessels or conduits for immaterial presence The flip side of the puppet s troubling uncanniness is precisely the possibilities it represents for connecting to discarnate realities Where do we see such connections in contemporary artistic work in various mediums How do puppets open avenues for discussion in a world that seems to be increasingly polarized around religious values How do we describe analyze and theorize the present moment What new questions do puppets address for our times and how does the puppet s continued entanglement with these concerns trouble or comfort us The essays in this book from scholars and practitioners provide a range of useful models and critical vocabularies for addressing this aspect of puppet performance further expanding the growing understanding and appreciation of puppetry generally This book along with its companion volume offers for the first time robust coverage of this subject from a diversity of voices examples and perspectives

The Vodou Ethic and the Spirit of Communism Paul C. Mocombe, 2016-02-04 Using a variant of structuration theory what Paul C Mocombe calls phenomenological structuralism this work explores and highlights how the African religion of Vodou and its ethic i e syncretism materialism communal living or social collectivism democracy individuality cosmopolitanism spirit of social justice xenophilia balance harmony and gentleness gave rise under the leadership of oungan yo manbo yo gangan yo and granmoun yo to the Haitian spirit of communism and the counter plantation system Jean Casimir's term in the provinces and mountains of Haiti What Mocombe calls the Vodou Ethic and the spirit of communism of the African people of Haiti would be juxtaposed against the Catholic Protestant Ethic and the spirit of capitalism of the white mulatto gens de couleur and petit bourgeois free black classes of the island This latter worldview the Catholic Protestant Ethic and the spirit of capitalism Mocombe goes on to argue exercised by the free bourgeois blacks and mulatto elites Affranchis on the island undermined the revolutionary and independence movement of Haiti commenced by subjects agents oungan yo manbo yo gangan yo dokt fey and granmoun yo of the Vodou ethic and the spirit of communism and made it the poorest most racist and tyrannical country in the Western Hemisphere

The Integrated Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Environmentalism S. Steiner-Aeschliman, 1999 The theory and data of environmental science suggest that growth in rates of population consumption and environmental degradation as a result of the activities of industrialized societies has created an ecological crisis to which modern societies must adapt However adaptation is problematic Max Weber studied adaptive social change during the industrial revolution The evolution of this new way of life was initially problematic because individuals who established industrialism were socialized under feudalism In this dissertation I consider The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism as a theoretical treatise framed by modern human ecology in order to study social change in the context of the ecological crisis of industrialism The Protestant Ethic is known for describing how religious ideas influenced the unfolding of modern capitalism in the West However there is nothing inherent in Protestantism that requires linkage to industrialism I argue that Protestantism has evolved and that it need not necessarily promote environmental exploitation although under industrialism it has I identify a green subculture within Protestantism and consider how Protestantism's weakness may also be its strength The very sociological structure that in the absence of ecologically realistic norms permits widespread ecosystem degradation by industrial capitalism may also generate ecologically realistic norms for a natural capitalism Weber contended that rationality was problematic because it paradoxically results in a dual crisis of management and meaning where human agency becomes imprisoned as if in an iron cage The irrational continuation of environmentally degrading social practices eventually contributes to a legitimation crisis People turn to religion as an alternative authority If science and religion converge on environmental values they might catalyze social change unless they are too distorted by ideological bias Adaptive social change only occurs if ethical and ecological values are in accordance with the sustainability of ecosystems Hence to adapt to the ecological crisis sociocultural systems require socialization into ecological realism because ecologically rational societies may still be maladaptively organized around environmentally unsustainable trajectories
