Ehrlander, Hild M. Peters, 2023-10

Hospital and Haven tells the story of an Episcopal missionary couple who lived their entire married life from 1910 to 1938 among the Gwich'in peoples of northern Alaska devoting themselves to the peoples physical social and spiritual well being. The era was marked by great social disruption within Alaska Native communities and high disease and death rates owing to the influx of non Natives in the region inadequate sanitation and hygiene minimal law enforcement and insufficient government funding for Alaska Native health care. Hospital and Haven reveals the sometimes contentious yet promising relationship between missionaries Alaska Natives other migrants and Progressive Era medicine. St Stephen's Mission stood at the center of community life and formed a bulwark against the forces that threatened the Native peoples lifeways and lives. Dr Grafton Happy or Hap Burke directed the Hudson Stuck Memorial Hospital the only hospital to serve Alaska Natives within a several hundred mile radius. Clara Burke focused on orphaned needy and convalescing children raising hundreds in St Stephen's Mission Home. The Gwich'in in turn embraced and engaged in the church and hospital work making them community institutions. Bishop Peter Trimble Rowe came to recognize the hospital and orphanage work at Fort Yukon as the church's most important work in Alaska. Spirit of Missions, 1910. Frontier Spirit Jennifer Duncan, 2010-08-20. She may have been holding a gun or an axe or her hiked up skirts but she was there in the Klondike of the Gold Rush. And her decision to venture everything on the dream of northern gold was in every way bolder and riskier than any man's. In Frontier Spirit Jennifer Duncan celebrates the lives of women who in defiance of traditional expectations left their homes their families and their professions to make the arduous journey through a punishing climate and unfamiliar wilderness to seek their fortunes in the Klondike. The story of women in the Klondike begins with the strong and knowledgeable women who were there before the race for riches began. First Nations women like Shaaw Tl'a whose experience and traditional skills were critical to the survival of her white prospector husband and ultimately to the discovery that sparked the Gold Rush. The white women who joined the Klondike Stampede came from all walks of life rich and poor educated and illiterate single and married. Wealthy socialite Martha Black left her world of comfort to pursue a career as a miner mill manager and politician on the northern frontier. Belinda Mulrooney an Irish farm girl arrived in Dawson with a quarter to her name but used her business acumen and canny resourcefulness to turn the shantytown into a city and herself into its richest woman. And then there's Kate Rockwell a working class girl from Kansas City whose thirst for fame and adulation led her over the treacherous waters of the Whitehorse rapids and fired her ascent to the title of Queen of the Klondike. Duncan has spent the last five years experiencing Dawson City in all its seasons and like the women who came before her she has fallen under the spell of the North coming to love its wilderness its challenges and its rugged glory. With remarkable empathy imagination and personal insight Duncan creates an engrossing portrait of the splendour of the Yukon breathing life into the stories of the daring and diverse women of the Klondike and the grandeur of the adventurers who gambled everything to find their fortunes there. Journeys to Remember: Unforgettable Tales from the Yukon and Beyond Pasquale De
