Oxon,2018-08-08 William Stainton Moses an Anglican priest authored Spirit Teachings in 1883 nine years before his passing It is now considered a classic in the Spiritualist genre Initially Moses was antagonistic toward spirit communication calling the mediumship of D D Home the dreariest twaddle However in 1872 he attended a séance for the first time and five months later became aware he had psychic abilities which eventually manifested as automatic writing Later that same year a communicator writing through his hand introduced himself as Emperor Servus Dei claiming he was the leader of a band of 49 spirits communicating from the seventh sphere their purpose to work out the will of the Almighty Much of the communication came via a spirit named Rector who claimed to reside in a lower sphere than Emperor's team one closer to our physical vibration which enabled dialogue Emperor and the other communicators answered many questions Moses put to them such as the nature of reality life after physical life spirit influence skepticism Jesus the Second Coming prayer disposal of the body and much more Moses found his Christian dogma constantly challenged by what came through his hand During one sitting Emperor explained Friend you must discriminate between God's truths and man's glosses Stainton Moses writings have become essential reading for truth seekers with an interest in life and death and despite the nineteenth century vernacular the messages of wisdom are timeless and appeal to reason      The sufficiency of the spirit's teaching without human learning ...
