Eyes of the Mind and Other Stories Chopra Vinita,2019-01-24 The author on the one hand has written simple yet thoughtprovoking stories about minor turbulences in the work life balance of working women and on the other has given a heartrending account of those who had to sacrifice their personal needs and aspirations for the sake of others An empathetic connection with those who are physically challenged has been established in two of the stories Some stories written in the backdrop of the lives of civil servants make an interesting and informative reading Poor girl was swinging in the pendulum of hope and expectations on one end to disappointments and rejections on the other It seemed nobody cared for her feelings She was unable to gauge her own mother s intentions I as an outsider felt that there were some selfish and ulterior motives behind the seemingly genuine failures of the sincere attempts to get her married They do not know how zebra is different from a giraffe They have not seen the hues of nature How green is the green of the leaves and what it is like when the leaves turn yellow in autumn They have not seen the radiance of the rising sun or the glow of the full moon They have not experienced the pleasure of seeing the gigantic mountains or the vast oceans or the meandering clouds
