Spiritual, Ethical, and Pastoral Aspects of Death and Bereavement Gerry Cox, Ronald Fundis, 2022-03-22 This collection of previously unpublished essays addresses a wide range of topics relevant to the on going debates regarding dying and death and the subtleties nuances and complexities accompanying these phenomena The authors have attempted to contribute their experiences insights and research results to clarify rather than obfuscate Topic coverage is broad however content depth is not sacrificed The diversity of authors backgrounds both geographical and disciplinary also serves to make this volume unique The chapters in this volume offer a substantial contribution in assisting care givers in arriving at acceptable ethical positions in their pastoral counseling medical and mortician roles Spiritual, Ethical, and Pastoral

Aspects of Death and Bereavement Gerry R. Cox, Ronald J. Fundis, 1992 Addresses a range of topics relevant to the debates regarding dying and death and the subtleties nuances and complexities accompanying these phenomena This work contains chapters that offer a substantial contribution in assisting care givers in arriving at acceptable ethical positions in their pastoral counseling medical and mortician roles Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Making Sense of Death Gerry Cox, Robert

Bendiksen, Robert Stevenson, 2021-11-18 The editors of Making Sense of Death Spiritual Pastoral and Personal Aspects of Death Dying and Bereavement provide stimulating discussions as they ponder the meaning of life and death This anthology explores the process of meaning making in the face of death and the roles of religion and spirituality at times of loss the profound and devastating experience of loss in the death of a spouse or a child a psychological model of spirituality the dimensions of spirituality humor in client caregiver relationships the worldview of modernity in contrast to postmodern assumptions the Buddhist perspective of death dying and pastoral care meaning making in the virtual reality of cyberspace individualism and death and the historical context of Native Americans the concept of disenfranchised grief and its detailed application to the Native American experience It also explores a qualitative survey on the impact of the shooting deaths of students in Colorado a team approach with physicians nursing social services and pastoral care a study of health care professionals comparing clergy with other health professionals marginality in spiritual and pastoral care for the dying a qualitative research study of registered nurses in the northeast United States and loss and growth in the seasons of life

Death, Distress, and Solidarity Robert Kastenbaum, 2019-03-25 In preparing this special issue of Omega The Journal of Death and Dying we choose to consider solidarity in a somewhat larger perspective than the other one usually adopted by a clear majority of social support studies This perspective gives priority to microscopic immediate direct transactions between a focal individual the one affected by the prospect of soon to come death and two classes of people those included in the core of that person's personal network and the health care personnel treating and accompanying soon to die people many of them already advanced into agony

Fading away Betty Davies PhD., 2020-03-26 This book comes out of an in depth qualitative study of the experiences of twenty three families in which one parent was dying of cancer The study attempted to better understand the impact of terminal illness on the entire family system and sought to develop a theoretical framework that would guide the assessment of and services to such families As a result of interviews with patients spouses and their adult children over three phases of the study the process of fading away was identified and conceptualized in terms of various phases which contributed to this process The book is not a research report but rather presents more generally the ideas that developed from the study with two purposes to increase the reader's understanding of particular experiences that families encounter when dealing with terminal illness specifically cancer The intended readership also includes families themselves to propose guidelines for care to be considered by practitioners working with such families

Mark Cobb,Christina Puchalski,Bruce Rumbold,2012-08-09 The relationship between spirituality and healthcare is historical intellectual and practical and it has now emerged as a significant field in health research healthcare policy and clinical practice and training Understanding health and wellbeing requires addressing spiritual and existential issues and healthcare is therefore challenged to respond to the ways spirituality is experienced and expressed in illness suffering healing and loss If healthcare has compassionate regard for the humanity of those it serves it is faced with questions about how it understands and interprets spirituality what resources it should make available and how these are organised and the ways in which spirituality shapes and informs the purpose and practice of healthcare These questions are the basis for this resource which presents a coherent field of enquiry discussion and debate that is interdisciplinary international and vibrant There is a growing corpus of articles in medical and healthcare journals on spirituality in addition to a wide range of literature but there has been no attempt so far to publish a standard text on this subject Spirituality in Healthcare is an authoritative reference on the subject providing unequalled coverage critical depth and an integrated source of key topics Divided into six sections including practice research policy and training the project brings together international contributions from scholars in the field to provide a unique and stimulating resource Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial

Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 Religion Index Two ,1996 How We Saved Texas Prison Chaplaincy 2011

Michael G. Maness, 2015-10-16 As Maness so forcefully presents religion is truly the greatest source for change in human history and our staff chaplains facilitate that Likewise we came to see there would be little true cost savings in that some staffer would have to take care religion in prison its a right after all and manage the good volunteers Jerry Madden Senior Fellow Right on Crime Right on Crime org House Committee on Corrections Chairman 2011 12 It seemed like all was lost Dr Keith Bellamy Senior Minister Woodville Church of Christ TDCJ Certified Volunteer Chaplain 15 plus years Take a ride through Maness book and learn firsthand about reducing crime rehabilitating lives making our streets safer and bringing hope to the least the last and the lost just like Jesus commanded The chaplain of the prison brings hope and light in what can be a dark and stressful place all the more reason we need them Carol S Vance Former Chairman Texas Board of Criminal Justice Harris County District Attorney 1966 79 Every TDCJ chaplain and every chaplaincy manager owe the existence of their jobs to the efforts of a few unique individuals who rallied many to seek help from Texas senators and representatives Frank Graham Founder Chapel of Hope org Politically the TDCJ chaplaincy was doomed God used the courage of one man to turn that situation around Thank you Chaplain Michael Maness for preserving this magnificent piece of important religious history Dr Paul W Carlin LBT Ph D TheMinistryChurch org Death and Spirituality Kenneth Doka, John Morgan, 2016-12-05 An elderly Chinese immigrant hospitalized with terminal disease requests to burn incense A 30 year old Roman Catholic gay male dying of AIDS is consumed by deepening moral guilt troubled by beliefs he thought he abandoned years ago A mother whose teenage son died of an aneurism is angry at God over his death yet fearful of expressing that anger lest He punish her again A young widower seemingly has difficulty expressing grief believing it to be a sign of weak faith All of these examples illustrate the kinds of issues that clinicians and counselors constantly encounter For although North American society has long been characterized as secular this does not deny the potency of spiritual concerns and religious values on the individual level Polls affirm that vast majorities of North Americans both believe in God and consider religion important in their lives This is clearly evident when one faces the crisis of dying or bereavement For one of the strengths of belief is that it provides support and succor at a time when secular explanations are largely silent For these reasons educators and clinicians have long recognized the significance that religious and spiritual themes have in counseling with the dying and bereaved Yet in cultures as religiously diverse as the U S and Canada caregivers and educators may feel inadequate to the task Death and Spirituality addresses this need Specifically it seeks to reach two perhaps overlapping audiences First it considers the needs death related counselors and educators seeking to provide them with both a sense of the norm of religious tradition and the religious and spiritual issues that might arise in illness and bereavement as well as suitable interventions approaches and resources that might be useful in assisting clients in examining and resolving such issues The book also speaks to the complementary needs of clergy who also may wish to assist parishioners and others as they face the spiritual and psychological crisis of dying and grief
