Spirit Hunger Gari Meacham, 2012-10-23 We all have a desperate need for God not just for following him or being committed to him but to be intimately connected to him We long for purpose for affirmation for attention for nurture But Gari Meacham writes that we fall short of being desperate for God or we miss the longed for romance with God we hear about in scripture We re uncertain how to distinguish our longings from our fears When says Meacham did our longings turn to hauntings And when did we buy into the counterfeit yearnings for control and the insecurity perfectionism and other attitudes that quench Spirit Hunger The answer to Spirit Hunger is to engage God like never before In this book Meacham shows through her story and the stories of others how to turn worry into belief problems and heartaches into a life of intimate prayer and sighs for intimacy into closeness with God She discusses her discoveries about prayer including why asking is sometimes hard how we can notice and track God s movements as we seek his answers and why it s sometimes such a struggle to believe after we ve prayed Meacham writes With the authenticity of my own life stories marriage to a professional baseball player struggles with severe food bondage and a father who was a quadriplegic I came to the crisp realization that my prayer life and my belief needed to match Spirit Hunger provides a clear path towards matching these heart cries leading away from crumbs and counterfeit to a hungering for God

Spiritual Hunger Allan G. Hunter, 2012-02-01 From daily activities such as work and eating to milestones such as graduation and marriage this discussion debates the myths that guide lifestyles and questions why they exist in the first place Each belief is broken down and examined in terms of how it works exposing its true nature so that its value and necessity in culture as well as the way it operates can be determined This unique self help guide demonstrates how to reinvent old outdated rituals get rid of those rites that are entirely ineffective and create new habits that provide a deeper meaning to everyday life A gateway to finding a better understanding of what contributes to healthier relationships this guide to rituals paves the way to sustaining a fulfilling and happy life

Broken Bread Tilly Dillehay, 2020-06-02 God Cares More About How You Eat than What You Eat Christians should have their heads on straight about food but too often our eating is complicated by burdens and rules by diets and dependencies So how can we keep a spiritually healthy view of what we eat Should Christians stop eating white sugar Does the Bible ask us to go paleo Most questions about food aren t really about nutrition but about how we understand

Treating the New Anxiety Kirk A. Bingham,2007 A new form of anxiety has emerged stemming in part from our post 9/11 reality but even more stemming from the influence of supermodernity Whereas postmodernism theorizes an anxiety that results from the collapse or loss of meaning through the lens of supermodernity it appears that the new anxiety is evoked more by an excess of meaning generated by the rapid acceleration of human life and the media's daily bombardment with serious global national and local concerns This book explores the nature of the anxiety our supermodern condition provokes and proposes that with the void left by the diminishment of religious involvement and practice the therapy session becomes the definitive place for meaning making Building on a cognitive therapy approach that emphasizes the client's belief system Bingham demonstrates that to treat this new anxiety most effectively practitioners must help clients identify and explore their core theological beliefs and spiritual values Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart James A. Wallace,2002 Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart is about words most particularly it is a book about the Word the living Word of God

found in the Scriptures and embodied once and for all in the person of Jesus the Word made flesh In Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart Fr James Wallace offers a nuanced consideration of the homily as nourishment He focuses on three common liturgical contexts feasts of the Lord feasts of Mary and the saints and the sacramental rites He relates the preaching that occurs within each area to one of the heart's basic hungers for wholeness the great feasts of the Lord for guidance feasts of Mary and the saints and for meaning various rites He also addresses the spirituality of the preacher as it is worked out in the process of preparation For preachers and students in schools of ministry who are preparing to preach Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart will serve as a useful tool to help satisfy the hunger to preach the Gospel It includes homilies that provide excellent starting points for preachers looking for ideas Chapter one considers the image of feeding God's people with the Word of God Chapter two considering the innermost hunger of the human person looks to the preaching that takes place on the great feasts of the Lord and how such preaching can nourish the hunger for wholeness Chapter three returns to the hunger for meaning already mentioned and extends to the other sacramental celebrations the homily's capacity to meet this hunger including those addressed by the various sacramental celebrations of the Church such as baptisms weddings funerals rites of reconciliation and anointing of the sick Chapters four and five present the homily as responding to the hunger to belong The final chapter considers one other hunger of the heart unique to the preacher referred to by John Paul II as a hunger to preach the gospel Pastores Dabo Vobis no 28 Chapters are Preaching's Task in a New Millennium Feeding God's People Preaching the Feasts of the Lord and the Hunger for Wholeness Preaching Within the Sacramental Rites and the Hunger for Meaning Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging I The Saints Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging II Mary and Cultivating the Preacher's Hunger To Make the Gospel Known and Loved James A Wallace CSsR PhD is professor of homiletics at Washington Theological Union His previous works include Preaching Through the Saints and The Ministry of Lectors published by The Liturgical Press He has also authored numerous articles and has given preaching conferences and workshops in the U S and abroad Life's Secret
