Hunger Movements in Early Victorian Literature Lesa Scholl, 2016-05-05 In Hunger Movements in Early Victorian Literature Lesa Scholl explores the ways in which the language of starvation interacts with narratives of emotional and intellectual want to create a dynamic evolving notion of hunger Scholl's interdisciplinary study emphasises literary analysis sensory history and political economy to interrogate the progression of hunger in Britain from the early 1830s to the late 1860s Examining works by Charles Dickens Harriet Martineau George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Henry Mayhew and Charlotte Bronte Scholl argues for the centrality of hunger in social development and understanding She shows how the rhetoric of hunger moves beyond critiques of physical starvation to a paradigm in which the dominant narrative of civilisation is predicated on the continual progress and evolution of literal and metaphorical taste Her study makes a persuasive case for how hunger as a signifier of both individual and corporate ambition is a necessarily self interested and increasingly violent agent of progress within the discourse of political economy that emerged in the eighteenth century and subsequently shaped nineteenth century social and political life Helps to meditation, sketches for every day in the year Alfred Garnett Mortimer,1888 Advent to Trinity Alfred Garnett Mortimer,1881 Hunger, Poetry and the Oxford Movement Lesa Scholl,2020-01-23 Focusing on the influence of the Oxford Movement on key British poets of the nineteenth century this book charts their ruminations on the nature of hunger poverty and economic injustice Exploring the works of Christina Rossetti Coventry Patmore Gerard Manley Hopkins Adelaide Anne Procter Alice Meynell and Alfred Lord Tennyson Lesa Scholl examines the extent to which these poets not all of whom were Anglo Catholics themselves engaged with the Tractarian social vision when grappling with issues of poverty and economic injustice in and beyond their poetic works By engaging with economic and cultural history as well as the sensorial materiality of poetry Hunger Poetry and the Oxford Movement challenges the assumption that High Church politics were essentially conservative and removed from the social crises of the Victorian period The Play Movement and Its Significance Henry Stoddard Curtis,1917 Mind is the Master James Allen,2009-12-24 The classic books of the motivational visionary collected for the first time in a single volume Featuring nineteen beloved works including As a Man Thinketh Eight Pillars of Prosperity The Mastery of Destiny and From Poverty to Power here is the first ever comprehensive and definitive collection of the books of self help pioneer James Allen Formatted in a large easy to read workbook size with fully redesigned and reset text Mind Is the Master provides a life time s worth of wisdom and guidance from one of history s leading voices of self affirming and motivational philosophy Mind Is the Master compiles Allen s most celebrated books along with little known gems and posthumous works such as Foundation Stones to Happiness and Success and Light on Life s Difficulties awaiting discovery by a whole new generation of readers As a special bonus Mind Is the Master includes a rare remembrance of James Allen by his wife and intellectual partner Lily Allen It is an invaluable window on the life and inner world of a writer whose insights touched millions of readers Byways to Blessedness (Annotated with Biography about James Allen) James Allen,2013-11-20 Along the highways of Burma there is placed at regular distances away from the dust of the road and under the cool shade of a group of trees a small wooden building called a rest house where the weary traveller may rest a while and allay his thirst and assuage his hunger and fatigue by partaking of the food and water which the kindly inhabitants place there as a religious duty Along the great highway of life there are such resting places away from the heat of passion and the dust of disappointment under the cool and refreshing shade of lowly Wisdom are the humble unimposing rest houses of peace and the little almost unnoticed byways of blessedness where alone the weary and footsore can find strength and healing Nor can these byways be ignored without suffering Along the great road of life hurrying and eager to reach some illusive goal presses the multitude despising the apparently insignificant rest houses of true thought not heeding the narrow little byways of blessed action which they regard as unimportant and hour by hour men are fainting and falling and numbers that cannot be counted perish of heart hunger heart thirst and heart fatigue But he who will step aside from the passionate press and will deign to notice and to enter the byways which are here

Ethics, Hunger and Globalization Per Pinstrop-Andersen, Peter Sandøe, 2007-07-20 Ethics Hunger and Globalization adds an ethics dimension to the debate and research about poverty, hunger and globalization. Outstanding scholars and practitioners from several disciplines discuss what action is needed for ethics to play a bigger role in action by governments, civil society and the private sector to reduce poverty and hunger within the context of globalization. The book concludes that much of the rhetoric by policy makers is not followed up with appropriate action and discusses the role of ethics in attempts to match action with rhetoric. The book also concludes that a better understanding of the values underlying both public and private sector action towards the alleviation of poverty and hunger would lead to more enlightened policies and greater success in attempts to achieve the Millennium Development Goals. The interaction between ethical, economic and policy aspects is discussed and scholars and experienced practitioners from several disciplines suggest how such integration may be promoted. If discouragement is the common cold of our emotions then depression is the cancer I love Jesus I pastor a church and I deal with bouts of depression. For years I've been wanting to read a book about depression not only from a Christ-centered perspective but from a leader who knew the struggle personally. It was Toni Morrison who once said "If there's a book that you want to read but it hasn't been written yet then you must write it." Thus you have Speaking from the Shadows. For those who deal with depression this is my attempt to articulate what you and I experience that others don't understand. For those who've never dealt with depression this is my endeavor to pull back the curtain to let you see into our world to be a support and help through shadowy times. Darkness does not discriminate but neither does the light. So like a lantern chasing away a shadow my heart would be that this book would penetrate the darkness of what depression has been doing and bring hope to lives, marriages and families. It's time to bring light to a darkness that affects over 18 million adults every year. It's time to bring hope to a largely ignored topic that claims more lives than homicide. It's time to normalize vulnerability. It's time to normalize getting the professional help we need. It's time to recognize the healing virtue that Christ brings. There is a hope. And His name is Jesus. The Sunday School Journal, 1906 The Church School Journal, 1906

Creating a World That Works for All Sharif M Abdullah, 1999-06 We are in deep trouble writes Sharif Abdullah. We live a world that works for only a few. The problem Abdullah asserts is exclusivity. I am separate. By practicing exclusivity he maintains we have created a soul starved society. We suffer both personally and as a society from complex interlocking so intense that they create a deep sense of emptiness in all of us. But there is hope. Abdullah shows how we can change our world by changing our consciousness We can actually put an end these complex problems if we reject exclusivity in favor of inclusivity We must turn from a mentality that disconnects us and instead embrace the goals of restoring balance to the earth and building community with all other people In Creating a World That Works for All Abdullah provides a practical blueprint for that change Abdullah makes it clear that there are no bad guys to blame we are all equally responsible for the current state of our world We each have created it and we each have equal power to change it Abdullah offers three criteria for creating a world that works for all 1 The Criteria of Enoughness Everyone has enough even though not everyone shares resources equally 2 The Criteria of Exchangeability Trading places would be okay 3 The Criteria of Common Benefit The system is designed and intended to benefit all In order to meet these criteria Abdullah shows us how to let go of old theories and ideas so we can clearly see our current problems and possible solutions And he shows us how to create new stories that explain and define the new behaviors that make cultural changes possible Fight Like a Man Emeal "E.Z."
