Title Spiritual Body and Celestial Earth Henry Corbin, 1977 An analysis of interrelated themes in Iranian religion including the angelology of Mazdaism and Islamic Shi'ite concepts of spirit body identity Spiritual Body and Celestial Earth Henry Corbin, 1977 Knowledge and the Sacred Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 1989-01-01 Nasr Islamic studies George Washington U in a series of ten lectures argues that unlike in the West where scientific thought has been secularized in the East knowledge and religious experience have remained unified Drawing from Buddhist Hindu Judaic Christian and Islamic traditions he finds in each the idea of perennial wisdom as a philosophical basis for such unity Paperback edition 10 95 not seen Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Romanticism & Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies, 1998 Spiritual quest is at the very heart of poetry but in our materialistic climate as we begin the twenty first century this has been largely forgotten even by those who claim to be experts in interpreting literature How does the worldview common to the main esoteric traditions of East and West correspond to the aims of Romantic poets such as Shelley Keats Blake Coleridge and Wordsworth In Romanticism and Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies maintains that the intended meaning of the poetry and thinking of the Romantics can be understood only in the light of the spiritual teachings of those traditions This is one of the few books that connects the creative nature of poetry to the core teachings of the esoteric tradition It reveals the true meaning of several Romantic writers whose works have been trivialized by a culture that has marginalized the spiritual and bound itself only to material historical and social concerns The author also shows that the Romantics were the first Western poets to imagine the relationship of the self to the environment as personal encounter In this sense the Romantics recalled a long held secret of the esoteric human sciences rather than inventing a new one This book brings the deepest interests of the Romantics directly into contact with issues closest to present day students of the spiritual traditions and holistic perspectives

Architectures of Transversality Shima Mohajeri, 2018-07-11 Architectures of Transversality investigates the relationship between modernity space power and culture in Iran Focusing on Paul Klee's Persian inspired miniature series and Louis Kahn's unbuilt blueprint for a democratic public space in Tehran it traces the architectonics of the present as a way of moving beyond universalist and nationalist accounts of modernism Transversality is a form of spatial production and practice that addresses the three important questions of the self objects and power Using Deleuzian and Heideggerian theory the book introduces the practices of Klee and Kahn as transversal spatial responses to the dialectical tension between existential and political territories and in doing so situates the history of the silent unrepresented and the unbuilt constructed from the works of Klee and Kahn as a possible solution to the crisis of modernity and identity based politics in Iran

The Love of Nature and the End of the World Shierry Weber

Nicholsen, 2003-02-28 A psychological exploration of how the love of nature can coexist in our psyches with apathy toward environmental destruction. Virtually everyone values some aspect of the natural world. Yet many people are surprisingly unconcerned about environmental issues, treating them as the province of special interest groups. Seeking to understand how our appreciation for the beauty of nature and our indifference to its destruction can coexist in us, Shierry Weber Nicholsen explores dimensions of our emotional experience with the natural world that are so deep and painful that they often remain unspoken. The Love of Nature and the End of the World is a gathering of meditations and collages. Its evocations of our emotional attachment to the natural world and the emotional impact of environmental deterioration are meant to encourage individual and collective reflection on a difficult dilemma. Nicholsen draws on work in environmental philosophy and ecopsychology, the writings of psychoanalytic thinkers such as Wilfred Bion, Donald Meltzer, and D. W. Winnicott, and ideas from Buddhist and Sufi traditions. She shows how our emotional responses to the vulnerabilities of the natural world range from intense caring and compassion through grief and outrage to diffuse depression. Individual chapters focus on silence and the process whereby we move from the unspoken to the spoken: the love of nature, the perceptual reciprocity with the natural world to which we might aspire, beauty in the human and natural realms, the psychological impact of the destruction of the natural world, and reflections on the future.

Cloud: Between Paris and Tehran Joan Copjec, 2025-05-06

A theoretical examination of veiling, shame, and modesty in the films of the Iranian director Abbas Kiarostami through the lenses of Islamic philosophy and Lacanian psychoanalysis. In Cloud Between Paris and Tehran, Joan Copjec examines the films of the Iranian director Abbas Kiarostami. The key to these films, she argues, lies in the image of a fragile yet sheltering tree that appears in several of his films. This simple image depicts a central concept of Islamic philosophy, which is known as the Cloud or the Imaginal World. It designates the place out of which all the things of this world manifest themselves and covers or veils that which must remain hidden. The concept of the Cloud plays a significant role in defining 1) the unique nature of the Islamic God, who is not a creator or father; 2) the nature of the image, which assumes a priority and a greater power than it is elsewhere accorded; and 3) the nature of modesty, shame, and sexuality. Copjec walks her readers through the thicket of Islamic philosophy while demonstrating how its abstract concepts produce what audiences see on screen. The most ambitious aspect of the book lies in its attempt to demonstrate the inheritance by psychoanalysis of a new notion of knowledge or gnosis formulated by Muslim thinkers who radically redefined the relation between body and thought.

Religion after Religion

Steven M. Wasserstrom, 1999-11-15 By the end of World War II, religion appeared to be on the decline throughout the United States and Europe. Recent world events had cast doubt on the relevance of religious belief, and modernizing trends made religious rituals look out of place. It was in this atmosphere that the careers of Scholem Eliade and Mircea Eliade, the twentieth century's legendary scholars in the respective fields of Judaism, History of Religions, and Islam, converged and ultimately revolutionized how people thought about religion Between 1949 and 1978 all three lectured to Carl Jung's famous Eranos circle in Ascona Switzerland where each in his own way came to identify the symbolism of mystical experience as a central element of his monotheistic tradition In this the first book ever to compare the paths taken by these thinkers Steven Wasserstrom explores how they overturned traditional approaches to studying religion by de-emphasizing law ritual and social history and by extolling the role of myth and mysticism The most controversial aspect of their theory of religion Wasserstrom argues is that it minimized the binding character of moral law associated with monotheism The author focuses on the lectures delivered by Scholem Eliade and Corbin to the Eranos participants but also shows how these scholars generated broader interest in their ideas through radio talks poetry novels short stories autobiographies and interviews He analyzes their conception of religion from a broadly integrated comparative perspective sets their distinctive thinking into historical and intellectual context and interprets the striking success of their approaches

Mysticism Jess Hollenback, 1996-09-15 This sweeping study of mysticism by Jess Hollenback considers the writings and experiences of a broad range of traditional religious mystics including Teresa of Avila, Black Elk and Gopi Krishna. It also makes use of a new category of sources that more traditional scholars have almost entirely ignored: namely the autobiographies and writings of contemporary clairvoyants, mediums and out of body travelers. This study contributes to the current debate about the contextuality of mysticism by presenting evidence that not only are the mystic's interpretations of and responses to experiences culturally and historically conditioned, but historical context and cultural environment decisively shape both the perceptual and affective content of the mystic's experience as well. Hollenback also explores the linkage between the mystic's practice of recollection and the onset of other unusual or supernatural manifestations such as photisms, the ability to see auras, telepathic sensitivity, clairvoyance and out of body experiences. He demonstrates that these extraordinary phenomena can actually deepen our understanding of mysticism in unexpected ways. A unique feature of this book is its in-depth analysis of empowerment, an important phenomenon ignored by most scholars of mysticism. Empowerment is a peculiar enhancement of the imagination, thoughts and desires that frequently accompanies mystical states of consciousness. Hollenback shows its cross-cultural persistence, its role in constructing the perceptual and existential environments within which the mystic dwells, and its linkage to the fundamental contextuality of mystical experience.

The Most Holy Trinosophia Professor of Religious Studies at Michigan State University Arthur Versluis, Robert Powell, 1994-05 Theosophia traces the long hidden esoteric stream of Christian gnostic theosophy, revealing a chivalric religion of the Holy Spirit at the heart of Christianity. It shows that all three major branches of Christianity bear within them interrelated esoteric traditions. A deeply affirmative book, Theosophia introduces wholly unexpected aspects of Christian tradition. Where mainstream Christianity seems anti-nature, Christian theosophy affirms a profound nature mysticism; where it seems anti-erotic, theosophy affirms a powerful religious eroticism; and where it is portrayed as rigidly patriarchal, theosophy affirms a mysticism founded in the divine Sophia, the feminine personification of wisdom. Theosophia reveals hidden dimensions of our spiritual heritage that speak directly to our current social, ecological and religious crises.
