Spirituality Matters:

Spirituality Roger S. Gottlieb, 2012-12-03 Roger S Gottlieb provides a lucid and accessible overview of what spirituality is enabling a clear eyed understanding of the concept its manifold connections to other aspects of personal and social life its role as a positive psychological and social phenomenon and some of the risks that attend it Religion Matters: Volume 2 P. T. Babie, Rick Sarre, 2024-07-19 This book constitutes the second volume of Religion Matters The Contemporary Relevance of Religion Springer 2020 Offering a fresh and much needed perspective it explores the role of religion in the modern neo liberal world The book acclaims that religion is a contextual and contested term which is extensively discussed in the Introduction Designed to be read selectively this book allows readers to delve into topics and traditions of specific interest without the necessity of reading the entire volume In contrast to volume 1 where contributors critically engaged with religion and various disciplines this book poses a fundamental question Can religion contribute to the discipline under consideration Authors were selected based on their ability to address this question Some chapters concluded that religion may offer very little to the discipline under consideration highlighting the value of volume 1 s critical stance on the place of religion in contemporary society However the project s overall aim remained somewhat unfulfilled leading to the creation of this second volume The primary omission from the first book was a comprehensive exploration of the sciences and health sciences which this second volume aims to rectify Furthermore additional authors were chosen to investigate the nature of connectedness facilitated by religion horizontally through membership within wider communities societies cultures or religious traditions and vertically by examining historical relationships within a particular faith tradition culture community or society This volume also broadens its focus to include non Christian perspectives Indigenous perspectives and an increased representation of female contributors The Grand Weaver: How God Shapes Us Through the Events of Our Lives Ravi Zacharias, 2010 With inspiring stories and thought provoking questions Ravi Zacharias traces the multiple threads of our lives describing how the unseen hand of God guides our joys our tragedies our daily humdrum to weave a pattern of divine providence and meaning Shamanism and Spirituality in Therapeutic Practice Christa Mackinnon, 2012 Explores the shamanic themes of altered states of perception integrative wholeness of mind body soul and spirit and transformative healing approaches and explains how a therapist can effectively integrate these into his or her practice Original Spirituality and Business Sharda S. Nandram, Margot Esther Borden, 2009-11-11 We Sharda and Margot feel very honored to be able to write and edit such a book Our spiritual journey has led to the passion of bringing together and sharing the thoughts we ourselves have come across in our lives by meeting gurus swamis like minded seekers managers teachers entrepreneurs academics students and by reading books and practicing spiritual techniques We also have gained much spiritual inspiration from the teachings of Sri Aurobindo and The Mother to whom we are grateful The thoughts presented in this book already exist in the East and West Integrating them into the way we do business can help us to regain trust and respect in business even in the current economic crisis We aim to convince others of our deep belief that spiritual practices and a spiritual orientation help make life more enjoyable and makes us better human beings through helping us to live in line with our karma in every context of life in our roles as employees entrepreneurs managers leaders mothers or fathers etc Spirituality, Values and Mental Health Peter Gilbert,Vicky Nicholls,Mary Ellen Coyte,2007-11-15 This book gathers together contributions from mental health professionals carers and mental health service users and survivors It addresses the stigma that can surround both mental health and spirituality and explores the spiritual in mental health care teasing out its implications for research education training and good practice The Oxford Handbook of Psychology and Spirituality Lisa J. Miller,2024 This updated edition of The Oxford Handbook of Psychology and Spirituality codifies the leading empirical evidence in the support and application of postmaterial psychological science Lisa J Miller has gathered together a group of ground breaking scholars to showcase their work of many decades that has come further to fruition in the past ten years with the collective momentum of a Spiritual Renaissance in Psychological Science With new and updated chapters from leading scholars in psychology medicine physics and biology the Handbook is an interdisciplinary reference for a rapidly emerging approach to contemporary science Highlighting fresh ideas and supporting science this overarching work provides both a foundation and a roadmap for what is truly a new ideological age Cultivating the Spirit Alexander W. Astin,Helen S. Astin,Jennifer A. Lindholm,2010-10-26 Cultivating the Spirit THIS GROUNDBREAKING WORK IS BASED on a five year study of how students change during the college years and the role college plays in facilitating the development of their spiritual qualities Students the authors argue grapple with the big questions in life Who am I What are my values Do I have a mission in life Why am I in college What kind of person do I want to be What sort of world do I want to help to create Their answers to these questions help determine their academic and career choices and are tied to the development of personal qualities such as empathy caring and social responsibility The study finds that while students religious engagement declines during college at the same time they become substantially more caring tolerant connected with others and actively engaged in a spiritual quest Spiritual growth also enhances academic performance leadership development and satisfaction with college The study provides strong evidence pointing to specific experiences during college that can contribute to students spiritual growth The need for spiritual development in college is apparent Two thirds of the students in the study express a strong interest in spiritual matters well over half report that their professors never encourage discussions of religious or spiritual matters and about the same proportion report that professors never provide opportunities to discuss the purpose and meaning of life Cultivating the Spirit aims to raise the awareness of academic administrators faculty and the public at large to the vital role that spirituality plays in student learning and development Throughout the book the authors identify strategies for enhancing students development and encourage the academy to give greater priority to the spiritual aspects of students educational and personal development A New Old Spirituality? Tone Stangeland Kaufman,2017-07-11

How do pastors live their spiritual lives both as private persons and as professionals How can their spirituality be characterized and understood Drawing on in depth interviews with Norwegian clergy as well as literature from the fields of Christian spirituality practical theology congregational studies and the sociology of religion this book offers a nuanced understanding of clergy spirituality Tone Stangeland Kaufman identifies three locations and sources of spiritual nurture for pastors the ministry itself vocational spirituality daily life everyday spirituality and spiritual practices located at the margins of daily life intentional spirituality The participants in this study engage in classic Christian practices yet approach them in a subjective and new way that also potentially revitalizes their spiritual lives Hence the author makes the case that their spirituality can aptly be described as a new old spirituality The book also seeks to nuance Paul Heelas's and Linda Woodhead's Spiritual Revolution claim and thus engages in the broader spirituality vs religion discourse A New Old Spirituality is an exciting example of how qualitative empirical research can be used in creative ways to make a practical theological argument It is a book for scholars students and practitioners

Religion That Heals, Religion That Harms James L. Griffith, 2010-08-09 From James L Griffith well known for his work on harnessing the healing potential of religion and spirituality this book helps clinicians to intervene effectively in situations where religion is causing harm Vivid examples illustrate how religious beliefs and practices may propel suicide violence self neglect or undue suffering in the face of medical or emotional challenges Griffith also unravels the links between psychiatric illness and distorted religious experience He demonstrates empathic respectful ways to interview patients who disdain contact with mental health professionals yet whose religious lives put themselves or others at risk The book incorporates cutting edge research on the psychology of religion and social neuroscience

Sport and Religion in the Twenty-First Century Brad Schultz, Mary L. Sheffer, 2015-12-16 This book examines the relationship between sport and religion with regard to twenty first century topics such as race fandom education and culture The contributors provide new insights into the people movements and events that define the complex relationship between sport and religion around the world A wonderful addition to any academic course on religion sports ethics or culture as a whole

Spirituality at the School Gate Diane Jackson, 2020-04-06 Spirituality at the School Gate is an innovative and explorative new study grounded in the field of lived religion It examines how intentionally engaging in spirituality makes a difference to relationships made at the school gate and looks at the importance of compassion and encounter Unlike the everyday location of the workplace or the home the school gate which is primarily populated by women is an overlooked under researched locus of spirituality This book reveals it as a context deserving of attention and sheds a concentrated beam of light on what proves to be a site of rich embodied spiritual practice It will encourage readers to approach their daily school gate experiences with more intentionality and appreciation of the presence of God in the everyday

The Church and Employment Law John Duddington, 2022-12-16 This book examines the current law on the employment status of ministers of religion together with religious workers and volunteers and suggests reforms in this area of the law to meet the need for ministers to be given a degree of employment protection It also considers the constant theme in Christian history that the clergy should not be subject to the ordinary courts and asks whether this is justified with the growth of areas such as employment law The work questions whether it is possible to arrive at a satisfactory definition of who is a minister of religion and along with this who would be the employer of the minister if there was a contract of employment Taking a comparative perspective it evaluates the case law on the employment status of Christian and non Christian clergy and assesses whether this shows any coherent theme or line of development The work also considers the issue of ministerial employment status against the background of the autonomy of churches and other religious bodies from the State together with their ecclesiology The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of law and religion employment law and religious studies together with both legal practitioners and human resources practitioners in these areas

Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay, Ann Harrington, 2023-09-12 This book addresses important issues of ageing and spirituality and reflects on the impact of culture on both constructs The papers are contemporary in that they include excerpts of cultural impact on spirituality from New Zealand Singapore India United Kingdom Australia and the United States This book marks almost 20 years of international conferences on ageing and spirituality that commenced in January 2000 It opens the conversation to all who were part of this journey of ageing including older people practitioners in ageing and aged care researchers and those who reflect on the process of growing older Chapters feature diverse perspectives highlighting the need for inclusivity in conversations that surround ageing and recognize how development of cultures is influenced by the society where they emerge and by minority groups within larger society Chapters also note the occurrence of subcultures of ageing and aged care The conference was held shortly before the onset of the COVID 19 pandemic with the chapters being written often during times of lockdown Their content reflects the importance of spirituality in times of isolation and can show ways of reaching out to vulnerable older people of various faiths and cultures whatever their situations Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Theology Divinity and Religious Studies Gerontology Sociology Psychology Mental Health and Nursing The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Religion Spirituality Aging

Practice and Profile Johan Hegeman, Margaret Edgell, Henk Jochemsen, 2011-02-28 Too many students are disappointed They want to make a difference in their chosen professions They are inspired by successful visionaries but they have little idea how to follow in their oversized footsteps Their colleges and universities promise more professional development than they can possibly deliver especially in terms of moral development for the professions Experts coming from a range of perspectives in higher education agree that moral formation for the professions must increasingly take place in higher education Tragically the recent evolution of teaching has stripped educators of much of the rationale for moral formation The recent record of moral lapses by managers testifies to this crisis of moral education The authors call for a revival of moral formation in higher education for the professions They supply the needed resources to redesign classic as well as cutting edge teaching and learning toward practical moral education in the professions This book is carefully designed to apply traditional Christian principles appropriately to evolving professional practices The authors strategies address the problems surrounding calling vocation and the growing need for virtue training in the professions In particular the authors provide clear direction for how to meet the need for professional profiles that meet the standards of the marketplace Practice and Profile provides the reader with a tested and proven model of faith formation appropriate to the professions It also goes into specific useful detail as to how the model mobilizes learning in classroom and professional settings It aids institutions of higher learning in their struggle with demands for new learning environments and new moral competencies Foremost it gives students a grasp of how to become dedicated professionals who make a difference

Calling the Soul Back Christina Garcia Lopez,2019-04-02 Spirituality has consistently been present in the political and cultural counternarratives of Chicanx literature Calling the Soul Back focuses on the embodied aspects of a spirituality integrating body mind and soul Centering the relationship between embodiment and literary narrative Christina Garcia Lopez shows narrative as healing work through which writers and readers ritually call back the soul one's unique immaterial essence into union with the body counteracting the wounding fragmentation that emerged out of colonization and imperialism These readings feature both underanalyzed and more popular works by pivotal writers such as Gloria Anzaldá Sandra Cisneros and Rudolfo Anaya in addition to works by less commonly acknowledged authors Calling the Soul Back explores the spiritual and ancestral knowledge offered in narratives of bodies in trauma bodies engaged in ritual grieving bodies immersed in and becoming part of nature and dreaming bodies Reading across narrative nonfiction performative monologue short fiction fables illustrated children's books and a novel Garcia Lopez asks how these narratives draw on the embodied intersections of ways of knowing and being to shift readers consciousness regarding relationships to space time and natural environments Using an interdisciplinary approach Calling the Soul Back draws on literary and Chicanx studies scholars as well as those in religious studies feminist studies sociology environmental studies philosophy and Indigenous studies to reveal narrative's healing potential to bring the soul into balance with the body and mind

Spiritual Health John W. Fisher, 2010 As spirituality first appeared in Australian curriculum documents in 1994 it was important to establish how educators thought it related to student well being In this research a description and four accounts of spirituality spiritual rationalism monism dualism and multidimensional unity were developed from available literature The literature also revealed four sets of relationships important to spiritual well being These were the relationships of a person with themselves others environment and Transcendent Other

Boiling Point George Barna, Mark Hatch, 2003-11-26 Two decades ago a groundbreaking book called The Frog in the Kettle changed what we believe about the evangelical Church and its influence in America Subsequent books by George Barna have become must reading for church leaders and concerned Christians everywhere Now Barna takes a fresh look at the Church where we stand and where we are headed at the dawn of the new millennium With revealing statistics from cutting edge research that illustrate the changing beliefs and attitudes in our society today this book clearly shows the Church is at a crucial juncture in history a time of rapid change in which we must begin to anticipate the world's needs in order to meet them
