by A.J. Baxter Andrew Joseph Baxter,1884 The Story of Human Spiritual Evolution Richard Ferguson,2012-10 This book is one of a kind It traces the history of human awareness of God and belief back to its earliest roots long before the Bible the Koran the Upanishads and other writings It shows how the foundation for belief in God was contained within the instant of creation itself Scientists call this the big bang It shows that as the universe developed there came a point in human development where we had the capability to begin to be aware of an afterlife These ideas were primitive by our standards today but they served to create a solid foundation for increasing complex and more thorough understandings of who God is and our relationship with Him This book covers the well known axial age where there was a watershed or flood of prophets and holy men who advanced understandings of both philosophy and theology and science in the hundreds of years before the coming of Jesus Christ In a real sense they prepared the way for God s son and His gospel It is these men who changed the course of human understanding of God with new revolutionary ideas that advanced the self revelation of God to humankind The last part of the book looks at religion today and how we got here and ends with God s view of humanity as we constantly strive toward God on our individual spiritual journeys

Introduction to African American Studies
 Talmadge Anderson,James Benjamin Stewart,2007 There is an ongoing debate as to whether African American Studies is a discipline or multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary field Some scholars assert that African American Studies use a well defined common approach in examining history politics and the family in the same way as scholars in the disciplines of economics sociology and political science Other scholars consider African American Studies multidisciplinary a field somewhat comparable to the field of education in which scholars employ a variety of disciplinary lenses be they anthropological psychological historical etc to study the African world experience In this model the boundaries between traditional disciplines are accepted and researches in African American Studies simply conduct discipline based an analysis of particular topics Finally another group of scholars insists that African American Studies is interdisciplinary an enterprise that generates distinctive analyses by combining perspectives from d

Encyclopedia of Religious and Spiritual Development
 Elizabeth M. Dowling,W. George Scarlett,2006 Focuses on the developmental process of religion and spirituality across the human life span This encyclopedia joins a recent trend in research and scholarship aimed at better understanding the similarities and differences between world religions and spiritualities between expressions of the divine and between experiences of the transcendent

Homer Rodeheaver and the Rise of the Gospel Music Industry Kevin Mungons,Douglas Yeo,2021-06-15 From tent revivals to radio and records with a gospel music innovator Homer Rodeheaver merged evangelical hymns and African American spirituals with popular music to create a potent gospel style Kevin Mungons and Douglas Yeo examine his enormous influence on gospel music against the backdrop of Christian music history and Rodeheaver s impact as a cultural and business figure Rodeheaver rose to fame as the trombone playing song leader for evangelist Billy Sunday As revivalism declined after World War I Rodeheaver leveraged his place in America's newborn celebrity culture to start the first gospel record label and launch a nationwide radio program His groundbreaking combination of hymnal publishing and recording technology helped define the early Christian music industry In his later years he influenced figures like Billy Graham and witnessed the music's split into southern gospel and black gospel Clear-eyed and revealing Homer Rodeheaver and the Rise of the Gospel Music Industry is an overdue consideration of a pioneering figure in American music A New Geography of Poets Edward Field, Gerald Locklin, Charles Stetler, 1992-01-01 An anthology of poetry about regions of the United States from the Northeast to the Old West
