Duffy, IV,2012-11-01 Basic Music Reference is a quick start guide designed to introduce library employees to the basic tools and techniques involved in answering questions related to music As in every specialist subject area music has its own terminology but unlike most it also has a multitude of formats on paper and other materials as well as special notation and frequent use of foreign languages in titles and texts These features make it particularly difficult for library employees to answer users questions and thus a guide such as this one is essential Not all libraries with a music collection can afford to hire a music reference librarian Even libraries with such a specialist rely on support staff and student employees to answer questions when the music librarian is not available Whatever the scenario this volume will serve as a helpful training tool for library employees to learn about the basic music reference tools and to develop the techniques of greatest use when answering the most common types of music related questions Recorded Solo Concert Spirituals, 1916-2022 ,2023-05-08 This work catalogs commercially produced recordings of Negro spirituals composed for solo concert vocalists More than 5 000 tracks are listed with entries sourced from a variety of recording formats The featured recordings enhance the study of concert spiritual performance in studio concert worship service or competition settings Arranged alphabetically entries variously identify the accompaniment including chorus piano orchestra guitar flute and violin in concert spiritual recordings The voice types of soloists are included as is the level of dialect used by various performers The composers publishers and format information are also listed when available While structured like a discography this guide extends beyond solely providing historical context and encourages the use of the recordings themselves The Spirituals of Harry T. Burleigh Harry Thacker Burleigh,1984 48 spirituals arranged for high voice with piano acc Songs for Beginning Bass Voice Alan J. Ord,2001-11-08 The beginning bass singer with his range and tessitura at the bottom end of the scale of voices has unique difficulties finding suitable vocal music which is often very frustrating for him and his teacher As the young or beginning bass works and waits patiently for his voice to develop appropriate vocal literature needs to be found which is within his present range and tessitura To address this problem this new book lists selected songs carefully chosen from the repertoire with annotations Some songs given as an illustration or example of what is appropriate are presented in their entirety Each of these has its own background material complete with interesting biographical information and tips on interpretation If the song is originally in a foreign language a suitable English version is given as well In addition the selected entries provide full access to suitable material annotations include composer title range tessitura tempo meter difficulty source publisher and pertinent comments Also includes indexes by composer title and publisher

Singing Down the Barriers Emery Stephens, Caroline Helton, 2023-07-03 Never has there been a more urgent time to foster cultural humility diversity and community dialogue while addressing systemically exclusionary teaching practices in vocal music Singing Down the Barriers offers readers from all ethnic backgrounds a space in which to better understand the historical and cultural barriers to researching programming and performing repertoire by composers from the African diaspora Emery Stephens and Caroline Helton present a pedagogical guide for singers singing teachers students and administrators that will assist not only with programming but also in creating sustainable brave spaces for critical conversations on race equity and American music The book is divided into three parts Part one presents historical context for African American song from the 19th century to the 21st century Part two examines the culture of academic institutions and provides a framework for positive change Part three provides strategies to foster integrated communities that can explore this repertoire with respect and mutual support as well as ways to incorporate Afrocentric music into the canon This book is a seminal resource for higher education community music programs private studios and beyond and will help support DEI initiatives for vocal music programs

Gullah Spirituals Eric Sean Crawford, 2021-07-16 In Gullah Spirituals musicologist Eric Crawford traces Gullah Geechee songs from their beginnings in West Africa to their height as songs for social change and Black identity in the twentieth century American South While much has been done to study preserve and interpret Gullah culture in the lowcountry and sea islands of South Carolina and Georgia some traditions like the shouting and rowing songs have been all but forgotten This work which focuses primarily on South Carolina s St Helena Island illuminates the remarkable history survival and influence of spirituals since the earliest recordings in the 1860s Grounded in an oral tradition with a dynamic and evolving character spirituals proved equally adaptable for use during social and political unrest and in unlikely circumstances Most notably the island s songs were used at the turn of the century to help rally support for the United States involvement in World War I and to calm racial tensions between black and white soldiers In the 1960s civil rights activists adopted spirituals as freedom songs though many were unaware of their connection to the island Gullah Spirituals uses fieldwork personal recordings and oral interviews to build upon earlier studies and includes an appendix with more than fifty transcriptions of St Helena spirituals many no longer performed and more than half derived from Crawford's own transcriptions Through this work Crawford hopes to restore the cultural memory lost to time while tracing the long arc and historical significance of the St Helena spirituals
