Jung and Hans Urs von Balthasar Les Oglesby,2013-10-23 This book brings together the work of Carl Gustav Jung and Hans Urs von Balthasar two of the most creative thinkers in psychology and theology in the twentieth century to critically compare their ideas on the perennial question of God's involvement with evil In later life Jung embarked on a project relating to Christianity with psychotherapeutic and theological intentions forming his collection of essays Symbolik des Geistes in which God and evil was a major theme Balthasar gave significant attention to Jung's psychology in his own theological trilogy but opposed the approach to God and evil that Jung presented In this book Les Oglesby provides a thorough examination of convergences and divergences in Jung and Balthasar's thinking their different approaches to the origins and reality of evil as well as their alternative theological orientations The book culminates with a study of each man's understanding of the central event of Christianity Christ's death on the Cross and his descent to the dead and discusses how Balthasar's vertical and Jung's horizontal approach to this major happening can be held together fruitfully with one another Illustrating how analytical psychology and Christian theology can mutually enrich one another when they are held in creative tension this book invites reflection on the meaning of the central symbol of Christianity and God's involvement with evil as an aid to integrated psychological living and theological maturity It will prove fascinating for students of psychology and religion as well as for Jungian analysts and practical theologians

The Community of the Beautiful Alejandro R. Garcia-Rivera,2017-07-27 2000 Catholic Press Association Award Winner The claim has been made that we are gripped today in an aesthetic crisis with considerable theological ramifications Aesthetics which has existed since the first human heart was moved by the influence of the beautiful has played a major role both implicit and explicit in theological reflection In The Community of the Beautiful Alejandro Garcia Rivera draws from the North American philosophical tradition and Hispanic theological thought to propose a new aesthetic principle a redemptive building of the community of the beautiful The Community of the Beautiful focuses on the premise that religion and beauty go together Yet today hundreds of theological treatises continue to speak solely of the truth of their claims The Community of the Beautiful addresses this silence with a proposal about the relationship between God and the beautiful It asks the question How can the finite human creature name the nameless perceive the imperceptible make visible the invisible The answer is what Hans Urs von Balthasar called a theological aesthetics The Community of the Beautiful is not simply an analysis of Balthasar's theology there exists a more personal and concrete reason for a reconsideration of the connection between God and the beautiful The experience of a particular living ecclesial tradition the Latin Church of the Americas may be a guide to a world that lost its confidence in the religious dimensions of the beautiful Garcia Rivera recasts the question of theological aesthetics posed above in light of the religious experience of the Latin Church of the Americas so that the question becomes What moves the human heart To answer that question Garcia Rivera draws on along ignored philosophical tradition The philosophical semiotics of Charles Peirce and Josiah Royce enter into dialogue with the theological aesthetics of Hans Urs von Balthasar to describe the traditional transcendentals the True and the Good as communities The final transcendental the beautiful enters into conversation with the semiotic aesthetics of Jan Mukarovsky and the religious experience of the Latin American Church to become the dazzling Vision of the community of the beautiful God s community Chapters are Pied Beauty A Different Beauty Seeing the Form The Community of the True The Community of the Good The Community of the Beautiful and Lifting up the Lowly Alejandro R Garcia Rivera a Roman Catholic lay theologian received his doctorate in theology from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago and holds degrees in physics from Ohio State University and Miami University The author of numerous articles and winner of a Catholic Press Association award he is assistant professor of systematic theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley

Theodicy in Habakkuk

Grace Ko, 2014-09-01 This extraordinary work explains how the writer of the book of Habakkuk resolves the issue of theodicy. Reading the book as a literary whole, Grace Ko uses a holistic synchronic approach to investigate how its writer presents his case and how he reaches the final resolution of his problem. Since theodicy is a common human issue raised during atrocity, Habakkuk's experience becomes a source of hope and resolute faith for the believing community in the midst of severe adversity. COMMENDATION Theodicy in Habakkuk is a welcome addition to the interpretation of the prophetic message of Habakkuk. This sensible, clearly written book deserves the attention of all serious Old Testament scholars and students. J. Glen Taylor, Wycliffe College, University of Toronto, Canada.

Ciphers of Transcendence Fran O'Rourke, 2019-11-28 The title Ciphers of Transcendence reflects the philosophical interests of Patrick Masterson, Emeritus Professor of Philosophy of Religion, University College Dublin. Transcendence is a millefeuille term conveying layered and diverse nuances from the first openness of human awareness towards the outside world to the ultimate affirmation of and commitment to a loving and infinite Transcendent. Patrick Masterson has devoted his philosophical career to reflection upon the unfathomable nature of the latter, seeking to decipher instances and images of transcendence within the realm of limited human experience. Through teaching and writing, he has shared with students and readers his deeply personal reflections on questions of primal importance. Patrick Masterson's colleagues and students, all devoted friends here, offer in return their diverse perspectives. The essays deal in one way or another with transcendence examined in dialogue with a roll call of thinkers across the ages, from ancient authors to medieval masters, modern giants to recent luminaries. The volume is enhanced by the inclusion of an essay by leading contemporary thinker Alasdair MacIntyre and a poem from Seamus Heaney that evokes across the silence of solitude the tender presence of transcendence.
