Birringer,1998 The author discusses the performance aspects of such political events as the breaching of the Berlin wall and the destruction of Sarajevo and examines the use of video and agitprop performance in political activity including protests by the gay activist group ACT UP and the disquieting performances of the former pornography actress and sex worker Annie Sprinkle Birringer ends with a discussion of the continuing incursions of business into digital media including the imperialism of technological enhancements as experienced in the culture of constant upgrades and the omnipresence of Bill Gates

Missing Link Carl Aigner,2000 Photography more than any other medium has altered the way we see ourselves and changed our perception of art Pictures of people have become part and parcel of our daily life influencing us through advertising and media At the same time the status of the human image in art has been enhanced even though photography has called into question traditional views of art Photography is as it were the missing link between man the image of man and art

Video Yvonne Spielmann,2010-08-13 An argument that video is not merely an intermediate stage between analog and digital but a medium in its own right traces the theoretical genealogy of video and examines the different concepts of video seen in works by Vito Acconci Ulrike Rosenbach Steina and Woody Vasulka and others Video is an electronic medium dependent on the transfer of electronic signals Video signals are in constant movement circulating between camera and monitor This process of simultaneous production and reproduction makes video the most reflexive of media distinct from both photography and film in which the image or a sequence of images is central Because it is processual and not bound to recording and the appearance of a frame video shares properties with the computer In this book Yvonne Spielmann argues that video is not merely an intermediate stage between analog and digital but a medium in its own right Video has metamorphosed from technology to medium with a set of aesthetic languages that are specific to it and current critical debates on new media still need to recognize this Spielmann considers video as transformation imagery acknowledging the centrality in video of the transitions between images and the fact that these transitions are explicitly reflected in new processes After situating video in a genealogical model that demonstrates both its continuities and discontinuities with other media Spielmann considers three strands of video praxis documentary experimental art and experimental image making which is concerned primarily with signal processing She then discusses selected works by such artists as Vito Acconci Ulrike Rosenbach Joan Jonas Nam June Paik Peter Campus Dara Birnbaum Nan Hoover Lynn Hershman Gary Hill Steina and Woody Vasulka Bill Seaman and others These works serve to demonstrate the spectrum of possibilities in video as medium and point to connections with other forms of media Finally Spielmann discusses the potential of interactivity complexity and hybridization in the future of video as a medium New German Review ,2003
