Scandinavia was far from untouched by the late eighteenth century revolutions in Europe and America Scandinavia did experience its outbursts of radical thought its assassinations and radical reforms but these occurred within reasonably stable political structures practices and ways of thinking As recent research on the political cultures of the Nordic countries clearly demonstrates the Danish Finnish Icelandic Norwegian and Swedish experiences of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries offer a more differentiated look at what constitutes revolutionary change in this period compared with other regions in Europe They provide an alternative story of an incipient transition towards modernity a Nordic model in which radical change takes place within an apparent continuity of the established order The long term products of the processes of change that began in the Age of Revolution were some of the most progressive and stable political systems in the modern world At the same time the Scandinavian countries provide a number of instances which are directly relevant to comparisons particularly within the northwest European cultural area Presenting the latest research on political culture in Scandinavia

this volume with twenty seven contributions focuses on four key aspects the crisis of monarchy the transformation in political debate the emerging influence of commercial interest in politics and the shifting boundaries of political participation Each section is preceded by an introduction that draws out the main themes of the chapters and how they contribute to the broader themes of the volume and to overall European history Generously illustrated throughout this book will introduce non Scandinavian readers to developments in the Nordic countries during the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries and both complement and challenge research into the political cultures of Europe and America Female Economic

Strategies in the Modern World Beatrice Moring,2015-10-06 This collection of essays looks at the various ways in which women have coped financially in a male dominated world Chapters focus on Europe and Latin America and cover the whole of the modern period The ^AJamestown Brides Jennifer Potter,2019-05-03 Jennifer Potter explores the lives of the fifty six women who volunteered to leave their lives in England and travel to the Jamestown colony in 1621 Landless

Households in Rural Europe, 1600-1900 Christine Fertig,Richard Paping,Henry French,2022 First comparative study of landless households brings out their major role in European history and society The numbers of landless people those lacking formal rights to land or possessing only tiny smallholdings grew rapidly across post medieval Europe as rural population and economic growth divided landowners and farmers from increasingly landless rural workers But they have hitherto been relatively neglected a gap which this volume covering Scandinavia Germany Austria Netherlands Belgium Britain France and Spain from the sixteenth to the early twentieth centuries aims to fill making creative use of a diverse range of unexplored sources Instead of concentrating on the well documented cases of landholding peasants it explores the many different experiences of the numerous rural landless It explains how their households were formed often in the face of economic difficulties and official hostility how all the members of a family contributed to its survival how the landless related to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was changed by war politics agrarian and industrial development government policy and welfare systems Contributors Arnau Barquer i Cerd John Broad Dieter Bruneel Christine Fertig Henry French Margareth Lanzinger Jonas Lindstr m Riikka Miettinen Richard Paping Wouter Ronsijn Merja Uotila Nadine Vivierlated to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was changed by war politics agrarian and industrial development government policy and welfare systems Contributors Arnau Barquer i Cerd John Broad Dieter Bruneel Christine Fertig Henry French Margareth Lanzinger Jonas Lindstr m Riikka Miettinen Richard Paping Wouter Ronsijn Merja Uotila Nadine Vivierlated to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was changed by war politics agrarian and industrial development government policy and welfare systems Contributors Arnau Barquer i Cerd John Broad Dieter Bruneel Christine Fertig Henry French Margareth Lanzinger Jonas Lindstr m Riikka Miettinen Richard Paping Wouter Ronsijn Merja Uotila Nadine Vivierlated to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural
