The Maghrib In Question:

The Maghrib in Question Michel F. Le Gall, Kenneth J. Perkins, 1997 The Maghrib in Question Michel Le Gall, Kenneth Perkins, 2010-07-05 A wealth of historical writing dealing with the Maghrib Morocco Algeria Tunisia and Libya has been published during the roughly forty years since European colonial control ended in the region This book provides a state of the field survey of this postcolonial Maghribi historiography The book contains thirteen essays by leading Maghribi and North American scholars The first section surveys the Maghrib as a whole the second focuses on individual countries of the Maghrib and the third explores theoretical issues and case studies Cutting across chronological categories the book encompasses historiographical writing dealing with all eras from the ancient Maghrib to the contemporary period

Between Caravan and Sultan: The Bayruk of Southern Morocco Mohamed Hassan Mohamed, 2012-02-22 Using an ensemble of sources and current concepts this book proposes new ways of conceiving the place of the caravan and the dynasty in Maghribian historical experiences and modes of identification The Modern Middle East Ilan Pappé, 2005 The Gulf states Two introductory chapters on political and economic history set the broader context The main text focuses on the experience of everyday people from Ottoman and colonial times through the present Rural and urban history popular culture music literature theatre and other media women and the many faces of Islam are the chapter topics Annotation 2006 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com Spanning the Strait, 2014-01-02 Spanning the Strait Studies in Unity in the Western Mediterranean brings together a multidisciplinary collection of essays that examines the deep connections that bound together the Iberian Peninsula and the Maghrib in the medieval and early modern periods Six articles on topics ranging from the eighth century slave trade to sixteenth century apocalypticism trace and analyze movement mutual influence and patterns shared in the face of political religious and cultural difference By transcending traditional disciplinary and temporal divisions this collection of essays highlights the long history of contact and exchange that united the two sides of the Strait of Gibraltar A comprehensive introduction by the editors contextualizes the articles within the last half century of scholarship and salient contemporary trends Contributors are Adam Gaiser Linda G Jones Hussein Fancy S J Pearce David Coleman and Marya T Green Mercado The Arab and Jewish Questions Bashir Bashir, Leila Farsakh, 2020-12-15 Nineteenth century Europe turned the political status of its Jewish communities into the Jewish Question as both Christianity and rising forms of nationalism viewed Jews as the ultimate other With the onset of Zionism this question migrated to Palestine and intensified under British colonial rule and in the aftermath of the Holocaust Zionism's attempt to solve the Jewish Question created what came to be known as the Arab Question which concerned the presence and rights of the Arab population in Palestine For the most part however Jewish settlers denied or dismissed the question they created to the detriment of both Arabs and Jews in Palestine and elsewhere This book brings together leading scholars to consider how these two questions are entangled historically and in the present day It offers critical analyses of Arab engagements with the question of Jewish rights alongside Zionist and non Zionist Jewish considerations of Palestinian identity and political rights Together the essays show that the Arab and Jewish questions and the Israeli Palestinian conflict in which they have become subsumed belong to the same thorny history Despite their major differences the historical Jewish and Arab questions are about the political rights of oppressed groups and their inclusion within exclusionary political communities a question that continues to foment tensions in the Middle East Europe and the United States Shedding new light on the intricate relationships among Orientalism anti-Semitism Islamophobia colonialism and the impasse in the Israeli Palestinian conflict this book reveals the inseparability of Arab and Jewish struggles for self determination and political equality Contributors include Gil Anidjar Brian Klug Amal Ghazal Ella Shohat Hakem Al Rustom Hillel Cohen Yuval Evri Derek Penslar Jacqueline Rose Moshe Behar Maram Masarwi and the editors Bashir Bashir and Leila Farsakh

Crossing The Strait James Brown, 2012-04-19 Using new archival evidence this book examines the links between Morocco and Gibraltar focusing on the period around 1750 1850 It shows how these connections challenge existing assumptions about the perceived division between opposite sides of the Strait of Gibraltar

Global and Local in Algeria and Morocco James McDougall, Robert P. Parks, 2017-10-02 This book brings together contributors across the disciplines to examine the local national regional and global processes that have shaped Maghribi societies economies and politics since the colonial period Focusing equally on the local shape of global processes and on the broader significance of particular ways of doing things these studies move beyond generalisations about globalisation and its impact on local societies whether developmental or detrimental of the global in the local or of glocalisation Cases range from the onset of the first wave of globalisation in the colonial era to the most recent developments in identity politics consumerism and telecommunications Contributors show how nationalising and globalising influences are seized remade and put to work in very different ways by High Atlas farmers or urban real estate speculators human rights activists at the edge of the Sahara and amateur theatre actors in Mediterranean towns Always located somewhere these social actors nonetheless act in different ways with different effects at different levels of engagement whether with each other their own governments or the wider world This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of North African Studies

Jerusalem In 101 Questions Zekeriya Kurşun, Ali İhsan Aydın, What do we know about Jerusalem the first qibla of Muslims Revered throughout history as the city of the Friend of God Khal lullah Jerusalem was a haven where people of all faiths lived in peace for most of its Islamic history especially during the Ottoman period Today the Palestine issue remains a global focal point due to Jerusalem s sacred status particularly as the home of the Al Aqsa Mosque This book aims to shed light on Jerusalem s history and importance It answers 101 questions about the city s journey from its earliest days to the present with a particular emphasis on its significance to the Abrahamic religions This work serves as both a reference for those studying Jerusalem and a historical guide for those planning a visit
