The Making Of Mind:

The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind Russell Meares, 2016-03-17 How did the human mind evolve and how does it emerge again and again in individual lives In The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind Russell Meares presents a fascinating inquiry into the origin of mind He proposes that the way in which mind or self evolved may resemble the way it emerges in childhood play and that a poetic analogical style of thought is a biological necessity essential to bringing to fruition the achievement of the human mind Taking a fresh look at the language used in psychotherapy he shows how language and conversation in particular is central to the development and maintenance of self His theory incorporates the ideas from William James Hughlings Jackson Janet Hobson Gerald Edelman Wolf Singer Vygotsky and others It is illuminated by extracts from literary artists such as Wallace Stevens W S Merwin Virginia Woolf Joseph Conrad and Shakespeare Encompassing psychotherapy psychoanalysis evolution child development literary criticism philosophy studies of mind and consciousness The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind is an engaging ground breaking and thought provoking work that will appeal to psychotherapists and psychoanalysts as well as anyone interested in the emergence of mind and self Making Mind

Gregory F. Tague, 2014-01-01 Making Mind Moral Sense and Consciousness in Philosophy Science and Literature posits the genesis of narrative as an adaptive function stemming from consciousness and moral sense The book is unique with its idea of the individual character evolving narrative in relation to the group Central to the argument is the claim that prehistorically consciousness and moral sense intersected to form narrative More than addressing the origin of story the book examines and explains the evolution of narrative The book is an interesting study of how our species inherited moral sense can differ dramatically from one individual to another While mores pertain to a group narrative comes from and is processed by the individual and reaches its high point in the novel We see how the moral sense works in characters as a monitor and we feel it operating in us as readers in terms of approval or not The Mind in the Making, 1924 The Making and Unmaking of an Evangelical Mind

Rudolph Nelson, 2002-11-07 The first half of this book takes a biographical approach to its subject examining Carnell's early life and education while the second half of the book looks topically at the issues that shaped Carnell's career and as the author proposes may have led to his psychological undoing Through the lens of Carnell's personal struggle this book offers a provocative view into the larger cultural tensions unleashed by new modes of secular thought that challenged the framework of American religious life during the middle years of the twentieth century Exploring the Making of the Modern Mind Through Selected Texts

Frederic Will, 2024-09-20 This book is an anthology of small texts chosen from a sequence of significant writers whose work fell between the Renaissance and the later seventeenth century from Ficino to Dryden The study traces a gradual growth of self awareness worldview scepticism and aesthetic exuberance

The Passionate Mind of Maxine Greene William F. Pinar, William Pinar, 1998 This collection of work is an analysis and investigation into Maxine Greene the most important philosopher of education in the United States today The book opens and concludes with Greene's own autobiographical statements      The Concept of Mind Gilbert Ryle, 1984 This now classic work challenges what Ryle calls philosophy's official theory the Cartesian myth of the separation of mind and matter Ryle's linguistic analysis remaps the conceptual geography of mind not so much solving traditional philosophical problems as dissolving them into the mere consequences of misguided language His plain language and essentially simple purpose put him in the tradition of Locke Berkeley Mill and Russell philosophers whose best work like Ryle's has become a part of our general literature      Constantine and the Divine Mind Kegan A. Chandler, 2019-12-18 Constantine's conversion to Christianity marks one of the most significant turning points in the epic of Western civilization It is also one of history's most controversial and hotly debated episodes Why did Constantine join a persecuted sect When did he convert And what kind of Christian did he ultimately become Such questions have perennially challenged historians but modern scholarship has opened a new door towards understanding the fourth century's most famous and mysterious convert In Constantine and the Divine Mind Chandler offers a new portrait of Constantine as a deeply religious man on a quest to restore what he believed was once the original religion of mankind monotheism By tracing this theological quest and important historical trends in Roman paganism Chandler illuminates the process by which Constantine embraced Christianity and how the reasons for that embrace continued to manifest in his religious policies In this we discover not only Constantine's personal religious journey but the reason why Christianity was first developed into a world power      Israel in the American Mind Shaul Mitelpunkt, 2018-05-10 Examines the changing meanings Americans invested in their country's intensifying relationship with Israel from the 1950s to the 1980s      The Phenomenological Mind Shaun Gallagher, Dan Zahavi, Professor of Philosophy and Director of the Center for Subjectivity Research Dan Zahavi, 2007-11-12 The Phenomenological Mind is the first book to properly introduce fundamental questions about the mind from the perspective of phenomenology Key questions and topics covered include What is phenomenology naturalizing phenomenology and the empirical cognitive sciences phenomenology and consciousness consciousness and self-consciousness including perception and action time and consciousness including William James intentionality the embodied mind action knowledge of other minds situated and extended minds phenomenology and personal identity Interesting and important examples are used throughout including phantom limb syndrome blindsight and self-disorders in schizophrenia making The Phenomenological Mind an ideal introduction to key concepts in phenomenology cognitive science and philosophy of mind
