The Maps And Prints Of Paolo Forlani:

The Maps and Prints of Paolo Forlani David Woodward,1990 Canada before Confederation: Maps at the Exhibition Chet Van Duzer,Lauren Beck,2018-01-15 Each of the maps featured in this book was showcased in the exhibition Canada before Confederation Early Exploration and Mapping which took place in several locations both in Canada and abroad in Fall of 2017 The authors provide a scholarly study highlighting the importance and unique features of each of these jewels of cartographic history with particular attention paid to how they demonstrate the development of Canadian identity at the same time that they reveal Indigenous knowledge of the lands now known as Canada Copyright in the Renaissance: Prints and the Privilegio in Sixteenth-Century Venice and Rome Christopher Witcombe,2004-06-01 This study examines the emergence and early history of copyright in Venice and Rome focusing in particular on the privilegio and the use made of it by printers publishers engravers painters architects mapmakers and others in the sixteenth century to protect their commercial interests in various types of printed images These include separately sold engravings woodcuts and etchings as well as illustrations in books The first part of the book surveys printmaking and the privilegio in sixteenth century Venice and Rome together with the related issues of licensing and censorship The second part documents many of the recipients who were granted the privilegio The book introduces the reader to the richly competitive world of printmaking and print publishing in Renaissance Italy Mapping the Ottomans Palmira Brummett,2015-05-19 Simple paradigms of Muslim Christian confrontation and the rise of Europe in the seventeenth century do not suffice to explain the ways in which European mapping envisioned the Turks in image and narrative Rather maps travel accounts compendia of knowledge and other texts created a picture of the Ottoman Empire through a complex layering of history ethnography and eyewitness testimony which juxtaposed current events to classical and biblical history counted space in terms of peoples routes and fortresses and used the land and seascapes of the map to assert ownership declare victory and embody imperial power s reach Enriched throughout by examples of Ottoman self mapping this book examines how Ottomans and their empire were mapped in the narrative and visual imagination of early modern Europe s Christian kingdoms The maps serve as centerpieces for discussions of early modern space time borders stages of travel information flows invocations of authority and cross cultural relations Worldly Consumers Genevieve Carlton,2015-06-22 Though the practical value of maps during the sixteenth century is well documented their personal and cultural importance has been relatively underexamined In Worldly Consumers Genevieve Carlton explores the growing availability of maps to private consumers during the Italian Renaissance and shows how map acquisition and display became central tools for constructing personal identity and impressing one s peers Drawing on a variety of sixteenth century sources including household inventories epigrams dedications catalogs travel books and advice manuals Worldly Consumers studies how individuals displayed different maps in their homes as deliberate acts of self fashioning One citizen decorated with maps of Bruges Holland Flanders and Amsterdam to remind visitors of his military prowess for example while another hung maps of cities where his ancestors fought or governed in homage to his auspicious family history Renaissance Italians turned domestic spaces into a microcosm of larger geographical places to craft cosmopolitan erudite identities for themselves creating a new class of consumers who drew cultural capital from maps of the time

The Venetian Discovery of America Elizabeth Horodowich, 2018-09-06 Few Renaissance Venetians saw the New World with their own eyes As the print capital of early modern Europe however Venice developed a unique relationship to the Americas Venetian editors mapmakers translators writers and cosmographers represented the New World at times as a place that the city's mariners had discovered before the Spanish a world linked to Marco Polo's China or another version of Venice especially in the case of Tenochtitlan Elizabeth Horodowich explores these various and distinctive modes of imagining the New World including Venetian rhetorics of firstness similitude othering comparison and simultaneity generated through forms of textual and visual pastiche that linked the wider world to the Venetian lagoon These wide ranging stances allowed Venetians to argue for their different but equivalent participation in the Age of Encounters Whereas historians have traditionally focused on the Spanish conquest and colonization of the New World and the Dutch and English mapping of it they have ignored the wide circulation of Venetian Americana Horodowich demonstrates how with their printed texts and maps Venetian newsmongers embraced a fertile tension between the distant and the close In doing so they played a crucial yet heretofore unrecognized role in the invention of America

Shedding The Veil: Mapping The European Discovery Of America And The World Thomas Suarez, 1994-04-29 Shedding the Veil is a highly original overview of Europe's exploration and discovery beyond her own confines It tackles the subject via an analysis of maps dating from circa 1434 to 1865 with an emphasis on the period before 1600 The book begins with an appraisal of the peculiar circumstances which led late medieval Europe to pursue long distance travel both overland and by sea introduces cosmographic traditions inherited from classical times and investigates pre Columbian excursions into the western ocean Finally the great voyages and mappaemundi of the early sixteenth century are described in depth After 1600 the focus begins to narrow North America and particularly to the colonization of the American Northeast All maps discussed in detail are illustrated 40 full page b w plates 25 full page color plates
