The London Stage 1910-1919 J. P. Wearing, 2013-12-19 Theatre in London has celebrated a rich and influential history and in 1976 the first volume of J P Wearing's reference series provided researchers with an indispensable resource of these productions In the decades since the original calendars were produced several research aids have become available notably various reference works and the digitization of relevant newspapers and periodicals This second edition of The London Stage 1910 1919 A Calendar of Productions Performers and Personnel provides a chronological calendar of London shows from January 1910 through December 1919 The volume chronicles more than 3 000 productions at 35 major central London theatres during this period For each entry the following information is provided Title AuthorTheatrePerformersPersonnelOpening and closing dates Number of performances Other details include genre of the production number of acts and a list of reviews A comment section includes other interesting information such as a plot description first night audience reception noteworthy performances staging elements and details of performances in New York either prior to or after the London production Among the plays staged in London during this decade were Chu Chin Chow The Gaol Gate Hindle Wakes Justice Kismet Pygmalion and Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm as well as numerous musical comedies British and American foreign works operas and revivals of English classics A definitive resource this edition revises corrects and expands the original calendar In addition approximately 20 percent of the material in particular information on adaptations and translations plot sources and comments is new Arranged chronologically the shows are fully indexed by title genre and theatre A general index includes numerous subject entries on such topics as acting audiences censorship costumes managers performers prompters staging and ticket prices The London Stage 1910 1919 will be of value to scholars theatrical personnel librarians writers journalists and historians Curriculum Design for Writing Instruction Kathy Tuchman Glass, 2004-12-09 Replete with strategies examples and reproducibles this guide is invaluable for any teacher who wants to boost student achievement in writing for any subject or grade level The Politics of Reproduction Katherine Paugh, 2017-04-21 Many British politicians planters and doctors attempted to exploit the fertility of Afro Caribbean women s bodies in order to ensure the economic success of the British Empire during the age of abolition Abolitionist reformers hoped that a homegrown labor force would end the need for the Atlantic slave trade By establishing the ubiquity of visions of fertility and subsequent economic growth during this time The Politics of Reproduction sheds fresh light on the oft debated question of whether abolitionism was understood by contemporaries as economically beneficial to the plantation colonies At the same time Katherine Paugh makes novel assertions about the importance of Britain's Caribbean colonies in the emergence of population as a political problem The need to manipulate the labor market on Caribbean plantations led to the creation of new governmental strategies for managing sex and childbearing such as centralized nurseries discouragement of extended breastfeeding and financial incentives for childbearing that have become commonplace in our modern world While assessing the politics of reproduction in the British Empire and its Caribbean colonies in relationship to major political events such as the Haitian Revolution the study also focuses in on the island of Barbados The remarkable story of an enslaved midwife and her family illustrates how plantation management policies designed to promote fertility affected Afro Caribbean women during the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries The Politics of Reproduction draws on a wide variety of sources including debates in the British Parliament and the Barbados House of Assembly the records of Barbadian plantations tracts about plantation management published by doctors and plantation owners and missionary records related A History of the New York Stage from the First Performance in 1732 to 1901 Thomas Allston to the island of Barbados Brown.1903 The Crisis ,1963-12 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Fiction.
