Slave Life in Georgia John Brown,1855 Slave Life in Georgia John Brown,1970 Slave Life in Georgia John Brown,2012-09-26 The Editor is conscious that the following Narrative has only its truthfulness to recommend it to favorable consideration It is nothing more than it purports to be namely a plain unvarnished tale of real Slave life conveyed as nearly as possible in the language of the subject of it and written under his dictation It would have been easy to fill up the outline of the picture here and there with dark shadows and to impart a heightened dramatic colouring to some of the incidents but he preferred allowing the narrator to speak for himself and the various events recorded to tell their own tale He believes few persons will peruse it unmoved or arise from a perusal of it without feeling an increased abhorrence of the inhuman system under which at this hour in the United States of America alone three millions and a half of men women and children are held as chattels personal by thirty seven thousand and fifty five individuals many of them professing Ministers of the Gospel and defenders of the peculiar institution In undertaking to prepare this volume for the press the Editor s object was two fold namely to advance the anti slavery cause by the diffusion of information and to promote the success of the project John Brown has formed to advance himself by his own exertions and to set an example to others of his race If by the little the Editor has done to render the volume interesting he should secure for it a fair meed of popular favor these two objects will be certainly accomplished and his labor will not have been expended in vain Slave Life in Georgia John Brown,1991

incidents but he preferred allowing the narrator to speak for himself and the various events recorded to tell their own tale He believes few persons will peruse it unmoved or arise from a perusal of it without feeling an increased abhorrence of the inhuman system under which at this hour in the United States of America alone three millions and a half of men women and children are held as chattels personal by thirty seven thousand and fifty five individuals many of them professing Ministers of the Gospel and defenders of the peculiar institution
