with originality and offer particular insight into the complexities of production interpretation and reception for graphic narrative Pamela Thoma author of Asian American Women's Popular Literature Feminizing Genres and Neoliberal Belonging An informative smart and necessary collection Drawing New Color Lines investigates a growing and important field transnational Asian American comics with sophistication and breadth Hillary Chute author of Graphic Women Life Narrative and Contemporary Comics and Outside the Box Interviews with Contemporary Cartoonists What Happens When Nothing Happens Greice Schneider, 2016-06-30 Boredom and melancholy in the experience of reading Contemporary graphic novels show an interesting shift from the extraordinary to the ordinary in slice of life stories in which nothing happens Present day graphic accounts are inhabited by melancholic characters whining about the lack of meaning in life This book examines this intriguing transition and brings a historical aesthetical and narratological approach to comics in which boredom is not only a topic but also awakens a deliberate affective response in the very experience of reading This volume brings together close readings of work by Lewis Trondheim Chris Ware and Adrian Tomine With a foreword by Raphael Baroni University of Lausanne The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre's The Wall and Other Stories Kevin W. Sweeney, 2016-05-16 The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre's The Wall and Other Stories Stories of Bad Faith presents a philosophical analysis of all five stories in Sartre's short story collection Kevin W. Sweeney argues that each of the five stories has its own philosophical idea or problem that serves as the context for the narrative Sartre constructs each story as a reply to the philosophical issue in the context and as support for his position on that issue In the opening story The Wall Sartre uses the Constant Kant debate to support his view that the story's protagonist is responsible for his ally's death The Room presents in narrative form Sartre's criticism that the Freudian Censor is acting in bad faith In Erostratus Sartre opposes Descartes's claim in his hats and coats example that we recognize the humanity of others by using our reason In Intimacy Sartre again opposes a Cartesian position this time the view that our feelings reveal our emotions Sartre counters that Cartesian view by showing that the two women in the story act in bad faith because they do not distinguish their feelings from their emotions The last story The Childhood of a Leader shows how the protagonist acts in bad faith in trying to resolve the question of who he is by appealing to the view that one's roots in nature can provide one with a substantial identity The stories are unified by showing the characters in all five narratives engaged in different acts of bad faith The Philosophical Contexts of Sartre's The Wall and Other Stories is written for scholars interested in Jean Paul Sartre's early literary and philosophical work as well as for students interested in Sartre and twentieth century French literature Belonging and Narrative Laura Bieger, 2018-11-09 Why did the novel become so popular in the past three centuries and how did the American novel contribute to this trend As a key provider of the narrative frames and formulas needed by modern individuals to give meaning and mooring to their lives Drawing on phenomenological hermeneutics human geography and social psychology Laura Bieger contends that belonging is not a given it is continuously produced by narrative Against the current emphasis on metaphors of movement and destabilization she explores the salience and significance of home Challenging views of narrative as a mechanism of ideology she approaches narrative as a practical component of dwelling in the world and the novel a primary place making agent
