Cultural Diplomacy and International Cultural Relations: Volume I Oliver Bennett, 2020-05-21 This book is the first in a dedicated series that explores questions of cultural diplomacy and international cultural relations Drawing on a broad range of disciplinary perspectives it throws new light on the function and operation of policies that seek to change attitudes values and behaviours across national boundaries and in diverse geocultural contexts The specific policies explored relate to ways in which sites of past violence and atrocity are deployed in strategies of soft power to the contribution of culture to EU enlargement to the use of the Russian language as a soft power resource to the singularities of the Indian cultural diplomacy to cultural diplomacy as elite legitimation to the role of diaspora relations in European cultural diplomacy to the use of film in post war cultural diplomacy and to the role assigned to culture in the Canada EU Comprehensive Economic Trade Agreement Scholars interested in how cultural and foreign policy intersect in widely differing national contexts will find this book an invaluable resource It was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Cultural Policy

Civilizing Nature Bernhard Gissibl, Sabine Höhler, Patrick Kupper, 2012-11-01 National parks are one of the most important and successful institutions in global environmentalism Since their first designation in the United States in the 1860s and 1870s they have become a global phenomenon The development of these ecological and political systems cannot be understood as a simple reaction to mounting environmental problems nor can it be explained by the spread of environmental sensibilities Shifting the focus from the usual emphasis on national parks in the United States this volume adopts an historical and transnational perspective on the global geography of protected areas and its changes over time It focuses especially on the actors networks mechanisms arenas and institutions responsible for the global spread of the national park and the associated utilization and mobilization of asymmetrical relationships of power and knowledge contributing to scholarly discussions of globalization and the emergence of global environmental institutions and governance      Dealing with the Yugoslav Past

Alina Zubkovych, 2017-01-31 This book analyzes the representation of the socialist past in the national history museums of the former Yugoslavia Through travels to Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina Montenegro Kosovo and Macedonia the study elucidates the process of constructing the national narratives that maintain and legitimize a particular vision of the common past Cross national comparison allows for analysis of the democratic development of each state in relation to the politics of memory in the region and the role of political actors in its construction
