Sometimes I wonder in the nighttime airAs the day ends and the darkness draws nearIf the same moon you are looking at there's the same moon that's shining on me here The same moon we danced under every night To the rhythm of the beats of our hearts The same moon that sparked the love in our eyes But that love that we shared just fell apart And all I have are moonlit memories Of the times me and you shared together Our walks and our talks are nothing but dreams Dreams that were supposed to last forever Our walks and our talks are nothing but dreams And all I have are moonlit memories

Motherhood Lost Linda L. Layne, 2014-02-04 Nearly 20% of all pregnancies in the U S end in miscarriage or stillbirth Yet pregnancy loss is seldom acknowledged and rarely discussed Opening the topic to a thoughtful and informed discussion Linda Layne takes a historical look at pregnancy loss in America reproductive technologies and the cultural responses surrounding miscarriage Examining both support groups and the rituals they create to help couples through loss her analysis offers valuable insight on how material culture contributes to conceptions of personhood A fascinating examination Motherhood Lost is also a provocative challenge to feminists and other activists to increase awareness and provide necessary support for this often hidden but critically important topic
