Larraine Andrews, 2019-05-21 A visually rich historically epic tale of cattle ranching in southern Alberta focusing on multi generational family owned ranches that are still in existence today In the 1880s a group of fledgling cattle ranchers descended on the plains of southern Alberta They were drawn by the promise of the West where the grass seemed endless and they could ranch under the arch of the Chinook the warm Pacific wind that swooped down the eastern slopes of the Rockies to melt the snow and clear the land for year round grazing They came with wild optimism but their ambition was soon tempered by the brutal reality of a frontier land Ranching under the Arch is a tale of survival perseverance and prosperity in the face of struggle loss and loneliness Following over a dozen ranches still in operation that have roots dating to the late nineteenth century historian D Larraine Andrews recounts the culture that developed around this unique vocation These ranches have endured as vibrant enterprises sometimes into the fifth
