Educational Monthly of Canada ,1900      The Developing Canadian Community S.D. Clark,1962-12-15 Professor Clark s thesis is that the development of Canadian society can only be understood by examining how changes taking place in the underlying structure of the Canadian community The first part of the book examines the development of forms of social organization in Canada over the years 1600 to 1920 In the second and third sections the focus shifts to the general forces in Canadian society shaping the character of institutions and forms of social life The book concludes with four essays devoted to an examination of the relationship of sociology to history This volume demonstrates the mutually enriching value of a sociological historical approach and is very useful for those interested in communities social change and organization and the structure of Canadian society      Issues in African Education A. Abdi,A. Cleghorn,2005-11-04 This book addresses major sociological issues in sub Saharan African education today Its fourteen contributors present a thoroughly African world view within a sociology of education theoretical framework allowing the reader to see where that theory is relevant to the African context and where it is not Several of the chapters bring a much needed cultural nuance and critical theoretical perspective to the issues at hand The sixteen chapters thus aim to be of interest internationally to those who work in such fields as social and political foundations of comparative and international education and development studies including university professors teacher educators researchers school teachers tertiary education students consultants and policy makers      *Cultural
