Soviet American Relations In Asia 1945 1954:

Soviet-American Relations in Asia, 1945-1954 Russell D. Buhite, 1981 Based on recently released documents Buhite focuses on those parts of Asia that became objects of Soviet American competition He portrays the Soviet Union as an aggressive and expansionist power whose aspirations included not only control of the Kuril and Sakhalin islands but also domination or hegemony in Mongolia Sinkiang Manchuria Korea and Japan and eventual expulsion of the West from Southeast Asia Buhite believes that the United States must bear heavy responsibility for the intensification of the Cold War in Asia He also explains how thoughtful leaders adopted a posture of national interest based largely on such intangibles as credibility and national prestige Routledge Library Editions: World War II in Asia Timothy Hall, John J. Sbrega, 2021-03-11 The 4 volumes in this set originally published between 1980 and 1983 bring to light and focus on the conflict between Japan and Australia and Japan and the USA Timothy Hall's volumes richly illustrated with black white photographs used highly contentious documents as their sources and give fascinating insights into a period of Australian history which is sometimes less than glorious John J Sbrega's tour de force is not only one of the most extensive annotated bibliographies on the USA and Japan in World War 2 ever published but it also provides invaluable information on lesser known but no less important aspects of the conflict

Understanding Australia's Neighbours Nick Knight, Michael Heazle, Daniel Halvorson, 2011-09-26 A comprehensive introduction to the study of Asia Written thematically it provides comparisons between Asian and Australian societies and encourages readers to think about Australia's neighbours across a wide range of social economic and historical contexts Harry S. Truman Robert H. Ferrell, 2013-07-22 Few U S presidents have captured the imagination of the American people as has Harry S Truman the man from Missouri In this major new biography Robert H Ferrell widely regarded as an authority on the thirty third president challenges the popular characterization of Truman as a man who rarely sought the offices he received revealing instead a man who with modesty commitment to service and basic honesty moved with method and system toward the presidency Truman was ambitious in the best sense of the word His powerful commitment to service was accompanied by a remarkable shrewdness and an exceptional ability to judge people He regarded himself as a consummate politician a designation of which he was proud While in Washington he never succumbed to the Potomac fever that swelled the heads of so many officials in that city A scrupulously honest man Truman exhibited only one lapse when at the beginning of 1941 he padded his Senate payroll by adding his wife and later his sister From his early years on the family farm through his pivotal decision to use the atomic bomb in World War II Truman's life was filled with fascinating events Ferrell's exhaustive research offers new perspectives on many key episodes in Truman's career including his first Senate term and the circumstances surrounding the Truman Doctrine and the Marshall Plan In addition Ferrell taps many little known sources to relate the intriguing story of the machinations by which Truman gained the vice presidential nomination in 1944 a position which put him a heartbeat away from the presidency No other historian has ever demonstrated such command over the vast amounts of material that Robert Ferrell brings to bear on the unforgettable story of Truman's life. Based upon years of research in the Truman Library and the study of many never before used primary sources, Harry S. Truman is destined to become the authoritative account of the nation's favorite president. Notable U.S. Ambassadors Since 1775 Cathal J. Nolan, 1997-10-28 This book spans more than 200 years of U.S. diplomatic history. Its geographical scope widens along with the expanding interests of America itself from initial exclusive concern with the empires of Europe to the emerging nations of Latin America to the commercial opportunities and geopolitical concerns of Asia and Africa. The ambassadors chosen for inclusion reflect these historical changes in American foreign relations. Organized alphabetically, the biographies present an implicit account of the evolution of the U.S. diplomatic service from its founding and early principles through the 20th century evolution of its habits and culture. The Cold War Begins in Asia Marc S. Gallicchio, 1988 The summation of more than two thousand years of one of the world's most august literary traditions, this volume also represents the achievements of four hundred years of Western scholarship on China. The selections include poetry, drama, fiction, songs, biographies, and works of early Chinese philosophy and history rendered in English by the most renowned translators of classical Chinese literature: Arthur Waley, Ezra Pound, David Hawkes, James Legge, Burton Watson, Stephen Owen, Cyril Birch, A. C. Graham, Witter Bynner, Kenneth Rexroth, and others. Arranged chronologically and by genre, each chapter is introduced by definitive quotes and brief introductions chosen from classic Western sinological treatises. Beginning with discussions of the origins of the Chinese writing system and selections from the earliest genre of Chinese literature, the Oracle Bone inscriptions, the book then proceeds with selections from early myths and legends, the earliest anthology of Chinese poetry, the Book of Songs, early narrative and philosophy including the I Ching, Tao te Ching, and the Analects of Confucius, rhapsodies, historical writings, magical biographies, ballads, poetry, and miscellaneous prose from the Han and Six Dynasties period, the court poetry of the Southern Dynasties, the finest gems of Tang poetry and lyrics, stories and tales of the Sui, Tang, and Five Dynasties eras. Special highlights include individual chapters covering each of the luminaries of Tang poetry: Wang Wei, Li Bo, Du Fu, and Bo Juyi; early literary criticism; women poets from the first to the tenth century C.E. and the poetry of Zen and the Tao. Bibliographies, explanatory notes, copious illustrations, a chronology of major dynasties, and two-way romanization tables coordinating the Wade-Giles and pinyin transliteration systems provide helpful tools to aid students, teachers, and general readers in exploring this rich tradition of world literature. Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy. Library, 1992 A Revolutionary War Elwood L. White, United States Air Force Academy. Library, 1992 Special Bibliography Series, 1957 Mailing List (Infantry School (U.S.)), 1986
