Soviet Far Eastern Policy, 1931-1945 Harriet Lucy Moore, 1945 Soviet Far Eastern Policy, 1931-1945 Harriet L. Moore, 1945 The Soviet High Command John Erickson, 2001 The study makes extensive use of Soviet military histories specialist military monographs Red Army regulations military manuals and handbooks memoirs documentary collections on Soviet military organization and Army Party relations Unpublished captured German military documents describe the secret Red Army Reichswehr collaboration Japanese Army records provide detailed information on the Soviet military build up in the Far East The Wars for Asia, 1911-1949 S. C. M. Paine, 2014-10-09 The Wars for Asia 1911 1949 shows that the Western treatment of World War II the Second Sino Japanese War and the Chinese Civil War as separate events misrepresents their overlapping connections and causes The Chinese Civil War precipitated a long regional war between China and Japan that went global in 1941 when the Chinese found themselves fighting a civil war within a regional war within an overarching global war The global war that consumed Western attentions resulted from Japan's peripheral strategy to cut foreign aid to China by attacking Pearl Harbour and Western interests throughout the Pacific in 1941 S C M Paine emphasizes the fears and ambitions of Japan China and Russia and the pivotal decisions that set them on a collision course in the 1920s and 1930s The resulting wars together yielded a viscerally anti Japanese and unified Communist China the still angry rising power of the early twenty first century The Origins of Soviet American Diplomacy Robert Paul Browder, 2015-12-08 When Litvinov arrived in Washington in 1933 after the sixteen years of diplomatic silence between his country and the U S he carried with him his commission as official representative to the U S dated 1918 and signed by Lenin and Chicherin as evidence of the long standing desire of the Soviet Union for recognition This is an absorbing narrative of the events which led up to this dramatic arrival heralded with such high hopes and good will and of the collapse into discord and disillusionment which followed A full length account of these negotiations it presents a new picture of the pressures for and against diplomatic recognition of the Soviet Union Originally published in 1953 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Cohesion and Conflict in International Communism Peter Mayer, 2012-12-06 The current conflict which threatens the very existence of the international communist movement as a single coherent entity must be looked for in the roots of Marxian philosophy The central concept of pre Leninist communism is contained in the notion of proletarian internationalism Yet the emergence of the communist party states has been squarely predicated on the requirements of single national states as viewed through the training and experience of the various communist leaders Thus the Soviet version has been shaped by the nationalism of Lenin Stalin and Khrushchev The only aberrant case the internationalism of Trotsky was doomed to failure The Chinese version of communism has as its root concepts the spirit of prolonged struggle against a superior enemy whose ultimate defeat is ensured through the dialectics of political growth The non communist societies are by definition decadent The movement came to power by exploiting the nationalism engendered within China by the Japanese invasion Its mass support was based on the peasantry although the transparent fiction of proletarian leadership was strictly maintained Further communism is a term which has lost its original encompassing definition Peking now narrowly defines it as policies consonant with the thought of Mao Tse tung Thus both the Soviet and the Chinese interpretation of communism are based on a concept which was anathema to the intellectual founders of the movement
