Soviet Literature:

Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public

25 Years of Soviet Russian Literature (1918-1943) Gleb Struve, 2021-06-15 This book first published in 1944 is a comprehensive survey of post revolutionary Russian literature up to the early 1940s A huge range of writers are examined and the analysis is made in the knowledge of the sometimes considerable pressure brought by the Government on writers in Soviet Russia Links are made by the author between the writers being assessed as well as to the Russian writers that had come before them As a wide ranging analysis of Soviet literature this book has rarely been bettered

The Positive Hero in Russian Literature Rufus W. Mathewson, 2000 The positive hero was defined by the Soviets as one who set an example for the reader's behavior As early as 1860 the merits of this ideal model were a central issue in the war between literary imagination and ideological criticism that raged in Russia for a hundred years In The Positive Hero in Russian Literature Rufus W Mathewson Jr brings a period of Russian literature to life and demonstrates how the battles over the positive hero reappeared with dramatic clarity in the dissident literary movement that developed after Stalin's death Mathewson argues that the true continuity between nineteenth and twentieth century Russian prose was to be found in this persistent conflict between contrary views of the real nature and proper uses of literature This new edition of a widely acclaimed work first published in 1958 and covering literary developments through 1946 includes chapters on Belinsky Pasternak Solzhenitsyn and Sinyavsky Book Jacket

The Cambridge Companion to Twentieth-Century Russian Literature Evgeny Dobrenko, Marina Balina, 2011-02-17 In Russian history the twentieth century was an era of unprecedented radical transformations changes in social systems political regimes and economic structures A number of distinctive literary schools emerged each with their own voice specific artistic character and ideological background As a single volume compendium the Companion provides a new perspective on Russian literary and cultural development as it unifies both migr literature and literature written in Russia This volume concentrates on broad complex and diverse sources from symbolism and revolutionary avant garde writings to Stalinist post Stalinist and post Soviet prose poetry drama and migr literature with forays into film theatre and literary policies institutions and theories The contributors present recent scholarship on historical and cultural contexts of twentieth century literary development and situate the most influential individual authors within these contexts including Boris Pasternak Alexander Solzhenitsyn Joseph Brodsky Osip Mandelstam Mikhail Bulgakov and Anna Akhmatova

Red Virgin Soil Robert A. Maguire, 2000 Red Virgin Soil is a detailed study of the eponymous journal that was the most significant Soviet literary journal of the 1920s The journal published belles lettres theory and criticism and represented the first serious attempt in Russia in nearly half a century to shape an entire generation of writers readers and critics through the energy and authority of such a forum Maguire's work is also a survey of Soviet literary culture in that critical period between the end of the Civil War and the onslaught of the Stalinist era a period when writers could still engage in public debate about literature's role in the building of a revolutionary culture Book Jacket Soviet Literature in the Sixties Max Hayward, Edward L. Crowley, 2024-11-26 Soviet Literature in the Sixties 1965 examines the Soviet literary scene and its changes following the death of Stalin Not least among these changes was the increasing freedom given to writers to protest against the injustices of Soviet life and to question the consistency of socialist realism 25 Years of Soviet Russian Literature (1918-1943) Gleb Struve, 1944 Handbook of Russian Literature Victor Terras, 1985-01-01 Profiles the careers of Russian authors scholars and critics and discusses the history of the Russian treatment of literary genres such as drama fiction and essays

 Soviet Literature ,1990 Soviet Russian Literature in English George Gibian, Virginia Baeckler, 1967
