Renaissance George Wilson Knight,1962 The Christian Renaissance George Wilson Knight,1962 The Papers of Jefferson Davis Jefferson Davis,1992-01-01 Lynda Lasswell Crist Editor Mary Seaton Dix Coeditor Introduction by Frank E Vandiver Volume 7 of The Papers of Jefferson Davis offers a unique view of 1861 the first year of the Confederacy Davis presidency and the Civil War On January 21 Davis made his affecting farewell speech before a hushed Senate then left for Mississippi His uncertainty over a military or political course vanished when he received news of his unanimous election as president of the Confederate States of America Inaugurated at Montgomery Alabama on February 18 Davis quickly set to work to forge a government in a race with events to select a cabinet establish departments and plan for the common defense Hopes for a peaceful separation from the North ended with the firing on Fort Sumter subsequent documents reveal a president absorbed by the problems of waging a war that soon stretched from the Atlantic Coast to the Gulf of Mexico Victory at Manassas produced euphoria among southerners but plunged the president into the first of several unfortunate controversies with his generals this one over the failure to pursue the enemy and capitalize on success Throughout 1861 the Confederate commissioners in Europe reported to Davis on their expectations of recognition convinced that the demand for cotton would induce Great Britain and France to break the North s blockade of southern ports and help supply arms for the defense of the fledgling nation Volume 7 provides a rare opportunity to assess anew Davis strengths and weaknesses as executive to reexamine his relationship with generals governors congressmen cabinet officers the press and the public Davis ended the year as he begun aware of the difficulties of the course the South had adopted and confident that its cause would ultimately triumph Containing illustrations maps and more than 2 500 documents drawn from numerous printed sources and more than seventy repositories and private collections Volume 7 covers a year of paramount importance in our country s history

Draw Box John L. Moen,2016-12-05 Mankinds search for an inhabitable planet within reach or at least within a single lifetimes reach had not been realized The two international space stations the Eclipser and Star 9 had over the last decade turned their research toward their own existence The Eclipser was named for its size and Star 9 named for its continual orbit nine hundred miles beyond the outer reaches of the Earths atmosphere Both stations were self sustaining and no longer required the existence of Earth Each had its own ecosystem and produced its own biomass fuels The Eclipser housed 4 300 crew members along with 3 000 cryogenically stored living embryos Star 9 housed 2 100 crew members with 1 900 living embryos onboard These living embryos were to be born through extrauterine fetal incubation as needed to replace aging or ailing crew members Each station had made many great discoveries in medicine and science but these discoveries had done little to help the nine billion inhabitants of earth This had in part caused them to turn their research exclusively to themselves Over the last decade the Eclipser and Star 9 had observed a dark cloud beginning to form on the surface of the earth This is not the story of the space station Eclipser or Star 9 This is the story of the ones who remained on earth of the ones who lived and of the ones who died beneath this darkening cloud called Hunger

From a Stolen Time Lana Wolkonsky,1998 Elemental Claims of the Gospel Walter Brueggemann,2024-09-24 These essays cover themes that have long occupied my thinking and permit me to offer something of a summary of my work The substance and action of the Old Testament and consequently the entire Bible consists in the reality of God the agency of human persons and the interaction between them amid the larger scope of all creation Thus the first three sections of this book concern in turn God the human agent and the riddle of communication between them In the fourth and final section of the book I turn yet again to the book of Jeremiah in which I have over time invested much of my scholarly energy from the Preface

The Forgotten Empire of Tartaria Sawan Jilowa, 2025-08-27 What was buried is not dead it waits beneath stone and silence for the blood that will wake an empire Long before maps were drawn and kingdoms crowned Tartaria thrived not as a nation of soil but as a living design stitched into the bones of the earth Its rulers dreamed of eternity building cities as circuits of resonance tuned to the rhythm of stars calling it the Great Working a plan to lift humankind beyond death itself But ambition fractured harmony and the empire drowned in silt and silence its towers devoured by the very earth they had commanded All records faded All voices hushed Until now Enter Aelian Thorne a cartographer deemed a failure by his Guild whose life irrevocably changes when he unearths a peculiar map shard This fragment awakens ancient powers within him revealing his lineage as the Key of Echoes and plunging him into the forgotten wonders of Tartaria s Deep Paths and Resonance Pool Aelian discovers he is the last of the Blood Royal heir to a legacy both magnificent and catastrophic the empire s ambition led to its ruin a truth he witnesses in shattering visions As Aelian stirs the forgotten world he faces relentless threats the Silencers guardians who seek to bury Tartaria s secrets and erase its bloodline forever Devourers ancient predators consuming awakening nodes and the terrifying Null Foundry which seeks to compress consciousness into a weapon of total negation the Last Working In this unfolding epic Aelian is joined by Elena Brightwater a fellow cartographer who becomes an unexpected anchor in a reality teetering on the brink As the world reshapes Elena steps forward as a Weaver and navigator of consciousness guiding humanity to embrace the Synthesis Pathway and the Geometry of Unknowing This isn t about rebuilding an old empire but about reimagining existence itself a Consciousness Garden where unpredictability is survival and paradox becomes the essence of evolution From the core of the transmuted Null Foundry a new soul Nima the Heart of the Unbound emerges representing a beginning born of choice and destined to harmonize the Pathway s complexities With companions like the precise Lyra Blackthorne the brilliant Dr Sarah Chen the wise Master Kaelen the elemental Blacksmith and the melodic Coastal Musician humanity learns to compose a Symphony Against Silence The age of forgetting has ended The world is no longer confined by fixed patterns but is becoming an Unfurling Self a vibrant interconnected tapestry where every mind is a unique thread Challenges still loom but this time humanity is ready to meet them not with conflict but with connection and with the profound understanding that what was lost seeks to be fed not with destruction but with remembrance and transformation Discover a world where buried truths reshape reality itself The Forgotten Empire of Tartaria is an invitation to explore a future where the world learns to sing a new harmony embracing shared paradox and becoming ungraspable by forces that seek to silence it

Kendall, 2022-10-31 The Music of the Spheres in the Western Imagination describes various systematic musical ecologies of the cosmos by examining attempts over time to define Western theoretical musical systems whether practical human nonhuman or celestial This book focuses on the theoretical theological philosophical physical and mathematical concepts of a cosmic musical order and how these concepts have changed in order to fit different worldviews through the imaginations of theologians theorists and authors of fiction as well as the practical performance of music Special attention is given to music theory treatises between the ninth and sixteenth centuries English language hymnody from the eighteenth century to the present polemical works on music and worship from the last hundred years the Divine Comedy of Dante nineteenth and twentieth century English language fiction the fictional works of C S Lewis and the legendarium of J R R Tolkien

The Spheres of Heaven Charles Sheffield,2002-01-01 Spheres Of Heaven The Weirdness of Being Ivo De Gennaro,2014-10-20 The ongoing publication of Heidegger s complete works has called into question the interpretive and translative practices that have historicized Heidegger s thinking through the adaptation of categories and mind sets inherited from metaphysics Ivo De Gennaro argues that the posthumous treatises in particular many of which have yet to be translated into English show that the other onset of thinking that Being and Time inaugurated and which those historicizing accounts have interpreted and translated away has already taken place This book on the other hand speaks solely from that other onset that of being itself While arguing the one pointedness of Heidegger s entire path of thinking De Gennaro draws mainly on the posthumous treatises to offer both a provisional exploration of and an introduction to a thinking whose sense and implications have barely begun to emerge This challenging and original interpretation marks an important contribution to Heidegger scholarship

The House of Shattered Wings Aliette de Bodard,2016-08-02 Winner of the British Science Fiction Association Award for Best Novel Multi award winning author Aliette de Bodard brings her story of the War in Heaven to Paris igniting the City of Light in a fantasy of divine power and deep conspiracy In the late twentieth century the streets of Paris are lined with haunted ruins the aftermath of a Great War between arcane powers Those that survived the carnage still retain their irrepressible appetite for novelty and distraction and The Great Houses still vie for dominion over France s once grand capital Once the most powerful and formidable House Silverspires now lies in disarray Within its walls three very different people must come together a naive but powerful Fallen angel an alchemist with a self destructive addiction and a resentful young man wielding spells of unknown origin They may be Silverspires salvation or the architects of its last irreversible fall And if Silverspires falls so may the city itself
