Spinner Volume Iii People And Culture In Southeastern Massachusetts:

Spinner, Volume III Donna Huse,1984 The Patina of Place Kingston Wm Heath,2001 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the booming textile industry turned many New England towns and villages into industrialized urban centers This rapid urbanization transformed not only the economic base but the regional identity of communities such as New Bedford as new housing forms emerged to accommodate the largely immigrant workforce of the mills A Window Back Nicholas Whitman,1994 Holds special interest for marine history and New England history enthusiasts those with interest in photography art history students and professionals This unique portrait of New England s yesterdays features vintage photographs from the New Bedford Whaling Museum collection Recounting the history of photography in the New Bedford area between 1845 and 1920 A Window Back paints an intimate portrait of a bygone era portraying the working waterfront farms city scapes and people at leisure It takes us inside the studio and aboard whaling ships These brief glimpses represent and illuminate our past giving us a window back on time Historic Cultural Land Use Study of Lower Cape Cod Richard D. Holmes,1998 Spinner Joseph D. Thomas,Marsha McCabe,1987-12-01 Between Race and Ethnicity Marilyn Halter,2022-10-17 Arriving in New England first as crew members of whaling vessels Afro Portuguese immigrants from Cape Verde later came as permanent settlers and took work in the cranberry industry on the docks and as domestic workers Marilyn Halter combines oral history with analyses of ships records to chart the history and adaptation patterns of the Cape Verdean Americans Though identifying themselves in ethnic terms Cape Verdeans found that their African European ancestry led their new society to view them as a racial group Halter emphasizes racial and ethnic identity formation to show how Cape Verdeans set themselves apart from the African Americans while attempting to shrug off white society s exclusionary tactics She also contrasts rural life on the bogs of Cape Cod with New Bedford s urban community to reveal the ways immigrants established their own social and religious groups as they strove to maintain their Crioulo customs The Cape Verdean Diaspora in Portugal Luís Batalha,2004-01-01 Author Lu s Batalha s ethnographic study of the Cape Verdean community in Portugal focuses on two distinct groups the middle class white elite and the darker skinned migrant laborers This challenging and unique work strips bare the social relations race gender and class that structure lived experience in this post colonial society Based on the life stories of fifty Cape Verdeans living mainly in the metropolitan are of Lisbon this study provides an important analysis of these two remarkably disparate groups and illustrate what it is to be part of the present day Cape Verdean community in Portugal In addition to painting a complex and realistic portrait of this world Batalha further sheds light on the social national and international dynamics of societies who struggle with a racialized social order imposed and maintained for decades and in some cases centuries Bay State Librarian ,1984 Daddy Grace Marie W Dallam,2007-11-01 This edgy and resourceful analysis of the early twentieth century preacher expands our understanding of a critical period in the black church experience Shayne Lee author of T D Jakes America s New Preacher In 1919 Charles

Manuel Sweet Daddy Grace founded the United House of Prayer for All People long regarded as one of the most extreme Pentecostal sects in the country The flamboyant Grace wore purple suits with glitzy jewelry purchased high profile real estate and conducted baptisms in city streets with a fire hose He was also reputed to accept massive donations from his poverty stricken followers and use the money to live lavishly Though Grace appeared to be the glue that held this church together it has continued to thrive long after his death in 1960 After a period of restructuring and streamlining the House of Prayer remains active with a national membership in the tens of thousands In Daddy Grace Marie W Dallam offers both a religious history of the House of Prayer and an intellectual history of its colorful and enigmatic leader Dallam examines the religious nature of the House of Prayer the dimensions of Grace s leadership strategies and the connections between his often ostentatious acts and the intentional infrastructure of the church itself Furthermore woven through the text are analyses of the race class and gender issues manifest in the House of Prayer structure under Grace s aegis Spinner Marsha McCabe,1998-04-01 Holds special interest for history photography and biography buffs students and readers of American studies anyone connected with southeast Massachusetts and Cape Cod Readers see history through the eyes of everyday people in this eclectic collection of journals anecdotes and slice of life vignettes from New England There s the diary of a young Englishwoman who came to work in America in 1914 just as her homeland was drawn into World War I adventures of rum runners during prohibition a visit to St Mary s Home for Children during the 40s to meet a boy with happy surprises in store Spinner V brings to life these and other stories of the human experience and features an extraordinary photographic portrayal of people and events of the 1950s 60s and 70s Pantaloon & Power Gayle V. Fischer,2001 Clothing is often an indication of an individual s status and gender By the early nineteenth century clear definitions had developed regarding how American women and men were supposed to appear in public and how they were meant to lead their lives As men s style of dress moved from the ornate to the moderate women s fashions continued to be decorative and physically restrictive This visible separation of the sexes was paralleled in other arenas social cultural and religious Some women defied this convention and cut their skirts short abandoned their corsets and put on trousers In Pantaloon and Power Gayle V Fisher shows how the reformers denouncement of conventional dress highlighted the role of clothing in the struggle of power relations between the sexes Sister Days Janus Adams,2008-04-21 Stories from the Amazing journey of African American Women Whether read as history or practical inspiration the stories of bravery intelligence and fortitude revealed give a unique road map to rediscovering sister power The New American A collection of moving stories that celebrate the lives of black women who have overcome the many obstacles in their paths to pursue their dreams African Sun Times Now in paperback Sister Days offers you a daily invitation to share in the life affirming legacy of African American women Here are 365 uplifting meditations on courage daring and resistance that bring us valuable reminders of how real women in real times from Harriet Tubman to aviator Bessie Coleman to Wild West legend Stagecoach Mary to world renowned writer Maya

Angelou created a better way of life for themselves and a better world for others In reading their stories we ensure that these women live on as shining beacons to light our own quests for happier more fulfilled lives
