

An abstract painting of a city at night. The background is a deep blue with lighter blue and white streaks suggesting distant lights or clouds. In the foreground, there are several glowing circles of light in white, yellow, and orange, resembling reflections on water or distant city lights. A dark, rectangular shape in the lower center represents a car, with a bright white light on its roof and orange-red lights on its sides.

Spirit In The Cities Searching For Soul In The Urban Landscape:

Spirit in the Cities Kathryn Tanner, In recent decades economic dislocation immigration new architecture and other forces have transformed the physical social and even religious landscape of large cities There gleaming skyscrapers tower over struggling ghettos abandoned businesses mar upscale shopping areas and tall steeple churches sometimes languish where storefront mosques thrive Exploring the religious significance of this new urban landscape a group of theologians members of the Workgroup on Constructive Christian Theology traveled to select cities and found an exciting vibrant and multivoiced religious spirit at work In these essays five leading American theologians delve deeply into the contemporary spiritual geographies of five cities capturing through a mix of personal and historical narrative political analysis and theological rumination a sense of this new sacred space and the spirit aborning there The Sacred in the City Liliana Gómez,Walter Van Herck,2012-02-09 This book reflects the way in which the city interacts with the sacred in all its many guises with religion and the human search for meaning in life As the process of urbanization of society is accelerating thus giving an increasing importance to cities and the metropolis it is relevant to investigate the social or cultural cohesion that these urban agglomerations manifest Religion is keenly observed as witnessing a growth crucially impacting cultural and political dynamics as well as determining the emergence of new sacred symbols and their inscription in urban spaces worldwide The sacred has become an important category of a new interpretation of social and cultural transformation processes From a unique broader perspective the volume focuses on the relationship between the city and the sacred Taking a multidisciplinary approach combining the expertise of philosophers historians architects social geographers sociologists and anthropologists it draws a nuanced picture of the different layers of religion of the sacred and its diverse forms within the city with examples from Europe South America and the Caribbean and Africa Soul and the City Marcy Heidish,2010-05-05 Your City Guide to God Beneath the relentless rhythms of city life beats the heart of God and award winning author Marcy Heidish takes you into a more intimate relationship with him in the midst of crowds chaos and concrete Her experiences from a curb in Brooklyn the bay in San Francisco a rooftop of Chartres Cathedral in Paris and the busy halls of Washington D C help you see the city in a new light She turns common city distractions annoyances and challenges into spiritual invitations or gateways to a new kind of contemplation where screaming sirens become cues to silent intercession skyscrapers like spires pull your eyes and thoughts heavenward and red traffic lights work as pause buttons that call for you to stop and pray In the city there is grit Marcy writes And grime and garbage But her practical tools in every chapter for reflection discussion and application help you see whether you re visiting working or dwelling in Philadelphia or Phoenix New York or Los Angeles Seattle or Syracuse that in the city there is also grace Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 11, Special Issue 1 Matthew J. Spirit Outside the Gate Oscar García-Johnson, 2019-07-23 Oscar García Johnson explores a new grammar for the study of theology and mission in global Christianity especially in Latin America Moving to recover important elements in ancestral traditions of the Americas he discerns pneumatological continuity between the pre Columbian and post Columbian communities With an interdisciplinary narrative approach this work offers a constructive theology of mission for the church in global contexts Befriend Jana Strukova, 2023-12-06 Befriend narrates a personal experience of the author with the formation of a faith based nonprofit in health services It combines real life examples with theories from several disciplines to describe the nature and role of nonprofit in a community The book argues that faith based nonprofits create spaces of hospitality and inclusion for diverse humanity They are poised to teach practices of friendship based on the friendship of Trinity and personal awareness of how mental health can either contribute to friendships in communities or inhibit it The

Spiritual City Philip Sheldrake, 2014-04-03 A Spiritual City provides a broad examination of the meaning and importance of cities from a Christian perspective Contains thought provoking theological and spiritual reflections on city making by a leading scholar Unites contemporary thinking about urban space and built environments with the latest in urban theology Addresses the long standing anti urban bias of Christianity and its emphasis on inwardness and pilgrimage Presents an important religious perspective on the potential of cities to create a strong human community and sense of sacred space

Mission in Marginal Places: The Theory Michael Pears, 2016-09-01 This first book in the series presents a thought provoking foundation for contemporary mission Drawing on key theological missiological and social scientific ideas it discusses the fundamentals that provide a basis for place dependent reflective praxis amongst people occupying social margins This fascinating work re energises debate around questions of why and how mission in marginal places should be planned and implemented

Crossover City Andrew Davey, 2010-06-03 Is an urban based approach to mission still relevant in a networked global society If so what is particular about the urban context for the heart of God's mission How is that mission understood in terms of evangelism and proclamation sin and salvation the work of the sacraments and the Holy Spirit and challenge of Christ in the lives of his followers Theological reflection case studies and new insights come together as practitioners theologians and urban clergy reflect on the presence of the Church in urban communities Crossover City confronts the theological priorities of the Church as it attempts to hold the tensions between expectations of its partnership in social regeneration and welfare and its prophetic voice through its continued and transformative presence in marginalized communities It challenges the way theology is often done in isolated factions that deny openness and collaboration which must underpin the transformative mission our urban areas cry out for Critical reading for those in theological training and parish ministry seeking resources for a creative and radical witness in our increasingly urban world

Brücken Bauen in Einem Vielgestaltigen Europa Sabine Bieberstein, Kornélia Buday, Ursula Rapp, 2006 Building bridges has been and still is the main task of the European Society of Women in Theological Research ESWTR It aims to facilitate theological and academic religious debate transcending the borders between languages and countries as well as those resulting from religions confessions cultures or traditions in order to offer constructive future perspectives This volume has now adopted building bridges as its main theme It reflects the contributions to the 11th International Conference of ESWTR held in 2005 in the unique historical and cultural setting of Budapest European women in the lead of theological research discuss the subject on the basis of their different specialist approaches and thus provide a unique spectrum of contemporary discourse from very varied disciplines in theology and religious studies

Exploring the Postsecular, 2010-05-17 The re emergence of the religious in secular domains has led prominent scholars such as Jürgen Habermas and Charles Taylor to speculate about a new postsecular age The alleged shift from the secular to the postsecular is most visible in the spheres of urban public space governance and civil society This volume addresses contemporary relations between religion politics and urban societies primarily from a theoretical perspective while also paying attention to empirical manifestations of the central conceptual ideas The primary focus is the relations between public religion deprivatization of religion and theorizations of modernity and modernities with the secondary and closely related focus on theorizing postsecular urbanism including the role of faith based organizations FBOs in cities Contributors include Justin Beaumont James A Beckford Luke Bretherton Paul Cloke Candice Dias Wilhelm Gr b Maaïke de Haardt Jason Hackworth Christoph Jedan Kim Knott Michiel Leezenberg Bernice Martin David Martin Gregor McLennan Arie L Molendijk Nihan zdemir S nmez Martijn Oosterbaan Andy F Sanders Anke Schuster and Hetty Zock

The Quest for God and the Good Life Mark T. Miller, 2013-05-01 Throughout this introductory text progress decline and redemption constitute a systematic framework for examining the central terms of Catholic theology as well as key notions in Lonergan's theology The book provides a firm foundation for students of Lonergan as well as anyone interested in understanding Catholic theology and applying it to ministry education and other fields The Charismatic City and the Public Resurgence of Religion N. Wariboko, 2014-09-11 Two powerful and interrelated transnational cultural expressions mark our epoch Charismatic spirituality and global city This book demonstrates how these two forces can be used to inform ethical design of cities and their common social lives to best support human flourishing spirituality and social and ecological wellbeing of their residents Enfleshing Theology Michele Saracino, Robert J. Rivera, 2018-10-31

Enfleshing Theology honors and engages the life work of M Shawn Copeland whose theology is groundbreaking and prophetic traversing the fields of Catholic Theology Black Theology Womanist Thought and Semiotics The book opens with a brief introduction and then moves to an interview with Copeland which connects her theology to her life stories The conversation with Copeland also provides a backdrop to the seventeen essays that follow extending Copeland's theological worldview The contributions are divided according to the following sections embodiment discipleship and politics The essays in the section entitled Engaging Embodiment critically reflect on the importance of embodiment in Christian theology and contemporary culture Following Copeland's lead authors in this section theorize and theologize the body particularly but not limited to Black women's bodies as a locus theologicus that reveals mediates and shapes the splendor and suffering reality of human existence The next section entitled Engaging Discipleship focuses on the concrete challenges of following Jesus in today's world The essays included in this section reflect on Copeland's focus on Jesus particularity in terms of his solidarity with and for others Discipleship is about modeling and mentoring so scholars in this section also comment on Copeland's contribution to teaching and pedagogy The last section entitled Engaging the Political interrogates the political implications of the theological It is noteworthy that there are two trajectories of the political here one is Copeland's development of political theology through the lens of Canadian Jesuit theologian Bernard Lonergan The other trajectory focuses on the work of theology in contemporary art and politics These three sections are fluid and overlap with one another Several of the articles on embodiment speak to questions of solidarity and a few of the essays on discipleship clearly present as political The ways in which each of the contributions in this volume overlap with each other attests to the complex nature of doing constructive theology today and even more how Copeland's work is at the forefront of that multi layered polyvalent intersectional theological work Religion, Space, and the Environment Sigurd Bergmann, 2017-07-05 Religions often nurture important skills that help believers locate themselves in the world Religious perceptions practices emotions and beliefs are closely interwoven with the environments from which they emerge Sigurd Bergmann's driving emphasis here is to explore religion not in relation to but as a part of the spatiality and movement within the environment from which it arises and is nurtured Religion Space and the Environment emerges from the author's experiences in different places and continents over the past decade At the book's heart lie the questions of how space place and religion amalgamate and how

lived space and lived religion influence each other Bergmann explores how religion and the memory of our past impact our lives in urban spaces how the sacred geographies in Mayan and northeast Asian lands compare to modern eco spirituality and how human images and practices of moving in with and through the land are interwoven with the processes of colonization and sacralising and the practices of power and visions of the sacred among other topics Civility Philip Sheldrake, 2024-08-19 Civility offers a thoughtful response to one of the most significant social challenges and public problems that we face in contemporary society particularly in the Western world The book identifies and discusses the critical public social values and virtues that we need to focus upon and actively to promote to counter these problems and overall to develop a healthy human society To achieve an effective inclusive and just society we must first reframe how we understand politics What does politics mean and how should it be practiced Politics in its true sense does not mean something ideological but rather it involves the service of the polis that is the human community We also need to recover a robust sense of public virtues The book describes some of the critical virtues and suggests how they may be cultivated The overall argument is that in a healthy society it is vitally important to concentrate more effectively on public virtues and values rather than simply to focus on encouraging material success or on creating efficient social and political systems as the main goals that we seek to develop in our societies The volume focuses particularly on the public virtues of civility having a sense of place building community solidarity and responsibility respect and compassion and cultivating discernment that is the art of how to choose well The book concludes by offering reflections on the particular role of education especially school education and of public leadership as two central elements in reshaping a healthy society based on clear societal values
