God Loves A Champion Tony Drake,2022-01-15 Nothing is impossible for God Frustrated because everything I tried to do on my own just wasn't panning out Disappointed because I knew I had the answers to life's question But lo and behold once again I was wrong as two left shoes Something was missing and I just couldn't figure it out I frowned on the thought of asking anyone for advice Just the thought of being talked about and laughed at behind my back weren't thoughts I needed on my mind at this time On the outside everything concerning me looked just fine but on the inside I was broken and I needed some fixing I needed some help Just when I was on the edge of throwing in the towel and calling it quits of trying to find myself my purpose in life I got the call to join the team I answered the call and the soft but faint voice told me that my prayers have been heard and answered You will have an assignment a purpose to fulfill But first you must complete your training So my question was what training do I have to do You will have to give God something to work with because God loves a champion Collier's ,1915 A Peircean Reimagining of Thomas
