The Second Generation of African American Pioneers in Anthropology Ira E. Harrison, Deborah Johnson-Simon, Erica Lorraine Williams, 2018-11-15 After the pioneers the second generation of African American anthropologists trained in the late 1950s and 1960s Expected to study their own or similar cultures these scholars often focused on the African diaspora but in some cases they also ranged further afield both geographically and intellectually Yet their work remains largely unknown to colleagues and students This volume collects intellectual biographies of fifteen accomplished African American anthropologists of the era The authors explore the scholars diverse backgrounds and interests and look at their groundbreaking methodologies ethnographies and theories They also place their subjects within their tumultuous times when antiracism and anticolonialism transformed the field and the emergence of ideas around racial vindication brought forth new worldviews Scholars profiled George Clement Bond Johnnetta B Cole James Lowell Gibbs Jr Vera Mae Green John Langston Gwaltney Ira E Harrison Delmos Jones Diane K Lewis Claudia Mitchell Kernan Oliver Osborne Anselme Remy William Alfred Shack Audrey Smedley Niara Sudarkasa and Charles Preston Warren II Lean

Semesters Sekile M. Nzinga, 2020-10-13 Addressing in depth the reality that women of color particularly Black women face compounded exploitation and economic inequality within the neoliberal university More Black women are graduating with advanced degrees than ever before Despite the fact that their educational and professional opportunities should be expanding highly educated Black women face strained and worsening economic material and labor conditions in graduate school and along their academic career trajectory Black women are less likely to be funded as graduate students are disproportionately hired as contingent faculty are trained and hired within undervalued disciplines and incur the highest levels of educational debt In Lean Semesters Sekile M Nzinga argues that the corporatized university long celebrated as a purveyor of progress and opportunity actually systematically indebts and disposes of Black women's bodies their intellectual contributions and their potential en masse Insisting that shifts in higher education must recognize such unjust dynamics as intrinsic not tangential to the operation of the neoliberal university Nzinga draws on candid interviews with thirty one Black women at various stages of their academic careers Their richly varied experiences reveal why underrepresented women of color are so vulnerable to the compounded forms of exploitation and inequity within the late capitalist terrain of this once revered social institution Amplifying the voices of promising and prophetic Black academic women by mapping the impact of the current of higher education on their lives the book's collective testimonies demand that we place value on these scholars intellectual labor untapped potential and humanity It also illuminates the ways past liberal feminist victories within academia have yet to become accessible to all women Informed by the work of scholars and labor activists who have interrogated the various forms of inequity produced and reproduced by institutions of higher education under neoliberalism Lean Semesters serves as a timely and accessible call to action Ruptures: Anti-colonial & Anti-racist Feminist Theorizing Njoki

Wane, Jennifer Jagire, Zahra Murad, 2014-02-07 This book provides tools and theoretical frameworks to make sense of how the world is regulated governed controlled with regard to the exclusivity of certain members of the society and in particular women from marginalized groups This book therefore engages readers by asking thought provoking questions to interrogate issues of marginality and oppression in society The book as a collective provides an intellectual discourse on feminism anticolonial thought and anti racism This book is a must read for scholars activists theorists and researchers who are seeking to rupture the borders of confinement and move beyond the imaginary margins created by organized structures in society

'Other Kinds of Dreams' Julia Sudbury, 2005-08-08 Other Kinds of Dreams provides an invaluable insight into the political activity of black and Asian women in the UK both inside and outside the black and Asian communities The book breaks new ground by destroying the misconception that black and Asian women lack political involvement integrating gender into the study of black and Asian political participation in Britain exploring the potential for alliances between black women and the new progressive black man's movement examining black women activists perception and experiences of white feminism Other Kinds of Dreams also questions the homogeneity of the term black and asks whether increasing social stratification within black communities undermines this unity

Qualitative Inquiry and the Conservative Challenge

Norman K Denzin, Michael D Giardina, 2016-07-01 This volume is a call to qualitative researchers to respond to the political and methodological conservatism of the new millennium Based upon the plenary papers at the first International Congress on Qualitative Inquiry 22 scholars from five countries and many academic disciplines address how qualitative inquiry can maintain its forward looking agenda its emphasis on ethical practice and its stance in favor of social justice in a world where conservatives aggressively control the political system the university and grant agency purse strings Contributions by such noted scholars as Patti Lather Janice Morse Linda Tuhiwai Smith Ernest House Yvonna Lincoln and H L Goodall Jr make this an important benchmark work for all involved in qualitative inquiry

Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong, 2008

Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future The study of ethnic groups and race relations has always existed in academia primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments developed with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research is a step toward ending that void Book jacket
