The Spirit of Australia Ray Broadus Browne, 1988 In the world of crime fiction Arthur W Upfield stands among the giants His detective inspector Napoleon Bonaparte is one of the most memorable of all crime fighters Upfield was an independent fiercely self assertive ex Britisher who loved Australia especially the Outback In many ways Upfield became Outback Australia the Spirit of Australia Australian Crime Fiction Stephen Knight, 2018-07-10 Australian crime fiction has grown from the country's origins as an 18th century English prison colony Early stories focused on escaped convicts becoming heroic bush rangers or how the system mistreated those who were wrongfully convicted Later came thrillers about wealthy free settlers and lawless gold seekers and urban crime fiction including Fergus Hume s 1887 international best seller The Mystery of a Hansom Cab set in Melbourne The 1980s saw a surge of private eye thrillers popular in a society skeptical of police Twenty first century authors have focused on policemen and increasingly policewomen and finally indigenous crime narratives The author explores in detail this rich but little known national subgenre Crime Fiction since 1800 Stephen Knight, 2010-04-09 Since its appearance nearly two centuries ago crime fiction has gripped readers imaginations around the world Detectives have varied enormously from the nineteenth century policemen and a few women through stars like Sherlock Holmes and Miss Marple to newly self aware voices of the present feminist African American lesbian gay postcolonial and postmodern Stephen Knight's fascinating book is a comprehensive analytic survey of crime fiction from its origins in the nineteenth century to the present day Knight explains how and why the various forms of the genre have evolved explores a range of authors and movements and argues that the genre as a whole has three parts the early development of Detection the growing emphasis on Death and the modern celebration of Diversity The expanded second edition has been thoroughly updated in the light of recent research and new developments such as ethnic crime fiction the rise of thrillers in the serial killer and urban collapse modes and feel good cozies It also explores a number of fictional works which have been published in the last few years and features a helpful glossary With full references and written in a highly engaging style this remains the essential short guide for readers of crime fiction everywhere A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense A History of the Book in Australia, 1891-1945 Martyn Lyons, John Arnold, 2001 Collection of essays and case studies outlining Australian book production and consumption from the 1880s to the end of World War II Explores all aspects of print culture including authorship editing design and printing publication distribution bookselling libraries and reading habits Includes photos contributor notes bibliography and index Two further books in the A History of the Book in Australia project are planned Lyons is Professor of History at the University of New South Wales He has previously written with Lucy Taksa Australian Readers Remember Arnold is Deputy Director of the National Centre for Australian Studies Monash University He has previously co edited the Biography of Australian Literature

ΑE Pioneers in Popular Culture Studies Ray Broadus Browne, Michael T. Marsden, 1999 Contains informal interviews with 13 significant figures in the development of the field of popular culture studies. The interviews explore the academic revolution inaugurated in the late 1960s and early 1970s in the fields of the humanities and social sciences with the founding and subsequent influence of the Popular Culture Association and American Culture Association and the interviewees thoughts about the changes Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Translating National Allegories Alistair Rolls, John West-Sooby, Marie-Laure Vuaille-Barcan, 2019-04-15 This book explores the intersection of a number of academic areas of study that are all individually of growing importance translation studies crime fiction and world literature The scholars included here are leaders in one or more of these areas The frame of this volume is imagological its focus is on the ways in which national allegories are constructed and deconstructed encompassing descriptions of national characteristics as they play out at the level of the local or the individual as well as broader political analyses Its corpus crime fiction is shown to be a privileged site for writing the national narrative and often in ways that are more complex and dynamic than is suggested by the genre's much cited role as vehicle for a new realism Finally these two areas are problematised through the lens of translation which is a crucial player in both the development of crime fiction and the formation rather than simply the interlingual transfer of national allegory In this volume national allegories and the crime novels in which they emerge are shown to be eminently versatile foundationally plural texts that promote critical rewriting as opposed to sites for fixing meaning This book was originally published as a special issue of The Translator World of Stephen King Gary Hoppenstand, Ray Broadus Browne, 1987 Stephen King's popularity lies in his ability to reinterpret the standard Gothic tale in new and exciting ways Through his eyes the conventional becomes unconventional and wonderful King thus creates his own Gothic world and then interprets it for us This book analyzes King s interpretations and his mastery of popular literature The essays discuss adolescent revolt the artist as survivor the vampire in popular literature and much more Sold by the Millions Louise Lightfoot, Amit Sarwal, 2011-12-08 Australian genre fiction writers have successfully exploited the Australian landscape and peoples and as a result their books are today sold by the millions across boundaries They have created stories that are imaginative visionary and diverse They appeal to local and international readerships and most importantly are thoroughly entertaining thus making them a strong presence in the popular fiction bazaar Sold by the Millions Australia s Bestsellers is the first collection to concentrate on Australia s best selling material that forms the armchair reading of many Australians Leading experts of popular fiction provide introspective pieces on Romance Horror Crime Science Fiction Western Comics Travel Sports and Children's writing so that a wholesome picture emerges of the wide range of reading and research options available for scholars I Killed Lincoln at 10:13!
